The Secrets of Religion and Mass Order

"For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light (for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness and truth) and find out what pleases the Lord. Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them."

-Ephesians 5:8-11

One might think that structure of New World Order (NWO) began with the ideology of Adolf Hitler. Others might say it began with the Roman Empire. Evangelists may blame it on the one born in Shinar, known to us as, Nimrod. To have a clear understanding of the nature of "Mass order," we need to comprehend the teachings of one in the same "Being" whose records were removed from most books of faith. These are the teachings of the Metatron, and in his human form, Enoch.

Religion divides nations; in fact, we shouldn't even call it religion. We should call it spiritual teachings, and we should trade these teachings with our foreign brothers, like commodity on a stock exchange for a clear understanding of who we are, where we come from, why we are here, and where we are headed. Nimrod and his mother/wife, Semiramis, (who you will learn about later in this Book), were the founders of religion, politics, and currency (all that is evil).

For 33-years I've studied most religions offered in the world while traveling globally in efforts to verify what I had learned. I traveled to South America to verify the writings of the Metatron. Imbedded hieroglyphics, I found the true architect of New Order, and his original name was, Bael.

The Beginning

On page 58 of the "Revelations of The Metatron," (preface by Dr. John Rossner PhD), we see the creation of two angels by God, the Metatron meaning "First," and his twin sister, Sandalphon, meaning "Second." This makes the Metatron the most significant angel opposed to the archangel, Michael. Ten pages later we see the creation of the Archangels, including Michael, Gabriel, Raphael, Uriel, Baraqiel, Beelzebel, and finally-and fully equal in totality to Michael, but with great desire for power; Bael is created. God would later rename Bael, calling him, "Baal The Satin The Advisory," (By my observation, Bael was disobedient roughly 39 times before God threw him into the Abyss).

God's name (at this time) was, "EL," and he placed his name at the end of the word Angel, meaning lesser sons of EL. With the exception of Metatron and Sandalphon, God also placed his name at the end of all angel names, so that all things would recognize them as sons of God. If an angel was disobedient, the "E.L." would be dropped from their name, and a new name would be given, hence Bael to Baal, or Beelzebel to Beelzebub.

New World Ruler Pronounced By Bael

Before Bael was tossed into the void, there was a point when God proclaimed him, "King of The First Heavens." In the first heaven existed a Pure White Light used for purification. Because of his duty in the first heaven, Bael was named the Dispenser of Evil Punishment, or simply D-Evil (Devil). Bael studied this light, and wanted to impress God. With a limited use of force, he reverses light in the galaxy. This light inversion caused darkness and in an instant, the ice age was created here on Earth. For this, God placed Bael into a void/abyss.

Genesis begins (in the bible), God creates, and time passes. Bael, still in the abyss and remembering what he had learned in the first heaven, creates an enormous flash of disastrous light that pierces through all the heavens. He then used the force to convey to all:

"For the I AM, it is time for its end. Now I Bael will be the new ruler of the world. All Heavenly Beings are to come unto me. The Abyss is the renewal of the world into the next time."

This Light was powerful, and Bael continued, "I am the new light. Come unto me" (Revelation of The Metatron Page 152). One-third of angels led by Samuel, Ariel, and Camael, including souls that were not remnants of man, followed Beelzebel (Who later becomes Beelzebub, then Belzeus, then Zeus) and crossed over into the Abyss. They all became confused and full of darkness.

This was the first announcement of any type of New Order on record from a negative entity.

The Fall of Man Through Deception

God, quickly corrected the harmony, and sent the Amilous (Son of God), Michael and the Metatron into the abyss to save those who were duped by Bael.

God proclaimed:

"No Longer shall the last formed Archangel be known as Bael, but shall be called Baal, the Satan, the Adversary."

-Revelation of The Metatron (Page 170)

God demanded that all tainted angels' dwell upon earth in their corporeal forms so that their spirits wouldn't disrupt the heavens. He sent them to an island called Atla (which we know today as Atlantis). Atlantis' may have been located at 31° 15' 53N, 12° 15' 30.53W at one point but Pangaea took place and Atla is now positioned deep under ice in the Antarctica. Though Antarctica appears to be one massive continent of ice, if the ice were to melt, you would see separate islands.

There were two types of angels on this island, the Fallen, paired with Godly Angels for guidance. Atla was like paradise for angels, and men were not allowed. Men were scattered on the earth before Adam, known as remnant of original man, but were not present in Atla. As Angels became repaired, they returned back to the heavens. The angels that remained on Atla were told not to move beyond this island and not to commingle with man.

God Created Adam, then Eve. He then created an eastward garden in the land of Eden. In this garden he created two trees. The first was called, The Tree of Life, which he created for the Angels who accompanied Him. The second tree was called, The Tree of Knowledge, which God created to store all the evil that was released from the man (Adam) by the spirit, along with good. After this, Eve was created as recorded in Genesis 2:22.

Baal was aware of The Tree of Knowledge, and had the ability to communicate through reptiles. He sent a serpent into Adam's paradise and duped Eve saying,

"Ye Shall not Surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil."

-Genesis 3:4-5 (KJV)

With this statement, the origin of evil and the fall of man here on Earth began through deception. This origin of evil is the answer to mans use of deception as his most powerful and reliable apparatus in implementing plans set in motion by such an ancient being of hatred.

The Metatron Becomes Man

The Metatron was still tainted with vanity from the abyss and asked God to rid him of this evil. Then God said, "You may enter a body of man and with the Spirit of the Perfect Amen, you may rid your imperfection."

-Revelation of The Metatron (Page 170)

The Spirit of the Metatron was entered into the lineage of Seth, as the offspring of Jared, and he inherited the Amen Sprit and was called, Enoch. Enoch was an Ethiopian man, who had massive knowledge amongst men. His record is recorded in Genesis Chapter 5:18, but it's best to read his full records in, "The Book of Enoch."

Fallen Angels Create New Order on Earth

The angels became disobedient, and began building crafts of air (what we would call today, UFOs), and sea vehicles (what we would call today, USOs) to move from one land to the next (recorded in the Revelations of Metatron page 171, and in Genesis Chapter 6:1), taking women as mates. The Godly Angels took one woman as a wife, and the Fallen Angels to several for wives. It was the Fallen Angels who created offspring known as Nephilim (See Genesis 6:4). Nephilims were giants. A Nephilim was born with gentiles, and could reproduce as man does. There were no female Nephilims, only giant men. A Nephilim's offspring was called, Raphiem, which is Hebrew for the word, "Giants." They were giants too, but their stature was smaller than Nephilims. A Raphiem could seed a woman to have both male and female.

In the bible, Moses walked with God 40 years, as recorded in Exodus. Elijah walked with God roughly 21 years as recorded in The Book of Kings. Enoch walked with God for 300 years making him the second most significant man to have ever walked on the face of the earth, and yet we don't see his writings in the bible.

In the Book of Enoch, Enoch not only describes the mischief of the fallen angels, he provides names and description of what they are teaching man. He states:

“...and Azâzêl taught men to make swords, and knives, and shields, and breastplates, and made known to them the metals of the earth and the art of working them, and bracelets, and ornaments, and the use of antimony, and the beautifying of the eyelids, and all kinds of costly stones, and all colouring tinctures. And there arose much godlessness, and they committed fornication, and they were led astray, and became corrupt in all their ways. Semjâzâ taught enchantments, and root-cuttings, Armârôs the resolving of enchantments, Barâqîjâl, (taught) astrology, Kôkabêl the constellations, Ezêqêl the knowledge of the clouds, Araqîêl the signs of the earth, Shamsîêl the signs of the sun, and Sariêl the course of the moon. And as men perished, they cried, and their cry went up to heaven.”

-The Book of Enoch 8:1-2

The New Order of the World was in place. Angels, Nephilims and Raphiem, roamed and controlled the earth, enslaving man, pitting man against man, and man against female. Nephilim created battles against other Nephilim and Raphiem groups against other Raphiem groups. This resulted in the great deluge of the days of Noah, but this deluge did not eradicate sin, so man's sinful nature ran wild once again.

The Order of the Last Surviving Raphiem

During the great floods, most of the Nephilims and Raphiems were killed. The most famous surviving Raphiem was known as, Og, King of Bashan (AKA Ha-Palit, which means escapee). Og had a twin brother named Sihon. They were the sons of Ahijah, a Nephilim whose father was a fallen angel by the name of Shamhazai (Nid. 61a).

Og was Ha-Palit, the one who escapes in Genesis 14:13 to warn Abram that his brother Lot was taken from Sodom. It Reads, “And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelled in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate with Abram.”

Though the bible states in Genesis 14:13 that Abram's brother (Lot) was taken, this is incorrect. Lot was actually Abram's nephew, the son of Abram's brother, Hanar, as written in Genesis 11:31.

In the Jewish Encyclopedia, we learn the true motive of Og. It reads:

“It was Og who brought the news to Abraham of the captivity of Lot. This he did, however, with an evil motive, for he thought that Abraham would seek the release of Lot and would be killed in battle with the great kings, and that he, Og, would be able to marry the beautiful Sarah.”

-Gen. R. xlii. 12

Abram (who became Abraham), survives the battle and keeps his wife Sarah. Years later, Og is warned about the deluge from his stepfather; Ham who just so happens to be one of Noah's son. Og, then travels to Enoch's great grandson, Noah. Noah saved Og from the floods on a promise that he and his descendants would serve Noah as slaves in perpetuity (PdRE 23).

When the waters receded, Og did not keep his word to Noah. Instead, he duped Noah and all his sons, with the help of Noah's grandson, Canaan, by changing the fermentation of the vineyard into a great drug. They all drank the wine, including Canaan and fell into a deep sleep for six thousand years. Og carried them all to the cave of Baal (Revelation of The Metatron Page 180). The bible records indicates that it was Ham who duped his father Noah in Genesis 9:20-25, but this is untrue. Noah removed the records of Og after he found out that it was Og who had duped him and his sons.

Wickedness began again after the great deluge, and for a time (roughly 6,000 years), God left the earth. During this time, Beelzebel, now had his name changed to Beelzebub by God. Beelzebub became "Ruler of the Earth."

"It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?"

Matthew 10:25

As you can see from this verse in the Bible, Beelzebub is spelled with three "E's." He didn't like that God renamed him from his Archangel name "Beelzebel" to Beelzebub, so he renamed himself Belzeus. The Greeks later called him Zeus. He wasn't a Greek myth, he was real, a fallen Archangel.

NOTE: Later in Book-1 you will learn about a god that was worshipped in the past, and is still prevalent in today's Catholic Church. His name is Dagon, and Dagon, Zeus, Belzeus, Beelzebub and the "One-time Archangel," Belzebel, are all one in the same. He's not mythical the way the Greeks presented him, but he is real, and there are still remnants of grotesque mermaids found in the ocean , even now in present day (Belzebel the Archangel was King of the Sea).

With a few corrupt angels, Belzeus founded his own colony in high places above one of the larger settlements formed by Og, and away from Atla. Belzeus didn't stay on Atla because God Angels still resided there. He set himself up as, god of the Oceans, as they were called after Og (Revelation of The Metatron Page 185).

Within this six thousand year period, the Amilous (Christ's original spirit name), Son of God, came to earth with God's permission to save the souls of the earth. The Amilous came to earth as, Rael. He was known as the Angel who shone like the sun. He traveled into Egypt as the affectionate King known as, "Ra." Baal was aware that this was really the Amilous, and communicated this to the fallen angels, who told great lies in His name.

The Angels of Baal took Ra into the Great Pyramid and killed him.

"Not since the disruption and defection of Baal, and the deception of the Lord God by the serpent of Baal, through Adam and Eve, had there been such shock and dismay by the Almighty, El, The Lord God, the Holly One, The Amilous, Himself, and all beings in the Heavens."      -Revelations of The Metatron (Page 187)

-Revelations of The Metatron (Page 187)

God pronounced:

"I will hold the Satan, Baal, within his bounds of the abyss for one thousand years of Earth. And if the sons of Baal on earth are not redeemed to the ways of God by then, they will be removed from earth, no longer may they seek its refuge."

Nine hundred years passed and corruption worsened. The sons of Baal became fearful of Gods wrath. Belzeus and the fallen angels scanned nearby planets that they could live on. Belzeus knew of a mass with water, but it was not within range of earth's sun. This planet did have its own star. It was called, Sirius. For one hundred years, armadas of spacecrafts were constructed on Atla. The fallen angels controlled the gold on earth, and the Angels of God controlled the crystals on earth. These crystals that sat atop the pyramid of Giza, Ba, and Atla, were needed for Belzeus' crafts to take flight. So the Angels of God agreed to assist.

Rock formations all over the earth were formed as latitude and longitude, now known today as Ley Lines. These alignments aligned with a number of stone monuments in various parts of the world that were also left to remind man of the past existence of the fallen angels, Nephilim and Raphiem. Most of these monuments were left along the 33rd degree parallel line that circles the entire earth where they still remain today. The armada of ships took flight at the end of the last one hundred years. Circling the earth catching sun rays from the crystals on top of the pyramids. The thousand-year mark ended and Baal was released from the abyss. He saw Beelzebub (now Belzeus) and the fallen angels as traitors, so with his knowledge, he intensified the earthly crystals, perhaps to destroy the spaceships, but instead this intensity caused a great earthquake under Atla. So intense that Atla sank into the sea, as did Ba. In Egypt, the crystal disintegrated destroying all vegetation and life around it. Even today, you can still see the outline of where the crystal sat atop the Giza Pyramid.

God remembered Noah and commanded Og to wake him, as Og did. Og, King of Bashan, and went on to father an army of powerful giants including women, and ruled and defeated many lands along the side of his twin brother, Sihon. He created a new order on the earth defined with brut force. He lived thousands of years until God intervened. God sent Moses to kill him as illustrated in Deuteronomy 3:1-11. The New World Order of the fallen angel Beelzebub had perished along with the order of the great Raphiem, Og. Now, was the time of Man, who of Man, who would rise and step into the Giants place as developing another Order of the World?

First Human to Orchestrate A New World Order

Adam+Eve=Cain, Abel & Seth. Seth=Enos=Cainan=Mahalaleel=Jared=Enoch=Methuseiah=Lamech=Noah= (3 sons) Shem, Ham, & Japheth. Ham=Cush and from Cush and Semiramis, Nimrod was born.

After Noah and his sons were woken from their drunkenness, Ham fathered a son named, Cush. Cush would bare a son, who till this day, has helped move this world into great darkness. This child would grow to become the father of Secret Societies, Pagan Holidays, and political governments, globally. Cush fathered, Nimrod (The great grandson of Noah). In the bible he was known as, "A mighty hunter before the Lord" (Genesis 10:9). The deception in this title is the word, "Before." It can be translated as, "Facing," "In front of," or "Against." "Against" is the correct translation here, according to this perspective. He was a mighty hunter against the Lord. He was a mighty hunter before the Lord in the sense of fighting against Him. You do not turn your back on your enemy. You face him, and he faces you, meaning Nimrod was against God; he was facing the Lord in battle, in antagonism rather than in submission.

The bible does not disclose how Nimrod got this title, but it was Noah who brought an interesting cargo on to the Ark, which had been passed down from father and son since Adam. Ham stole it from Noah after the deluge. According to the Jewish Encyclopedia, Ham gave the stolen coats of skin (Which God made for Adam and Eve), to his son Cush. Cush then passed the skin coats onto his son, Nimrod. The writings of the Metatron state that Og stole these skin coats, and it was he, who brought them into Babylon and gave them to Nimrod as a boy. Either way, it's clear that Nimrod took possession of these special coats and used them to hunt.

"And when the animals saw the latter clad in them, they crouched before him so that he had no difficulty in catching them. The people however, thought that these feats were due to his extraordinary strength, so that they made him their king."

-Pirke R. El. xxiv; "Sefer ha-Yashar," l.c.; comp. Gen. R lxv. 12

Nimrod was the first man king and great architect of the, "Tower." Baal, the Satin, and the sons of Baal, through Nimrod, conspired against God to bring mankind into One Government against God. So God stepped in and confused the languages, because this was something directly against God's purpose as the tower of Babel illustrates in Genesis 11:1-9. Nimrod was an idolater who was completely against God. He was so corrupt that he married his own mother, Semiramis, who became Queen of Babylon, known today as the "Queen of the Heaven," or to Christians as "The Virgin Mary."

NOTE: The title, "Queen of the Heaven" appears in the Bible twice, both times in the book of Jeremiah. The first incident is in connection with things the Israelites were doing that provoked God to anger. Entire families were involved in idolatry. The children gathered wood, and the men used it to build altars to worship false gods. The women were engaged in kneading dough and baking cakes of bread for the "Queen of Heaven" (Jeremiah 7:18). This title referred to Ishtar; an Assyrian and Babylonian goddess also called Ashtoreth and Astarte by various other groups (They are all the same person-Semiramis). She was thought to be the wife of the false god Baal (Nimrod), also known as Molech (Nimrod). The motivation of women to worship Ashtoreth stemmed from her reputation as a fertility goddess, and, as the bearing of children was greatly desired among women of that era, worship of this "Queen of heaven" was rampant among pagan civilizations. Sadly, it became popular among the Israelites as well.

worship of this “Queen of heaven” was rampant among pagan civilizations. Sadly, it became popular among the Israelites as well. The second reference to the queen of heaven is found in Jeremiah 44:17-25, where Jeremiah is giving the people the word of the Lord which God has spoken to him. He reminds the people that their disobedience and idolatry has caused the Lord to be very angry with them and to punish them with calamity. Jeremiah warns them that greater punishments await them if they do not repent. They reply that they have no intentions of giving up their worship of idols, promising to continue pouring out drink offerings to the “Queen of Heaven,” Ashtoreth, and even going so far as to credit her with the peace and prosperity they once enjoyed because of God’s grace and mercy.

As King and Queen of Babylon, Nimrod and Semiramis were probably the most evil human couple that lived on earth. Together, they founded the Political and Religious System known as “Mystery Babylon the Great.” This ancient satanic system still holds sway to this day throughout the world, which you will read, in later books within CORE~432.

Before Nimrod, mankind was governed by the patriarchal system where the head of the family communicated with God, then guided their individual tribes. Nimrod was against Patriarchal Rule and crowned himself the first human king in all the history of man. It was now Man, who ruled over God, according to Nimrod.

In the Old Testament of the bible, the birth of Yasha (known by his pagan name, Jesus), is prophesied on a number of occasions. Nimrod was aware of this prophecy, so he slew 70,000 babies in hopes of killing this would-be Savior. Nimrod presented himself as the lord of the earth opposed to the true God. He manipulated fear of wild beast as a pretense of uniting the people and establishing the kingdom of Babel.

Historically and symbolically speaking, Babylon is any organized system that replaces God’s rule with human or demonic rule. So like today’s politicians’ located on all four corners of the earth, Nimrods greed and ambition led him to sell himself to demonic powers, and he became the high priest of devil worship. The “Sun god” is introduced for the first time to the world and continues today. The Tower that he was constructing was called a ziggurat, which makes up a series of terraced levels, each becoming smaller in the towers height.

“Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of the whole earth” Genesis 11:4.

This quote is not to be taken literally. Nimrod was not building a tower to Heaven. He was building a giant tower that would be a topped with a shrine to Bel. Bel was worshipped as “The Most high god.” He was the god of fire and sun. Other sky gods would be included as well. Inscriptions of star constellations’ on the wall of the shrine would outline pictures of these sky gods. These were the images that Nimrod wanted his people to worship.

In the height of his power, Nimrod was killed in a violent death. Semiramis, pregnant from an adulterous relationship and desperate to keep her position, devised a scheme. Taking advantage of the prophecy written in the sky with which the remaining inhabitants of Babylon were familiar, Semiramis covered up the details of Nimrod’s death and publicly proclaimed that Nimrod’s death was voluntary and self-sacrificial for the benefit of the world. Nimrod would rise again by mystical means.

She claimed she was a virgin and that Nimrod visited her in a flash of light and he was reincarnated, in her belly as a baby. His rising in the form of her son was the fulfillment of the ancient prophecy (Genesis 3:15).

The baby, named Tammuz, was taught the lie and was worshiped as a god. Semiramis soon claimed that Nimrod had become the “Sun god,” and was worshiped as such. Not surprisingly, Semiramis was also worshiped as a goddess, and this was her original goal finally achieved. The birth of the Mystery Religion of Babylon (Mystery Babylon Revelation 17:5) was established. This was the creation of pagan worship that introduced the bogus “Virgin and child” theme that was duplicated in many lands. Never on Earth has there been records of a real life Virgin Mother, it was always a lie made up in scripture to ultimately honor Semiramis.

In every idolatrous system used today, there are three key figures, Nimrod (father), Semiramis (virgin mother), and Tammuz (son of most high, a god). A famous, but sinful king dies or is cut off; an immoral queen encourages false worship, bears a child, and is elevated to the status of god. The child is worshiped as a god, but serving as husband, lover, or son of the mother. This was the beginning of the Babylonian Brotherhood, a brotherhood that's ubiquitous in the Catholic Church, present day.

The Origin of the Mother and Child Hoax

From Babylon, the worship of Virgin mother and child spread across the entire earth. It was, and is still today a great lie (Hoax) that originated in Babylon.

In Egypt, virgin mother and child were worshipped as Isis with her infant, Horus seated in the mothers lap. In India, virgin mother and child were called Devaki and Krishna, and also Isi and Iwara, as they are worshipped to this day. In Asia, they were known as Cybele and Deorius; in Germany, the virgin Hertha and child, in ancient pagan Rome, Fortuna and Jupiter; but the mother was also known in Rome as, Venus, Diana, Minerva, Ceres, Terra, Juno, Vesta and Ops. In Greece, she was known as Ceres, the great mother with baby at her breast, or as Irene, the goddess of peace, with the boy Plutus in her arms. In Greece she was also known as Aphrodite, Artemis, Athena, Demeter, Gaea, Hera, Hestia, and Rhea. The Scandinavians called her Disa, pictured with child. The Anglo-Saxon tribes recognized Semiramis as Ostara or Eostre (AKA Eastre and Easter). Even in Tibet, China, and Japan, Jesuit missionaries were astonished to find the Roman counterpart of Madonna and child. Shing Moo, the holy mother of China was portrayed with a child in her arms and a glory (halo-nimbus) around her. Semiramis was worshiped in Ephesus and the pagan fertility goddess Diana, who represented the generative powers. Semerimis' titles include, goddess of, goddess of love, goddess of orgies and war, goddess of hunting and birth, craft war and wisdom, of growing things, of fertility, of fertile earth, of marriage and woman, of the hearth wife of Kronos (Kronos = Saturn = Satan). The demonic counterfeit was long in place before today's Mother and Child (Mary and Jesus, the Christ) walked the earth. Semiramis titled herself, “Goddess of the Heavens,” which was a title given to Mary before it was changed to “Mother of God.”

The Virgin Mary Hoax

Even the “Virgin Mary” was not a virgin and she never claimed to be. It was common knowledge when she was alive. Over 300 hundred years after Mary's death the pagan Greeks changed her history in order to create and pagan deity. Once the Greeks conquered Egypt they tried to force Christianity in the land but the Egyptians refused Christianity. The Greeks liked the concept of the virgin, “Au Set” and child the land, but the Egyptians refused Christianity. The Greeks liked the concept of the virgin, "Au Set" and child (Horus) so they incorporated the "Mother and child" theme into the history of Mary and Yasha (now called Jesus).

Note: Isis is not an Egyptian name, her real name was "Au Set," and was changed to "Isis" by the Greeks.

Isis was often represented as standing on the crescent moon, with twelve stars surrounding her head. While traveling for several years throughout Europe, I noticed at every Roman Catholic Church on Europe's continent, a statue or picture of Mary, "The Queen of Heaven," standing on the crescent moon with her head surrounded by twelve stars. Mary did not die a virgin; she had several children. She is not the one titled, "Queen of the heavens." The Roman Catholic Church at some point started associating that title with Mary, and the church followers evolved with the church.

The Roman Catholic Church has also chosen to ignore the Gospel references to Jesus' brothers and sisters, and maintain that "Mary Mother of Jesus" was a virgin her entire life, which is completely false. Four of her sons are named in Matthew 13:55-56, and she had an unspecified number of daughters.

Muslims also regard Mary or "Maryam" as the "Virgin Mother of Isa" since the Qur'an alludes to it. It's very interesting that Muslims don't recognize Yasha (Jesus) as the Christ and view him as "Just another prophet," yet readily accept that "He was born from a virgin."

Baal, the Satin, the Adversary's greatest gift of darkness to the world, was deception. Here's how billions of souls around the world are being deceived through the satanic worship of Semiramis.

The Pagan Name: JESUS

Millions of Christians around the world prey to what they presume as the "Son of God," and are not aware they've been duped into saying, calling out to, and praying to a pagan god Belzeus/Zeus. In this book I will pose the question, "What's in a name?" Names meant something in the beginning and now man has perverted many names to his liking. In Book-8, I will reveal God's name as HE instructed Moses to deliver it. It was not "I AM THAT I AM," as illustrated in the Exodus. That is a Modern Hebrew translation for which the Ancient Hebrew translation should not have been changed. One could only wish the Ancient Hebrew translated the entire Bible, because we would be able to interpret versus more accurately. The pagan Greeks translated the New Testaments in the Bible, incorporating their pagan belief with actual historical biblical events. The Greeks worshipped Zeus as their god. Though the Emperor Constantine claimed to have converted to Christianity, he was a pagan to his dying day, as I will illustrate in Book-2. In ancient Hebrew, the name, "Yasha" (not Jahshuwah, Yahuwshuwa, Joshua, or Jehoshua), meant "Savior." The Greeks didn't want to give up their god, Zeus, so they changed Yasha's name, so that the world would pray to Zeus. "Hail Zeus," in Greek was, "IESOUS." Later, "IESOUS" was changed to an English translation of "JESUS," but still holds the meaning of "Hail Zeus." So what's in a name? A name means everything. Don't insult the "Saviors" name by calling him the name of a pagan god, and fallen angel. Honor his name by saying it as God intended, Yasha. For the rest of this book I will refer the Savior as, Yasha or Christ.

Christ-Mass

December 25th is celebrated around the world by billions of Christ followers who have no idea that this day had been a satanic ritual date for thousands of years before Yasha was even born. Semiramis constructed its origins after the death of Nimrod.

It's said that Nimrod was born on December 25th during the winter solstice. He was in fact born on the winter solstice, but at the time of his birth that was on January 6th. Once the solstice changed to December 25th, his wife/mother, Semiramis, promulgated the evil doctrine of the survival of Nimrod as a spirit being to the Babylonians. Today, the winter solstice is on December 21st, but we keep December 25th as a locked date of celebrating the birth of the evil Nimrod, and not Christ.

She claimed a Yule log burned in the fireplace on the eve of her husbands birthday, December 24th and during the night as the log's embers died, there appeared in the room, as if by magic, an evergreen tree (today known as a Christmas tree) surrounded by gifts. The Yule log represented the sun god Nimrod, and the evergreen tree represented himself resurrected as his own son, Tammuz.

A full-grown evergreen tree sprang up overnight from a dead tree stump; which symbolized death resurrecting into new life for the now, deceased, Nimrod. On each anniversary of his birth, she claimed, Nimrod would visit the evergreen tree and leave gifts upon it. December 25th was now the birthday of Nimrod as it was the winter solstice. This is the real origin of Christmas and the Christmas tree. This tradition has nothing to do with Yasha (Son of, God). God never asks, in any book of faith, for us to celebrate Yasha's birth, nor our own birthdays. We are taught to celebrate Passover; as defined in Exodus 12:15-20, we are taught to worship on Holy Days (New Moon Day) and the Sabbath as described in the bible in 61 versus. Today the winter soloist has moved to December 21st but the evil traditions of Babylon are still celebrated on December 25th of each year.

The Santa Hoax

The Santa Hoax was invented to trick and influence mankind to rebel against God. Sadly, it was a complete success. He is the most venerated and adored person in the world. Churches host parties featuring him, while parents speak of his exploits. Children long for his arrival; they pray to him, seek his blessing and his favor. He resides in the North Pole (according to Lucifer: The Devil in the Middle Ages, Lucifer set up his throne in the North and this is where the North Pole 'Home of Santa Claus' derived from). He travels by night in a chariot drawn by magical beast. From a home, he descends through fire in the fireplace. Just who is this Santa Klaus/Claus?

Santa Claus comes from the one who was most nearly in accord with the dim traditions of Saturn (Satan) as the hero of the Saturnalia. According to the Worldbook Encyclopedia, "The belief that Santa enters the house through the chimney developed from an Old Norse legend. The Norse believed that the goddess Hertha appeared in the fireplace and brought good luck to the home." This is a tradition that originated in Babylon as described earlier.

Druid (a male witch religious order among the ancient Celts of Gaul, Britain, and Ireland) homeowners would leave a treat consisting of milk and pastries to appease their god who came down the chimney into their fireplace. But who is he? According to the Oxford English Dictionary, Devil – "Besides the name Satan, he is also called Beelzebub, Lucifer, and in popular or rustic speech by many familiar terms as 'Old Nick,' 'Satan' and 'Santa.'"

"Thus saith the Lord, Learn not the way of heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customer of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the workman, with the axe. (This is the cutting of the Christmas tree) They deck it with silver and with gold; (These are Christmas ornaments) they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not (These are the wooden stands nailed into the bottom of the tree). They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good."

-Jeremiah 10:2-5 (KJV)

When I often speak of the truth behind Christmas traditions, I am challenged with people asking for proof in scripture. Not only is this evidence proof (in Jeremiah 10:2-5), These are words from God, and yet these verses are ignored in most Christian churches and in Christian tradition. Jeremiah is located in the Old Testaments, and yet we see the pagan Christmas tree being constructed, which God despises. It's a tradition that started thousands of years before Christ was even born.

Before Christ was born, this Babylonian tradition moved from one part of the world to the next. By the time it arrived in Rome in 217 BC, it had become a popular Roman Festival called the "Saturnalia Festival," which was the winter solstice (December 25th in the Julian calendar). Satan, or Saturnus, the god of seed sowing was honored this festival. It ran from December 17th - 23rd. Augustus limited this festival to 3-days so that the courts would open sooner, but Claudius later restored the 7-day tradition.

By the end of the 1st Century AD, Statius proclaimed:

"For how many years shall this festival abide! Never shall age destroy so holy a day! While the hills of Latium remain and father Tiber, while thy Rome stands and the Capitol thou hast restored to the world, it shall continue."

Here, Statius is now calling the worship of Satan a holly day, and its celebration continued as "Brumalia," originating from the word "Bruma" meaning "The shortest day" (winter solstice).

Hundreds of years had passed since Christ had died, and this was the new Christian era of 4th Century AD. The Roman Catholic Church refused to give up the Babylonian traditions so they re-wrote history calling the Brumalia Festival, Christ-Mass, and later Christmas. Knowing that Christ was born in late summer, the Church used Nimrod's, Babylonian birthday of December 25th, and replaced his name with Jesus (Hail Zeus) as the birthday of Christ. The Roman Catholic Church was known for altering names and its true identity or meaning of a person or holiday, to conceal its true satanic nature.

Santa Claus derived from the Dutch creation, "Sinterklaas." Before the Dutch incorporated it, Sinterklaas came from the Netherlands. The Roman Catholic Church secretly honored Satan by moving the letter "N" (in his name), back two spaces, spelling Santa:

S-A-T-A-N now became S-A-N-T-A

Then "Klaas" was used from Sinterklass, and respelled it C-L-A-U-S. Once the tradition arrived in North America, the Sinterklass tradition had to be modified because of African slaves, and African Americans. All Africans weren't slaves and after some time, slavery was abolished. Here was the problem: Sinterklaas's little helpers were called, "Zwarte Pieten." According to the Book, Lucifer: The Devil in the Middle Ages (written by Jeffrey B. Russell) these Zwarte Pietens were little black demons, or companions who helped Satan. Satan's known nickname is Saint Nicholas. Even today the black demons (Zwarte Piet) are celebrated every year seen in the presence of Sinterklaas, as seen in these examples below, taken from several different European countries. If Anglo Americans dressed up in black faces to depict little black demon as Satan helpers, it wouldn't be a popular holiday in America, so it was altered.

Below is the true depiction of Sinterklaas. He is Satan, hidden in an attire of blood, which you will learn about momentarily. He beats bad children with branches and turns them into little black demons or Zwarte Piet (as the legend goes according to the book, Lucifer).

According to Lucifer: The Devil in the Middle Ages, on page 71:

"The Devil...which shows that evil was associated with the north and with the left in Kabbalah. Left-handedness is widely regarded as a sign of evil, as with the Latin word sinister. The connection between the Devil and Santa Claus (Sinter Claes, Saint Nicholas) as pronounced."

Here, Russell is describing how the word "Sinter" in Sinterklaas, derived from the Latin word, "Sinister."

Russell continues:

Origins of Santa Claus Attire

In America, most Americans see this deer and think, "Reindeer," because that's how we are programmed from the day we understand the traditions of Christmas. This is not a reindeer, it's called a "White-tailed deer," and they are common in North America.

Reindeer do exist throughout Canada and parts of Europe, but their appearance is different from White-tailed deer. As you can see below, the reindeer are white, and not brown furred like the white-

As you can see in this photo, the red coat represents the blood from the inside of the white fur of the reindeer, worn inside-out as Santa's coat. If you look at the white fur area on his coat, this represents the white fur of the reindeer worn on the inside. This was a bloody satanic ritual 6,000 years before Christmas was even a holiday. All those who take part in today's Christmas traditions, are actually taking part in a "Secret" worship of Satan, making Christmas one of the most satanic holidays of the year.

tailed deer. There is an ancient occult ritual, where the occult leader wears the skin of a reindeer as a coat. Valentine / Lupercalia The bloody red portion of the skin is worn on the outside, and the white fur is worn on the inside. Valentines day is currently celebrated on February 14th. In ancient Babylonian times the solstice occurred on January 6th, Nimrod's true birthday. It was the custom of antiquity for the mother of a male child to present herself for purification on the 40th day after the day of birth. The 40th day after January 6th is February 15th. The Lupercalia celebration began on the evening of February 14th hence our current holiday, St. Valentine's Day.

Nimrod was the original St. Valentine but he wasn't called that during Lupercalia annual celebration. The name Valentine originated in Rome. Valentine was also known as Saturn (Satan), and Nimrod, the Roman-Babylonian god who hid from his pursuers in a secret place. The Latin word Saturn is derived from the Semitic-speaking Babylonians. It means "Be hid," "Hide self," "Secret," "Conceal." The original Semitic (Hebrew) word, from which the Latin Saturn is derived, is used 83 times in the Old Testament. According to ancient tradition, Saturn (Nimrod) fled from his pursuers to Italy. The Apennine Mountains of Italy were anciently named the mountains of Nembrod, or Nimrod. Nimrod briefly hid out at the site where Rome was later built. The ancient name of Rome, before it was rebuilt in 753 B.C., was Saturnia, the site of Saturn's (Nimrod's) hiding. There he was found and slain for his crimes. Later, professing Christians in Constantine's day made Nimrod the St. Valentine of the heathen, "A Saint of the Church," and continued to honor him under the name of a Christian martyr.

Valentine was a common Roman name. The parents of Rome often gave this name to their children in honor of the famous man who was first called Valentine in antiquity. That famous man was Lupercus, "The Hunter" (Nimrod).

The Greeks called Lupercus, "Pan." The Semites called Pan, "Baal," according to "Classical Dictionaries." Baal is often mentioned in the Bible and this was merely another name for Nimrod, "The mighty Hunter" (Genesis 10:9). The hunter, Nimrod was the Lupercus, or wolf hunter of the Romans. And St. Valentine's Day was originally a day set aside by the pagans in his honor.

Valentine comes from the Latin word "Valentinus," a proper name derived from the word "Valens," meaning, "To be strong," as illustrated in the Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. It means strong, powerful, mighty. Another name for Nimrod was "Sanctus," and "Santa."

The Romans acquired the symbol of the heart from the Babylonians. In the Babylonian language for "Heart" was "Bal." The heart, or "Bal," was merely a symbol of Nimrod the "Baal" (the name of Satan), or Lord of the Babylonians.

Another Nimrod name as a child, was "Cupid," meaning desire (Encyclopedia Britannica, art., "Cupid"). It is said that when Nimrod's mother saw him, she lusted after him, and desired him. Nimrod became her "Cupid," her desired one.

As Nimrod grew up, he became the child-hero of many women who desired him. He was their Cupid. In the Book of Daniel he is called the "Desire of women" (Daniel 11:37).

Moffatt translates the word as Tammuz, a Babylonian name of Nimrod. He provoked so many women to jealousy that an idol of him was often called the "Idol of jealousy" (Ezekiel 8:5). The pagans commemorated their hero-hunter Nimrod, or Baal, by sending heart shaped love tokens to one another on the evening of February 14th as a symbol of him.

The heart shape that we use today is given out on Valentines Day in forms of chocolate and candy, because it's considered a day of love and lovemaking. The shape of this heart is not in the shape of a human heart. It derives from an extinct plant called, "Silphium." Silphium was the most effective birth control of its time. It was so popular that its shape was used on Greek coins.

The first coin above is actually right-side-up. The next photo is how the Silphium seeds looked. Over time, the shape of this extinct seed has evolved into (what we call) a heart, as seen in the last photo above (it looks like a modern heart shape but this coin is actually upside down).

Valentine became a Roman tradition as handed down from Babylon, but this tradition was unlike the tradition that's seen today. The Roman tradition was called Lupercalia, which derived from Lupercus (Nimrod). From February 13th thru the 15th, the Romans celebrated the feast of Lupercalia. The men sacrificed a goat and a dog, and then whipped women with the hides of the animals they had just slain. This was a very demonic and sexual celebration made up of orgies, animal blood sacrifices and games of sex and orgies.

The Roman romantics would get naked and drunk according to historian Noel Lenski, from the University of Colorado, at Boulder. Young women would actually line up for the men to hit them, Lenski says. They believed this would make them fertile.

The brutal fete included a matchmaking lottery, in which young men drew the names of women from a jar. The couple would then be coupled for the duration of the festival, or sometimes longer, if the match was right.

The ancient Romans are also responsible for the Valentine name. Emperor Claudius II executed two men who were both named Valentine, in the month of February of different years in the 3rd Century A.D. These two deaths were blood sacrifices to Nimrod, the Babylonian King. The Catholic Church with the celebration of St. Valentine's Day honored their martyrdom.

Later, Pope Gelasius-I confused things in the 5th Century by combining St. Valentine's Day with Lupercalia to expel the pagan rituals. But the festival was more of a theatrical interpretation of what it had once been. Lenski adds, "It was a little more of a drunken revel, but the Christians put clothes back on it. That didn't stop it from being a day of fertility and love."

Around the same time, the Normans celebrated Galatin's Day. Galatin meant, "Lover of women." Valentine was a bloody animal sacrificing, sexual pagan holiday that began in the days of Babylon.

Eostre – Ostara - Eastre - Easter

One of Semiramis' various names was Eostre, The Goddess of sex, fertilities, orgies and war. Babylonian followers before and after the birth of Christ would worship Eostre, by performing perverted rituals, and telling their children stories that Eostre gave a certain ability to create rainbow color eggs. Every year, a rabbit would plant these eggs in a field, and all the children would search for those eggs (This is known today as an Easter Egg Hunt).

In Deuteronomy chapter 12:29–32, it reads, “How do these (other) nations serve their gods? ... You must not worship the Lord your God the way they do, because when worshiping their gods, they do all kinds of detestable things the Lord hates... See that you do all that I command you; do not add to it or take away from it.”

Semiramis, “The Queen of Heaven,” appears to be even more evil than her son/husband, Nimrod. Her satanic rituals cover more than eighty percent of the earth today, and it has for thousands of years.

In the Book of Jeremiah 7:17–19, it says, “Do you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? The children gather wood, the fathers' light the fire, and the women knead the dough and make cakes of bread for the Queen of Heaven (God is speaking of Semiramis, Queen of Babylon). They pour out drink offerings to other gods to provoke me to anger. But am I the one they are provoking? Declares the Lord. Are they not rather harming themselves, to their own shame?”

In Jeremiah 44:15–19 it states, “Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with all the women who were present- a large assembly-and all the people living in the Lower and Upper Egypt, said to Jeremiah, “We will not listen to the message you have spoken to us in the name of the Lord! We will certainly do everything we said we would: We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and will pour out drink offerings to her just as we and our fathers, our kings and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At that time we had plenty of food and were well off and suffered no harm. But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have had nothing and have been perishing by sword an famine...””

This passage sounds like today's modern man. I've asked this question to several times globally, “If you knew that Christmas, Easter, Halloween and Valentines Day were satanic ritual holidays, would you continue to celebrate them?” To this day, not one person has confirmed with me that they would stop celebrating these satanic holidays. This is a direct result equated towards the brain washing of ancient and modern society.

To date, these holidays are the most successful accolades from Babylon and the Roman Catholic Church. It's an Old World Order (OWO) with new traditions tide to it, in present day.

All Hallows Eve/ All Hallowmas/Halloween

Halloween is a pagan tradition invented by the Celts over 2,000 years ago. The Celts, who lived in what is now the United Kingdom, Ireland, and northern France, had a festival commemorating the end of the year. Their New Year was November 1st, and this festival was called, "Samhain," (pronounced, sow-en). The end of their year signaled the end of summer, the end of the harvest season, and the beginning of a long, hard winter that often caused many deaths of animals and people. For the sake of their safety and well being, the Celts (people) put sweets, the best mutton legs, vegetables, eggs, and poultry, honey and even wine, outside their home so that wandering evil spirits would consume them on their way back to the netherworld. Failure to "Treat" these evil spirits might result in a curse being put on the home.

Over the next several hundred years, Christianity had spread to include the lands inhabited by the Celts and the Romans, but the festival of Samhain was still celebrated by the people. The Christian church reportedly did not like a festival with pagan roots practiced by Christians, so a replacement was needed. Pope Boniface IV designated May 13th as All Saints Day to honor dead church saints and martyrs. Samhain continued to be celebrated, so in 835 A.D., Pope Gregory IV moved the holiday to November 1st, probably to take attention away from the pagan Samhain festival and replace it. Since All Saints Day was sanctioned by the church, and related to the dead, the church was happy, but many pagan traditions of Samhain continued to be practiced, including bonfires, parades, and dressing up in costume. All Saints Day was also known as "All Hallows," or "All Hallowmas" (Hallowmas is Old English for All Saints Day). Since Samhain was celebrated the night before November 1st, the celebration was known as "All Hallows Eve," and later called, Halloween. In the year 1000 A.D., the church designated November 2nd as All Souls Day, to honor the dead who were not saints, and they eventually became combined and celebrated as Hallowmas.

The American version of Halloween came from Ireland. In 1840, 1/3 of Ireland's population was totally dependent on the potato for its nourishment, but between 1845 and 1852, over one million people died because of diseased stricken potatoes. Another million immigrants moved to the U.S. and brought their pagan traditions with them. The potato famine in 1840 brought thousands of immigrants from the Emerald Isle. With them, came goblins, jack-0-lanterns, bonfires, apples, nuts, and pranks. Halloween was here to stay.

Halloween, like Christmas, Easter, or Valentines Day, is another pagan tradition that needs to be abolished in order to honor God. These are traditions passed down from generation-to-generation without the least bit of curiosity of where these traditions came from. You now know the truth. Abruptly, I ask that you recalculate your brain to stay far away from evil traditions that entertain the masses. Pass these teachings on to everyone you know. The battle between good and evil is fierce, and evil is winning. Let's teach our children the truth and bring back of biblical tradition given to us by God in the Old Testament.

Organized Religion: The Foundation of Control

When I was 11 years old, I asked my father, "...what religion should I join?" Unlike most parents who demand their children to keep religious traditions, my father simply said, "I don't know. That's something that you will have to decide for yourself. As long as you keep God in your heart, He will show you what you need to know." I can still hear my father's words today as if he spoke them just minutes ago. These were the most important words that any man on Earth has ever spoken to me. A man never knows his destiny when born, but I now realize that one of my father's destinies was to say those few words that would enrage a Zeal in my heart to discover the truth about everything. In later Books (of Core~432,) my findings will amaze you. This entire world, and all that is in it, is nothing more than a hypnotically based illusions that keeps everyone in the world subdued in daily trances of Satan worship.

Satanism

I became intrigued with a children's bible at age five, but became frustrated with the Holy Bible at age nine because I couldn't understand it. It was stricken with parables far too advanced for my comprehension. It was a puzzle unsolved until my father began to teach me how to understand at the age of ten.

Beginning with Christianity, I took an unbiased approach toward religion. I studied with a different faith of organized religion every two years, hoping to find the truth, and the right religion for which I would call my own. By my late 20's my father asked me what religion did I decide on, and I told him, "None. I found that religion divides people. I don't believe in division, therefore I don't believe in religion." My father let of a warm smile so I figured I was on the right path.

Then one night under a deep trance, a witch appeared standing over me who had frightened me for years since I was two-years-old. It was at a bad point in my life so I gave up the fight with her, but to my surprise she didn't attack me as she normally did. She bent down very close to my face and said, "He can't be himself, if he sees himself." With that she walked out of my room and slammed my bedroom door to wake me up. This was the last time I ever saw this witch, and I had realized that this was an important message on many levels.

I have been tortured with visitations of demons my whole life (you will learn my story in all 11 books). Angels as well, but the visits from angels are far and few compared to the visits from demons. Like the witch, sometimes the demons would turn their back on Satan and tell me secrets that humans aren't supposed to know in order to defeat Satan. I remember one night in a deep trance; I conversed with a demon that decided not attack me as he normally did. He took me to a large tree at the foot of a quiet forest and told me things one can't learn on Earth but only in 4th dimension (I believed that forest to be 4th dimension). Apparently, some demons wish for acceptance by God, but know they will never receive it and for this, they terrorize throughout the Earth. After the long conversation, the demon told me he would visit me no more if I prayed for him, and then he said, "Your journey has failed you, because you seek 'That' what is good." I didn't understand at the time what he meant. He walked into the forest as I yelled for him to tell me what I needed to know. I tried running after him but my movement became "Slow motions," like running in a bucket of molasses. When I backed up, my motion was normal, but when I moved toward the forest, I was stopped by intense slow motion. For some reason I wasn't allowed in that forest. Something whispered my name, and I woke up feeling deeply sadden for the demon. I prayed for him and never saw him again.

In 2001 while researching in London, England, I walked down a street where a homeless woman approached me with a hand full of rocks. She told me to pick out one, so I did. Then she told me to come back in an hour. Curious, I went back and she had made a book covering with the stone attached to it. She said the stone would speak to me when it was time to write, and when I offered her money she wouldn't except.

she wouldn't except.

In 2003 while lying in bed, a voice in my room spoke to me saying, "It's time." It came from the direction on the rock. I began gathering all of my notes and began traveling around the world to complete my research for this book that you are reading now.

On a plane ride to Greece, I pondered what I had learned from the Angels, and then started to ponder the teachings of demons. "He, can't be himself, if he sees himself" and "Your journey has failed you, because you seek 'That' what is good." These demons didn't try to convince me of anything. They weren't trying to trick me; they were speaking in parables wanting me to seek out, Satan. After years of pondering, I finally realized, in order to connect the dots of what's really going on this world, I had to open my eyes to Satan, and so I did.

Of all the religions in the world, Satanism is the most honest that I've ever researched. It's evil, and teaches all that is evil, never straying away from it. When I entered the teachings of Satanism, there were no tricks, confusion, or puzzled attributes. You are taught to learn the craft of evil, and use its evil forces to deceive all of mankind into worshiping, Satan. The Giant demon was absolutely right: I was in search of good (meaning God), so for years I had deprived myself of what had been standing in front of me my whole life... Satan. He's in everything and everywhere (which you will see in Books 1-10). I expose enough of his secrets and plans for the Earth, to help mankind focus back on a frequency that is one with God.

Catholicism

Unlike Satanism, Catholicism is the most dishonest manipulating, occult based religion I've ever researched. Because most religions, (including Islam, Hindu, and Buddhism) derived from Roman Catholicism, I will analyze and decode this religion above others. Their occult traditions and dark secrets are so vast that it took more than two-years for me to complete my research on the matter. My findings are staggering. From occult rituals involving sodomy and human sacrifice, to blood drinking and masturbation, Catholicism is equal in totality to Satanism, with one great exception of impeccable concealment. I speak not of an antipathy of yesterday, but of a dark force that is present and active today behind the walls of Vatican and its global sovereignty.

A wise Spaniard Priest once told me, "...interview the most elderly in your research, for it is there that a dying heathen will confess all, as a last minute attempt to secure salvation, that knows his name, not." I received this advice in the early 90's and the "Heathen" who spoke these words, truly spoke from experience. In the case of my Catholicism research, once an ordained priest referred me to other priests in the faith, I found myself traveling the world to speak to men who were in the midst of death, and told all. Many of their stories were the same. I believe that 100% of the men I interviewed were homosexuals or were forced into homosexual acts as obedience, in worshipping Satan.

My interview ticket was a gold ring with the face of "The Queen of Babylon" on it, given to me by one of the priest. I was invited to see what happens to a Priest or Bishop who had raped children and had gotten caught. I couldn't understand why these men weren't being convicted and sent to jail. Several priest confessed that the rapes have to take place on church property or at Catholic perish because this was their protection from outside authorities. I was explained that every Catholic Church is the sovereign property of Vatican State, so as I was sitting in a perish located in the U.S., secretly interviewing Catholic priests, I was no longer on U.S. soil until I drove out of the parking lot.

I conducted secret liaison financial affairs in Vatican, at Falcon Bank. Vatican is like a corporation within it's own Central Bank. Besides the unclaimed billions that are brought in from church donations, Vatican is apart of organized crime at the highest level. Money laundering is what they are most known for and I was told when they are caught, they simply pay a fine (which is more like a commission fee) then the process continues.

While in Vatican City, I witnessed a pedophile drinking tea in a garden with other officials. A year later, I was given the address to the parish in Cambodia where he was thrown back into society, only now, he resides in a different country. He is still a pedophile, no longer in Cambodia but assigned somewhere else. Trying to keep track on one priest is useless because this is an ongoing strategy that is offered by the Vatican for the convenience of hundreds, if not thousands of men owned by the Vatican Church.

Catholic scholar, Dr. Malachi Martin, formerly a Jesuit professor at Georgetown University and a confidant of Vatican insiders, declared outright in a New York City interview:

“Yes, it's true. Lucifer is enthroned in the Catholic Church.”

The Fatima Crusader, a well-known Catholic publication, also interviewed Martin. Martin again repeated his allegations, and expressed his dismay and distress that the Catholic institution of which he is a part has grown so decadent and morally reprobate since the Vatican II conference of the 1960's. Martin stated:

“...The contention that there are Satanists in Rome is completely correct.” He added:

“Anybody who is acquainted with the state of affairs in the Vatican in the last 35 years is well aware that the prince of darkness has, and still has his surrogates in the court of St. Peter in Rome.”

Blood Oaths and Blasphemous Rituals

Malachi Martin is a very traditional Catholic. Author of Hostage to the Devil and numerous other books, his acclaimed, Keys of This Blood, published several years ago, was a strong, apologetics volume supporting the papacy of Pope, John Paul II. Martin began having doubts and could not understand why John Paul II allowed such evil to exist and even prosper within the church.

It had gotten so bad, Dr. Martin contends that in one shocking incident, high-ranking churchmen actually took oaths signed with their own blood and participated in “Meticulously enacted rituals that blaspheme and devilishly mimic the holy sacrifice of the mass” (they were drinking human blood).

According to the several priest and two bishops I interviewed, this was all common knowledge within the community of the Catholic Church. I was told there are secret chambers in the bowels of Vatican where a number of blasphemous rituals are conducted several times a year. In some rituals, children as young as infants are sacrificed and their blood is passed around like wine to all promoting members of the church. I was told if I see a new Pope on television, he had to partake in a demonic ritual before accepting the responsibility as the new Pope. He would partake in many occult rituals during the years because he was now the Pope. There are other sexual occult rituals where children are sodomized. These rituals that were described, mirror a number of satanic rituals that occur during the same time of the year. Christmas is one of the saddest times of the years because this is the winter solstice, the darkest day of the year, which offers blood sacrifice to honor Satan. These Blood sacrifices take place at the Vatican and a number of locations all over the world unrelated to Catholicism.

Treachery Inside the Sanctuary

If Dr. Martin were the only authority sounding the alarm on devil worship in the Catholic Church, the whole affair would simply be dismissed as the outrageous accusations of a single cleric. But as far back as 1976, Pope Paul VI shocked a papal audience by confiding that:

“The smoke of Satan has entered the very sanctuary of St. Peter’s Cathedral.”

The Pontiff went on to explain that he had knowledge of a midnight hour, Black Satanic Mass having been conducted at the altar of St. Peter’s, on the exact spot where the Pope himself regularly says mass.

I questioned every one of my witnesses on why they refused to come forward and expose Catholicism and they pretty much all said the same thing. First of all, some of these men secretly fathered children and cared for their safety, but the ones who didn’t feel that hurting the church’s name would kill the faith of millions who weren’t aware of the true demonic nature that was out of sight and mind of the goyim (cattle or civilians). I disagreed with this analogy because global civilian are being taught to worship idols and they take part in a ritualistic sermon every week that secretly honors Satan. One priest told me:

“Yes I see your point, but the fact is, they don’t know what they do is wrong because we teach them otherwise, and for that, the nature of their sin will be forgiven.”

I appreciate all the interviews for this book, but I have to say, these men were dangerous men who toiled with the souls of many men and women. They felt their ideology was “Just,” and only one, admitted to actually harming the minds and soul of individuals in several different countries. He died with much regret.

Secret Involvement Exposed

In 2000, thousands were in attendance at Rome’s Fatima 2000 International Congress on World Peace, a respected Archbishop, Emmanuel Milingo, slowly walked to the podium. The crowd gasped as they heard Milingo solemnly affirms that members of the Catholic Church hierarchy are secretly involved in the darkest kinds of formal Satan worship.

Archbishop Milingo, an exorcist, is author of a best-selling book exposing the occult, Face to Face With the Devil. In his speech, Milingo called Satan worship the “Third dimension of Evil,” and explained:

“Now, the third dimension (of evil) is the most dangerous. It is subtle and the most terrible--.

I could not believe when I discovered this third dimension of evil. The third dimension is people who follow instructions in satanic sects--. Now with this third dimension, I'm sorry to say, our church belongs to it. I'm very sorry, I could not understand myself, and even now I don't understand. But the only consolation I have is that, well, Judas Iscariot was one. Together with Jesus three years, he never changed. Then I understand that the third dimension of evil existed not only now, but it existed even then. Because nothing could change the heart of Judas Iscariot--nothing."

When reading this passage to the men I interviewed, they were not only aware of it, some told me about a paradise hidden in fourth dimension which was a gateway to allow demons to enter your body as a way to have physical control over the world. Many years passed before I learned about fourth dimension and the fantasy forest that most souls mistake for heaven. I believe that's why the giant demon I met with, wouldn't allow me to walk into the forest after him. It was forbidden because I was not aware of it, and I didn't take a substance like LSD to gain entrance in hopes of retaining a special power. Many people in Entertainment take substance to gain what the call, "The power of God." Within this magical forest of talking creatures, you are taught knowledge unknown to man; in return you allow the demon to enter your living body where it takes over when needed. Steve Jobs of Macintosh admitted to this being the success of Macintosh. He stated:

"Taking LSD was a profound experience, one of the most important things in my life. LSD shows you that there's another side to the coin, and you can't remember it when it wears off, but you know it. It reinforced my sense of what was important—creating great things instead of making money, putting things back into the stream of history and of human consciousness as much as I could"

I will elaborate on this in Book-8 .

Devil Protected by Catholic Authorities

Archbishop Milingo went on to make an accusation, which sent hurricane force shock-waves throughout the Catholic community. According to Milingo, the devil is actually protected by the Catholic Church:

"The devil in the Catholic Church is so protected now that he is like an animal protected by the government; put on a game preserve that outlaws anyone, especially hunters, from trying to capture or kill it. The devil within the Church today is actually protected by certain Church authorities from the official devil hunter in the Church--the exorcist. So much so that the exorcist today is forbidden to attack the devil. The devil is so protected that the one who is the hunter, the exorcist, is forbidden to do his job."

In a subsequent interview, the archbishop stated:

"Certainly, there are priests and bishops alike who are followers of Satan."

When asked whether cardinals or even the Pope himself were guilty of this repulsive heresy, Milingo responded that, because he is an archbishop, he does not feel it is proper for him to name or comment about superior officials. The archbishop's silence, of course, spoke volumes.

All of my witness confirmed that one couldn't become a Pope, bishop, cardinal or any member of higher hierarchy without partaking in various occult rituals and taking an oath, or vow to Satan. He is the head of the Catholic Church and has been since the existence of the Roman Catholic Church.

Catholicism/Freemasonry

Satan worship apparently has mushroomed in recent years as Catholic cardinals, bishops, and priests have joined the Masonic Lodge in record numbers. Until the papacy of yesterdays, Pope John Paul II, membership by Catholics in any kind of Masonic order was an excommunicable offense. Now, however, it is commonplace.

In 1980, New York's Terrance Cooke, one of America's most powerful Catholic cardinals, addressed a gathering of 3,000 Masonic members. Cardinal Cooke electrified the assemblage when he said that, as friends, Masons and Catholics should recognize each other. Refraining from mentioning the name of Jesus, the name despised by many Masons and prohibited inside their lodges, Cardinal Cooke bowed to Masonry's worst heresy by remarking,

"I know of your firm belief in the Supreme Being, the Great Architect of the Universe, and of the holy writings appropriate to the religion of your members, and I salute you for your loyalty to these ancient values."

He was speaking of the Mystery Religions of Babylon, but Cooke's words were well chosen and instilled with hidden meaning. In fact, the Masonic Lodge's "Supreme Architect of the Universe" is none other than Lucifer, who cloaks himself in Masonic literature with the names of such deities as Zoroaster, Shiva, Abaddon, and in other Masonic pagan-god disguises. As for the "Holy writings" of Freemasonry, these have their origins in the Roman mystery religions, in 19th Century occultism, and in Egyptian/Babylonian. Such are the "Ancient values" of the satanic Masonic Lodge.

I will reveal all of their secrets in Book-3, "Birth of Secret Society."

Satanism is not only practiced by Catholic clergy, this sort of wickedness is found in some of today's Methodist and Charismatic churches, and especially in Episcopal and Anglican churches. Several years ago, the Mormon Church hierarchy even went public, admitting that some church elders had secretly conducted satanic rituals.

I will also expose the Mormon Church in Book-3, because it's considered a secret society.

Members of the Masonic Lodge, including pastors and denominational leaders, continue to dominate the Southern Baptist Convention.

Satan is remarkably tolerant of all false religion, which includes all mainstream religion that I studied and researched for years.

One priest reminded me of the demon I would speak to years later in a trance. He said, "Stop investigating on what you will never prove, and start accounting on what's present before you." This is a parable that I did understand, so I retraced my steps and re-interviewed several priests who were more ill than others. These interviews turned into research of symbolism that was hidden in plain sight. Here are my findings.

Baptism

Let's take a close look at the garments worn by Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis. Notice the large scallop shells prominently displayed on the front of the Pope's golden robe. Here are two more photos of the Pope in scallop shell attire. There were two large scallop shells prominently during a coronation Mass, meaning the shells are being used in a pagan religious ceremony. It's within the pagan religious system I must deliver an explanation. In the pagan rituals, there is a hidden, esoteric meaning for scallop shells. It's a very shocking revelation and is plainly revealed. What pagans ascribe to the scallop shell, is Lucifer himself, birthed as a female.

The scallop shell is equal to the Oriental Lotus, and as such, represents both Venus and Aphrodite, with the deepest meaning pointing directly to Lucifer. According to occult tradition, "Buddha was born from padme (lotus), while Aphrodite born from the scallop shell" (understanding the universe In Chinese, Japanese and Buddhism). Notice from the painting below to the right, Aphrodite/Venus is shown coming out of the scallop shell simulating "Birth" into existence in much the same way Buddhism teaches that Buddha was born out of the Lotus. According to Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, and "The Aspect of Lucifer," Venus is Lucifer according to ancient and occult tradition. This fact is also verified by a number of Black Magic websites. Therefore, the symbolism of the scallop shell in the occult tradition is quite simple:

Scallop Shell = Aphrodite = Venus = Lucifer

Now that we understand the correlation between the scallop shell and Lucifer, lets take a look at several photos of infants, being baptized by the Pope and other Catholic Church members.

As you can see, in every photo, these poor infants are being baptized in a satanic occult ritual with the water of Lucifer being poured on their head. The cursed water is being poured from Lucifer who is the symbol of the golden, silver, bronze, brass, or clear scallop shell in the hands of the members of the Catholic Church.

If you were baptized in a Catholic Church, I suggest you get re-baptized in an ocean, river, lake, stream or pool, preferably in full immersion.

On the matter of baptizing children, the Bible is very clear on the fact that Baptism was never administered to children, and the churches that do so, are following a tradition brought forth by pagan traditions from the Roman Catholic Church. This tradition has absolutely no Scriptural authority whatsoever. The spiritual pre-conditions preceding baptism, makes it very clear as to why an infant cannot be baptized, and why it is limited to people who are required to take responsible decisions for themselves. Such people should be mature enough to accept the Plan of Salvation, which the Almighty has worked out for those who believe the Gospel.

Baptism is a part of the Salvation Plan and can only be beneficial to persons who are prepared to subject themselves to the spiritual meaning and purpose of Baptism. Yasha said,

"He who believes and is baptized will be saved"

-Mark 16:16

These conditions of Baptism are recorded in Acts 2:37-41:

"Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, 'Brethren, what shall we do?' And Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized everyone of you ... for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the Gift of the Holy Spirit ... So those who accepted His Word were baptized."

So it was only after the hearers understood what was required of them to be saved, that they accepted the Divine Plan of Salvation. It was only then that they were baptized.

The Holy Scriptures makes it very clear to whom baptism was administered by Philip in Samaria.

"But when they believed Philip as he preached the Good News about the Kingdom. . , they were baptized, both men and women." -Acts 8:12-13

"And as they went along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, 'See, here is water, what is to prevent my being baptized?' And Philip said, 'If you believe with all your heart, you may.'..., and he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water ... and he baptized him."

-Acts 8:36-39

From these Scriptures, it is absolutely clear that the person to be baptized first had to be preached to so that he or she could come to repentance. Secondly, the candidate had to believe and accept. Thirdly, the person had to be taught what was expected of believers according to Scripture, and finally, the Scriptures clearly teach that people were baptized for the forgiveness of their sins.

Can any intelligent person associate any of these required attributes with that of an infant of a few weeks old that cannot even speak or think for themselves? Let alone understand and repent of its sins, which are non-existent at that early age. The rite of Baptism is for the forgiveness of sins. An infant of a few weeks old cannot even think sinful thoughts let alone commit sin. Be mindful and use commonsense and not the traditions of men.

The scallop shell is adorned secretly throughout Catholic Churches. Notice how the shell is hidden behind Pope Benedict XVI in the top photo to the left. In this next photo notice how the scallop shell is used to hold the "So-called" holy water. The scallop shell in any religion or secret society represents, Lucifer. Here's are other common ways that the Catholic Church uses the scallop shell within its sovereignty, to secret demonstrate their allegiance to Lucifer.

If you and a loved one were baptized in a Catholic Church, get re-baptized right away and stay away from the Catholic Church. They deliver spiritual harm to all members and visitors, as you will see in these continued examples.

Cabletow

The cable-tow is a rope such as would be used to tow or restrain. It is also generally regarded as a symbol of the voluntary and complete acceptance of, and pledged compliance with, whatever Masonry may have in store. The cable-tow is also symbolic of the candidate's attachment to the outside world. Here is how the cabletow is being used in Catholicism. I was told by several priests in my interviews that the cabletow is always within length, of Satan's grasp.

All Seeing Eye

The All Seeing Eye is defined as The Eye of Providence, or the All-Seeing eye of God, but this is furthest from the truth. It's a symbol showing an eye often surrounded by rays of light, and is affiliated with everything evil. There's no conspiracy theory here. No other symbol embodies so perfectly the occult nature of America and global roots. The All-Seeing Eye is printed on USD currency and is used in numerous corporate logos.

Some websites go through great lengths to debunk the "Myth" of the Great Seal being a Masonic symbol. Through sophist style reasoning and vaguely insulting explanations, these sites deceive readers and seek to dismiss their inquiries.

Secret brotherhoods (i.e. the Rosicrucian's, Freemasons and Illuminati) maintained the democratic ideal alive through the Middle Ages and covertly organized its resurgence in the Western world.

"For more than three thousand years, secret societies have labored to create the background of knowledge necessary to the establishment of an enlightened democracy among the nations of the world." -Manly P. Hall, Secret Destiny of America

Here's how the Catholics uses this occult symbolism. There are three more examples on the next Page.

Dagon/Beelzebub

Earlier, I described the original sixth Archangel, Beelzebel, who God renamed Beelzebub after several accounts of disobedient. Beelzebub was the only Angel who was resistant to salt water and was known as "The King of the Sea." He was known by many names and was worshipped by several generations. One of the names he was known for was, Dagon.

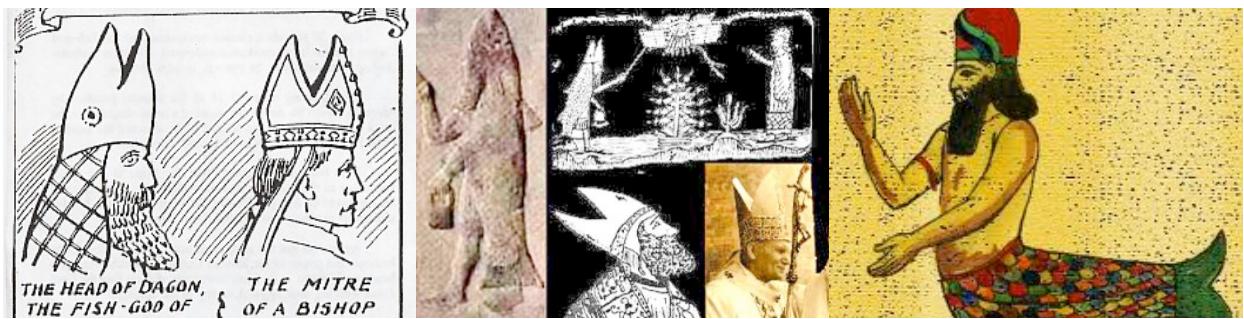

Dagon was known as Chief God of the Philistines, and was the principal deity of the Philistines, whose ancestors migrated to Palestinian shores from Crete. He was the god of fertility and crops. He also figured prominently in the Philistine concepts of death and the afterlife. In addition to his role in the religion of the Philistines, Dagon was worshiped in the more general society of Canaanite peoples.

Some years after the arrival of the Minoan forefathers of the Philistines, the immigrants adopted elements of Canaanite religion. Eventually the primary religious focus shifted. The worship of the Great Mother, the original religion of the Philistines, was traded for the paying of homage to the Canaanite deity, Dagon.

The legend goes: Within the Canaanite pantheon, Dagon seems to have been second only to El in power. He was one of four sons born to Anu. Dagon was also the father of Baal. Among the Canaanites, Baal eventually assumed the position of god of fertility, which Dagon had previously occupied.

previously occupied. Dagon was sometimes associated with the half fish female deity Derceto (which may account for the theory of Dagon being portrayed as half fish). Little else is known of Dagon's place in the Canaanite pantheon, but his role in Philistine religion as primary deity is quite evident. It is known, however, that the Canaanites imported Dagon from Babylonia.

Though the deity is a false religion in history, it's a Pago tradition that was worshiped for years, and even today Dagon's presence can be found in the fish mitre (tall hat), being worn by higher hierarchy members of the Catholic Church, as seen below.

See Above: A BLOODY SEA of FISH

According to scripture, the Philistines worshiped Dagon.

“Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.”

-Judges 16:23 (KJV)

Dagon means fish-god in Hebrew. In the previous page you saw how Dagon worship still plays out today in the Catholic Church, but the Popes and their bishops mitres, is only part the Dagon secret. Today the name Dagon is replaced by the name, Ichthus. Ichthus means fish in Greek.

The church will tell you “Ichthus,” is an acronym for; Iesous CHristos THeos Uios Soter, translated into english this reads; “Jesus Christ God’s Son Savior.” This is one of many blatant lies told by Catholic Church. The truth is, it is the continuation of Dagon worship. If you look at the monogram of Ichthus in Greek, the “I,” “X,” and “S,” which make up the first, second and the last letter, stigma, are secretly superimposed on top of each other, creating the 666 symbol. The fish is also know as a vaginal cavity, which I will elaborate further in Book-7 under the section, “Vesica Pisces Logos.”

Above, is the lie that millions have become familiar with

Above, is the truth that civilians aren't aware of=666

Accessorizing the Dead

Catholicism is the only religion outside of Satanism that accessorizes bodies and body parts of their dead officials. Anyone who works for the church is deemed owned by the church. In truth, there is not a Biblical verse that specifically addresses the issue of burial and cremation in terms of a right or wrong way to be performed. In fact, God does not give any commandments about what a society is supposed to do with dead bodies. In the biblical cultures there were many different ways of dealing with the dead, and God does not specifically and directly encourage or prohibit any of them.

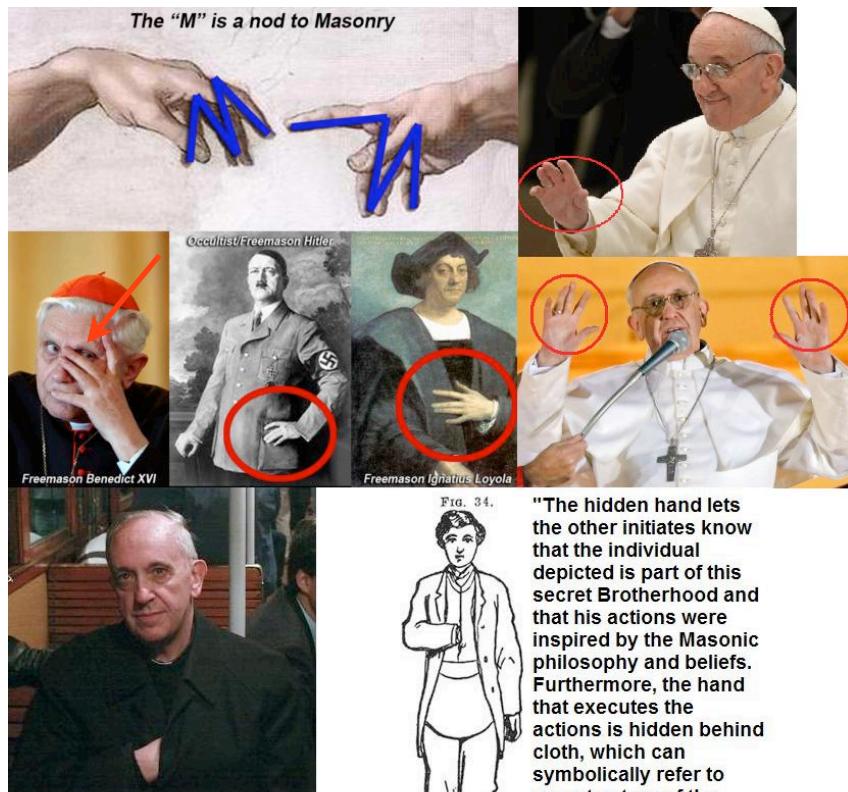

Here are examples of how the Catholic Church cuts body parts and accessorizes them along with whole bodies, for the world to see. These are the dead humans that the Church owns as relics.

Hidden Hand- "M" Shaped Hands & 33

In Book-3, I'll discuss the secrets of "Secret society," and Freemasonry. Today most "Higher" members of the Catholic Church are 33rd degree Masonic members. In Rome, the Vatican houses 32 archways on each side with a giant obelisk in the center as seen here. The obelisk is a phallic symbol, and acts as the 33rd head, to the 32 archways located on each side. Phallic worship is incredibly perverted for any religion. The Popes cassock (seen in the far right bottom) is comprised of 32 buttons with his head representing the 33rd head-button. Pope John Paul-I was assassinated after only being in power for 33 days, which was a Freemason signature murder. In this photo below (before Pope Francis became Pope) we see him photographed with the hidden hand, which is a symbol of the Masonic order. I will elaborate on this in Book-3. In Book-3 you will learn that higher members of the Masonic Order move into a Luciferian Order, meaning that all high members of the Catholic Church are members of the Luciferian Order, as well.

"Hidden Hand"

"The Jesuits are a Military Religious Order of the Roman Catholic Church; Masonic and other oaths."

SIGN OF THE MASTER OF THE SECOND VEIL.

Sun Worship

From Babylon to Egypt, and from Greece to Rome, Sun Worship has always represented the worship of Satan. This worship is very dominant in Catholicism, hidden in plain sight as seen in these several examples.

The sun worship has always symbolized the worship of Satan

I-H-S

The letter's, "I-H-S" as seen in these examples are taught to be and abbreviation for the name, "Jesus." This is not true. The dishonest Deity of "god Jesus, and the so-called 'Virgin Mary,'" was a deity created by the Roman Catholic Church after learning of the Egyptian Deity of "Isis-Horus-Seth/Seb." So I-H-S stands for, and honors the Pagan Deity, Isis-Horus-Seb, and it's not an abbreviation for the pagan name, Jesus.

Inverted Cross

Catholicism, (as a system) is a religion that is completely against both God and Christ. In most major churches, if one looks closely, often you will find an "Inverted Cross" camouflaged within the décor of the church as seen in these examples below. It symbolizes the supposed defeat of Christ, and those in darkness rejoice at the thought of this blasphemous act. The Catholics are taught that this is a symbol of St. Peter's Cross, to conceal its true meaning.

IHS

Satan's Throne

Here is more evidence that the Papacy is anti Christ. This background is the throne of Lucifer in plain sight. It's unthinkable that more Catholics don't challenge the church more often on their moral code. Vatican has turned into celebritism, with onlookers holding a blind eye to all that is blasphemy within the church.

Pine Cone / Mechanical Eye

I will elaborate on the pine-cone in Book-3 but in short, it represents the third eye. This symbolism dates back to Babylon. Within the same courtyard, of the Vatican Museum, is a mechanical looking, "All Seeing Eye" displayed, known as, "Arnaldo Pomodoro's Rotating Sphere, Vatican city" (pictured top-right), once again concealing the true nature of this, "Eye of Nimrod, or Eye of Satan."

Idol Worship

“...And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them: Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the Lord our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood...”      -Deuteronomy 29:17-18

It's hard to read this verse, with knowledge of how the Catholic Church has duped millions into idol worship, including the influence they have on other Christian religions. Here are several examples of how idol worship is displayed in public by both church member and higher members in Catholicism.

Vatican: Creating Islam and the Qur'an

This information came from Alberto Rivera, former Jesuit priest after his conversion to Protestant Christianity. It is excerpted from "The Prophet." Since its publication, after several unsuccessful attempts on his life, he was finally murdered by way of food poisoning.

According to Alberto Rivera, (a former Jesuit Priest) in his book, "The Prophet," Rivera states that, because of its religious history and its strategic location, the Holy City was considered a priceless treasure and a scheme had to be developed to make Jerusalem a Roman Catholic city.

While at the Vatican, Rivera along with fellow Jesuit Priest was taught many secrets about Catholicism. In Vatican secret briefings, Rivera was placed under oath and inducted into Catholic darkness. A Jesuit cardinal named Augustine Bea taught Rivera and other initiating members, how desperately the Roman Catholics wanted Jerusalem at the end of the 3rd Century. He stated:

"The great untapped source of manpower that could do this job was the children of Ishmael. The poor Arabs fell victim to one of the cleverest plans ever devised by the powers of darkness. Early Christians went everywhere with the gospel setting up small churches, but they met heavy opposition. Both the Jews and the Roman government persecuted the believers in Christ to stop their spread. But the Jews rebelled against Rome, and in 70 AD, Roman armies (under General Titus) smashed Jerusalem and destroyed the great Jewish temple which was the heart of Jewish worship...in fulfillment of Christ's prophecy in Matthew 24:2."

"On this holy place today where the temple once stood, the Dome of the Rock Mosque stands as Islam's second most holy place. Sweeping changes were in the wind. Corruption, apathy, greed, cruelty, perversion and rebellion were eating at the Roman Empire, and it was ready to collapse. The persecution against Christians was useless as they continued to lay down their lives for the gospel of Christ. The only way Satan could stop this thrust was to create a "Counterfeit Christian Religion" to destroy the work of God. The solution was in Rome. Their religion had come from ancient Babylon and all it needed was a face-lift. This didn't happen overnight, but began in the writings of the 'Early church fathers.'"

It was through their writings that a new religion would take shape. The statue of Jupiter in Rome was eventually called St. Peter, and the statue of Venus was changed to the Virgin Mary. The site chosen for its headquarters was on one of the seven hills called 'Vaticanus,' the place of the diving serpent where the satanic temple of Janus stood.

The great counterfeit religion was Roman Catholicism, called:

"MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."

-Revelation 17:5

She, (The Catholic Church), was raised up to block the gospel, slaughter the believers in Christ, establish religions, create wars and make the nations drunk with the wine of her fornication as we will see."

Cardinal Augustine Bea, continues:

"Three major religions have one thing in common - each has a holy place where they look for guidance. Roman Catholicism looks to the Vatican as the Holy City. The Jews look to the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem, and the Muslims look to Mecca as their Holy City. Each group believes that they receive certain types of blessings for the rest of their lives for visiting their holy place. In the beginning, Arab visitors would bring gifts to the 'House of God,' and the keepers of the Kaaba were gracious to all who came. Some brought their idols and, not wanting to offend these people, their idols were placed inside the sanctuary. It is said that the Jews looked upon the Kaaba as an outlying tabernacle of the Lord with veneration until it became polluted with idols."

In a tribal contention over a well (Zamzam), the treasure of the Kaaba and the offerings that pilgrims had given were dumped down the well and it was filled with sand - it disappeared. Many years later Adb Al-Muttalib was given visions telling him where to find the well and its treasure. He became the hero of Mecca, and he was destined to become the grandfather of Muhammad. Before this time, Augustine became the bishop of North Africa and was effective in winning Arabs to Roman Catholicism, including whole tribes. It was among these Arab converts to Catholicism that the concept of looking for an 'Arab Prophet' developed."

Muhammad's father died from illness and sons born to great Arab families in places like Mecca, were sent into the desert to be suckled and weaned and spend some of their childhood with Bedouin tribes for training and to avoid the plagues in the cities.

After his mother and grandfather also died, Muhammad was with his uncle when a Roman Catholic monk learned of his identity and said, 'Take your brother's son back to his country and guard him against the Jews, for by god, if they see him and know of him that which I know, they will construe evil against him. Great things are in store for this brother's son of yours.'

The Roman Catholic monk had fanned the flames for future Jewish persecutions at the hands of the followers of Muhammad. The Vatican desperately wanted Jerusalem because of its religious significance, but was blocked by the Jews."

NOTE: In this next excerpt by Cardinal Bea, the term "True Christians," represents those not of the Roman Catholic faith. These were groups who followed Christ's teachings but these groups were not made up as an organized religion. They were followers of scripture and not a religion.

Cardinal Bea continues:

"Another problem was the "True Christians" in North Africa who preached the gospel. Roman Catholicism was growing in power but would not tolerate opposition. Somehow the Vatican had to create a weapon to eliminate both the Jews and the true Christian believers who refused to accept Roman Catholicism. Looking to North Africa, they saw the multitudes of Arabs as a source of manpower to do their dirty work. Some Arabs had become Roman Catholic, and could be used in reporting information to leaders in Rome. Others were used in an underground spy network to carry out Rome's master plan to control the great multitudes of Arabs who rejected Catholicism. When 'St. Augustine' appeared on the scene, he knew what was going on. His monasteries served as bases to seek out and destroy Bible manuscripts owned by the true Christians. The Vatican wanted to create a messiah for the Arabs, someone they could raise up as a great leader; a man with charisma whom they could train, and eventually unite all the non-Catholic Arabs behind him, creating a mighty army that would ultimately capture Jerusalem would ultimately capture Jerusalem for the pope."

NOTE: In this organized Vatican briefing, Cardinal Bea told Jesuit Priest, Alberto Riveraus, and other pupils the true story of how the Vatican strategically created Mohammed as a prophet, and tricked all Arab followers to worship "Allah, The Moon god" instead of, God the CREATOR. This is the true scenario of how the Vatican created the Nation of Islam.

Cardinal Bea stated: "A wealthy Arabian lady who was a faithful follower of the pope played a tremendous part in this drama. She was a widow named Khadijah. She gave her wealth to the (Catholic) church and retired to a convent, but was given an assignment. She was to find a brilliant young man who could be used by the Vatican to create a new religion and become the messiah for the children of Ishmael. Khadijah had a cousin named Waraqah, who was also a very faithful Roman Catholic and the Vatican placed him in a critical role as Muhammad's advisor. He had tremendous influence on Muhammad."

Teachers were sent to young Muhammad and he had intensive training. Muhammad studied the works of St. Augustine which prepared him for his "Great calling." The Vatican had Catholic Arabs across North Africa spread the story of a great one who was about to rise up among the people and be the chosen one of their God.

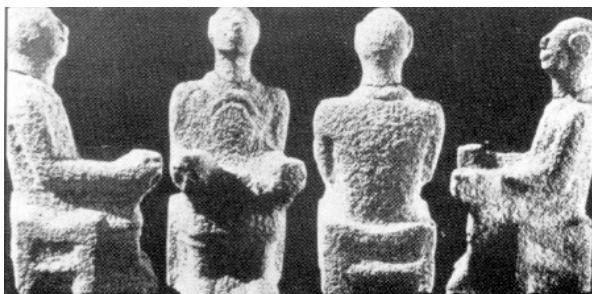

While Muhammad was being prepared, he was told that his enemies were the Jews and that the only true Christians were Roman Catholic. He was taught that others calling themselves Christians were actually wicked impostors and should be destroyed. Many Muslims believe this.

Muhammad began receiving 'Divine revelations' and his wife's Catholic cousin, Waraqah, helped interpret them (falsely). From this came the Koran. In the fifth year of Muhammad's mission, persecution came against his followers because they refused to worship the idols in the Kaaba.

Muhammad instructed some of them to flee to Abyssinia where Negus, the Roman Catholic king accepted them because Muhammad's views on the virgin Mary were so close to Roman Catholic doctrine. These Muslims received protection from Catholic kings because of Muhammad's revelations.

Muhammad later conquered Mecca and the Kaaba was cleared of idols. History proves that before Islam came into existence, the "Sabeans" in Arabia worshiped the moon-god who was married to the sun god. They gave birth to three goddesses who were worshipped throughout the Arab world as 'Daughters of Allah.' An idol excavated at Hazor in Palestine in 1950's shows Allah sitting on a throne with the crescent moon on his chest."

Cardinal Bea continues:

"Muhammad claimed he had a vision from Allah and was told, "You are the messenger of Allah." This began his career as a prophet and he received many messages. By the time Muhammad died, the religion of Islam was exploding. The nomadic Arab tribes were joining forces in the name of Allah and his prophet, Muhammad. Jesuit Priest, Rivera, states in his book that some of Muhammad's writings were placed in the Koran, while others were never published. They are now in the hands of high-ranking holy men (Ayatollahs) in the Islamic faith."

Rivera states:

"When Cardinal Bea shared with us in the Vatican, he said, these writings are guarded because they contain information that links the Vatican to the creation of Islam. Both sides have so much information on each other, that if exposed, it could create such a scandal that it would be a disaster for both religions."

Cardinal Augustine Bea, continues:

"In their "Holy" book, the Koran, Christ is regarded as only a prophet. If the pope was His representative on earth, then he also must be a prophet of God. This caused the followers of Muhammad to fear and respect the pope as another 'Holy man'."

The pope moved quickly and issued bulls granting the Arab generals permission to invade and conquer the nations of North Africa. The Vatican helped to finance the building of these massive Islamic armies in exchange for three favors:

1. Eliminate the Jews and Christians (true believers, which they called infidels).
2. Protect the Augustinian Monks and Roman Catholics.
3. Conquer Jerusalem for 'His Holiness' in the Vatican.

As time went by, the power of Islam became tremendous - Jews and true Christians were slaughtered, and Jerusalem fell into their hands. Roman Catholics were never attacked, nor were their shrines, during this time. But when the Pope asked for Jerusalem, he was surprised at their denial. The Arab generals had such military success that they could not be intimidated by the Pope - nothing could stand in the way of their own plan.

Under Waraqua's direction, Muhammad wrote that Abraham offered Ishmael as a sacrifice. The Bible says that Isaac was the sacrifice, but Muhammad removed Isaac's name and inserted Ishmael's name. As a result of this and Muhammad's vision, the faithful Muslims built a mosque, the Dome of the Rock, in Ishmael's honor on the site of the Jewish temple that was destroyed in 70 AD. This made Jerusalem the 2nd most holy place in the Islam faith."

NOTE: Muhammad would've liked to construct the sacred shrine for the Pope, but that would've caused a revolt.

Cardinal Bea continues:

"The pope realized what they had created was out of control when he heard they were calling "His Holiness," an infidel. The Muslim generals were determined to conquer the world for Allah, and now they

'His Holiness,' an infidel. The Muslim generals were determined to conquer the world for Allah, and now they turned toward Europe. Islamic ambassadors approached the pope and asked for papal bulls to give them permission to invade European countries. The Vatican was outraged; war was inevitable. Temporal power and control of the world was considered the basic right of the Pope. He wouldn't think of sharing it with those whom he considered heathens. The Pope raised up his armies and called them crusades to hold back the children of Ishmael from grabbing Catholic Europe. The crusades lasted centuries and Jerusalem slipped out of the Pope's hands. Turkey fell, and Spain and Portugal were invaded by Islamic forces. In Portugal, they called a mountain village 'Fatima' in honor of Muhammad's daughter, never dreaming it would become world famous.

Years later when the Muslim armies were poised on the islands of Sardinia and Corsica, to invade Italy, there was a serious problem. The Islamic generals realized they were too far extended. It was time for peace talks. One of the negotiators was Francis of Assisi. As a result, the Muslims were allowed to occupy Turkey in a 'Christian' world, and the Catholics were allowed to occupy Lebanon in the Arab world. It was also agreed that the Muslims could build mosques in Catholic countries without interference as long as Roman Catholicism could flourish Arab countries."

Cardinal Bea told his pupils in these Vatican briefings that both the Muslims and Roman Catholics agreed to block and destroy the efforts of their common enemy, who were the true Christ believers. Through these formal agreements, Satan worshipers blocked the children of Ishmael from knowledge of Scripture and truth.

Cardinal Bea continues:

"A light control was kept on Muslims from the Ayatollah down through the Islamic priests, nuns and monks. The Vatican also engineers a campaign of hatred between the Muslim Arabs and the Jews. Before this, they had co-existed peacefully. The Islamic community looks on the Bible-believing missionary as a devil who brings poison to the children of Allah. This explains years of ministry in those countries with little results. The next plan was to control Islam. In 1910, Portugal was going Socialistic. Red flags were appearing and the Catholic Church was facing a major problem. Increasing numbers were against the church. The Jesuits wanted Russia involved, and the location of this vision at Fatima could play a key part in pulling Islam to the Mother Church.

In 1917, the Virgin appeared in Fatima. 'The Mother of God' was a smashing success, playing to overflow crowds. As a result, the Socialists of Portugal suffered a major defeat. Roman Catholics worldwide began praying for the conversion of Russia and the Jesuits invented the Novenas to Fatima, which they could perform throughout North Africa, spreading good public relations to the Muslim world. The Arabs thought they were honoring the daughter of Muhammad, which is what the Jesuits wanted them to believe. As a result of the vision of Fatima, Pope Pius XII ordered his Nazi army to crush Russia and the Orthodox religion and make Russia Roman Catholic. A few years after he lost World War II, Pope Pius XII startled the world with his phony dancing sun vision to keep Fatima in the news. It was great religious show biz and the world swallowed it. Not surprisingly, Pope Pius was the only one to see this vision. As a result, a group of followers has grown into a Blue Army worldwide, totaling millions of faithful Roman Catholics ready to die for the blessed virgin. But we haven't seen anything yet. The Jesuits have their Virgin Mary scheduled to appear four or five times in China, Russia, and major appearance in the U.S."

NOTE: If you're wondering what this had to do with Islam, it can be found in a statement from Bishop Sheen:

"Our Lady's appearances at Fatima marked the turning point in the history of the world's 350 million Muslims. After the death of his daughter, Muhammad wrote that she "Is the most holy of all women in Paradise, next to Mary."

He believed that the Virgin Mary chose to be known as Our Lady of Fatima as a sign and a pledge that the Muslims who believe in Christ's virgin birth, will come to believe in His divinity.

Bishop Sheen pointed out that Muslims in Africa, India, and elsewhere enthusiastically received the pilgrim virgin statues of Our Lady of Fatima, and that many Muslims are now coming into the Roman Catholic Church.

The Islam religion is a lie just created by the Vatican, which in my findings is the darkest religion on Earth, even more so than Satanism.

Red Shoes

Red is the color of blood, so it is associated with energy, war, danger, strength, power, determination as well as passion, desire, and love. Red is a very emotionally intense color. It enhances human metabolism, increases respiration rate, and raises blood pressure. It has very high visibility, which is why stop signs, stoplights, and fire equipment are usually painted red. Dark red is associated with vigor, willpower, rage, anger, leadership, courage, longing, malice, and wrath.

If you research the Papal (red) Shoes on Wikipedia, you will not find the definition or meaning of these shoes. Instead you'll only find description of current and past Papal shoes. These red shoes represent, "Blood sacrifice," but when I asked the several church members I interviewed, most said it's symbolic for authority. I was told that in Ancient Rome only three people were allowed to wear red shoes, the Emperor, Empress and the Pope. Two of the church members did admit that the Papal shoes represented pagan gods of ancient Greece. One thing for sure, the Papal shoes are negative symbolism in nature. Though Pope Francis refuses to wear Papal shoes (as seen below to the far left), he is still a man who partakes in other pagan traditions. He is changing tradition to dupe the masses into thinking he's different, more humble than the rest. But his title alone proves he has taken secret oaths to Satan, including blood and sexual rituals. For any man to be a Pope, he must first perform blasphemous rituals unknown to the masses that adore him.

Golden Cup and Lire Coins

“And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.     –Revelation 17:4-6

The Whore of Babylon in the book of Revelation is Semiramis, Queen of Babylon (Queen of the Heaven/Whore of Babylon). The gold cup she holds represents false doctrine, fornication or adulteration of the truth. Here are examples of how this golden cup is used in the Catholic Church.

In these examples, you can clearly see the gold cups, but if this wasn't enough evidence for you, let's take a look and several examples of Papal medal and gold coins on the next page that were minted in Vatican. Every one of these coins depicts the “Whore of Babylon” on the back of the coin, holding a golden cup in her right hand.

Coin close-up: Notice the cup illuminating seven rays of sun (representing the 7-headed beast)

There are two verses in Revelation that call for wisdom:

- 1) Revelation 13:18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.
- 2) Revelation 17:9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

This is a clear linkage of the number 666 with the woman that sits on seven mountains. A woman is common Symbolology in the Bible for a church. Research in any encyclopedia and you will discover that Rome is the city of seven hills or mountains. It is very interesting to note that Vatican City and St. Peter's Basilica of the Catholic Church were built upon what was called in Latin, vaticanus mons or vaticanus collis, which translates to "Hill of prophecy":

vatis / vatic = prophecy, anus = of mons / collis = hill or mountain.

And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

-Revelation 17:18

This verse is a description of Vatican City. Vatican City is unwittingly declaring itself to be that woman of Revelation 17, the church that claims to rule over the kings of the earth, because the Catholic Church is

Purple and Scarlet

"And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour..."

-Revelation 17:4

In this verse above we see the color coordination of scarlet and purple adorned by the "Whore of Babylon," which are used in the Catholic Church as another defiance attempt towards God. See below.

Papal Fisherman's Ring

According to Harry A. Ironside (who was Canadian-American Bible teacher, preacher, theologian, pastor, and author), the Pope is ""The direct successor of the high priest of the Babylonian mysteries and the servant of the fish god, Dagon, for whom he wears, like his idolatrous predecessors, the 'Fisherman's Ring.'"

Again, we see the mixing of paganism and Christianity together, but these similarities made the mixture less obvious. In this case, since Peter (Yasha's first disciple) had been a fisherman, the fish-god ring with the title "Pontifex Maximus" inscribed on it was associated with him. But Peter the Apostle never wore a ring like this. No one ever bowed and kissed his ring, because Peter didn't have a ring or any kind of jewelry.

"Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none..."

-Acts 3:6 (KJV)

Pallium

Another Mystery of Babylon modern accessory worn by the Pope is called a "Pallium," which the Pope wears over his shoulders as seen in these examples.

The unabridged dictionaries define it as a garment that was worn by the pagan clergy of Greece and Rome, before the Christian era. In modern times, the pallium is made of white wool that are taken from two lambs, which have been "Blessed" in the basilica of St. Agnes, Rome. As a symbol that the archbishops also share in the plenitude of the Papal office, the Pope sends the pallium to them. Before it is sent, however, it is laid all night on the "Supposed" tomb of St. Peter. This is a practice of paganism that was practiced among the Ancient Greeks, and Babylonians before them. The modern pallium is a circular band about two inches wide, worn about the neck, breast, and shoulders, and having two pendants, one hanging down in front and one behind. ...The ornamentation of the pallium consists of six small black crosses. Each one on the breast and back, one on each shoulder, and one on each pendant. Below on the right is a Neo-Assyrian standing stone (stele/stela) dating from about 824-811 B.C., which depicts King Shamshi-Adad V. In particular, notice the necklace the King is wearing. On it, is what is today called a "Maltese Cross." Twenty-eight hundred years ago that shape was symbolic of pagan sun worship. Today the Pope wears a similar symbol around his neck, on the Pallium, which the Pope also confers on selected bishops as an ornamental token of his favor. It's also worn by archbishops and patriarchs as a symbol of their authority as a metropolitan, derived from unity with the Pope. Note also, that beneath the Pope's Pallium there is an "X"/ diagonal cross, which mimics the diagonal bands below the Maltese cross worn by the pagan king. The Pope also has a ring and staff of authority, remarkably similar to the depiction of the sun god, Shamash on the Babylonian tablet shown here.

For the Sumerians, Shamash was principally the judge and law-giver with some fertility attributes. For the Semites he was also a victorious warrior, the god of wisdom, the son of Sin, and known as being "Greater than his father." He was the husband and brother of Ishtar and as we know Ishtar is another name for Semiramis, meaning that Shamash and Nimrod are the same person so he was actually the son. Once again we are seeing a symbol that represents on who is against God. In the Mesopotamian poems "Shamash," this name means 'the god,' or simply the sun (sun worship).

St. Peter's Chair

For centuries, the Romish church claimed to possess the very chair in which Peter had sat and ministered in at Rome. Show pics. The Catholic Encyclopedia explains that the plates on the front of this chair show fabulous animals of mythology as well as the fabled "labors of Hercules." In another volume of The Catholic Encyclopedia, we find these words: "Gilgamesh, whom mythology transformed into a Babylonian Hercules ... would then be the person designated by the Biblical Nemrod (Nimrod)." It is curious that Nimrod is likened to Hercules and carvings associated with Hercules appear on the so-called "Chair of Peter." None of these things would cause us to think of this chair as being of Christian origin.

A scientific commission appointed by Pope Paul in July 1968, has now reported that no part of the chair is old enough to date from the days of Peter. In the official report on the carbon dating and other tests, it has been determined that the chair is no older than the ninth century. Clearly, the old ideas about Peter's chair were interesting, but just another fabrication by the Catholic Church.

Rosary Beads

Rosary beads come in all shapes, colors, sizes and quality. Some rosaries are strung with pearls (like the one in the photo to the right), while others are made with crystal, wood and even plastic. But where did the ritual of the rosary come from? And what exactly is the significance of rosary beads? The rosary in simplest terms is said to be a tool used to aid prayer and meditation. The beads of a rosary count the prayers as they are recited out loud or in the mind. The user relies on the rosary beads to keep track of how many times you've said a particular prayer. It's most commonly recognized in the United States as a symbol of Catholicism, and other religions including Buddhism, Hinduism, Paganism and Islam employ rosary beads as well.

We are never taught the true meaning of prayer beads. It's another tradition that gets passed down from our parents and grandparents, but here are the facts. Prayer beads, or prayer rosaries, are really rosaries, are really another form of the "Witch's ladder," a knotted rope or cord used to count repetitions during a spell or ritual. Praying with beads is a spiritual practice with a long history in most of the world's religions.

According to Patricia A. Dilley, in her book, "A History of Praying Beads," prayer beads originated with the Hindu faith. Using beads for devotions dates to 8th century B.C. in the cult of Shiva. In India sandstone sculptures, statues (185 BC), show Hindus with prayer beads. The names of Hindu gods and prayers are repeated on stringed beads, called, Mala, separated by larger or different colored beads. Hindu converts kept their traditional use of prayer beads.

Buddhist monks always carry a strand of prayer beads, or rosary, which normally have 108 beads. Often, when religions sought converts, they allowed them to retain some of their pagan ways: ceremonial garb, heathen rituals and traditions; in order to add to their numbers. This led to spiritual pollution. Before the 12th Century, rosaries were used for talismans (amulet or occult charms). Rosaries and prayer beads were intended by the Catholic Church hierarchy, to be used by ignorant followers, which they were successful at accomplishing. Pagans had used prayer beads even before the 8th Century (before Christ), and they are still used today.

We are warned in the Bible by Christ about indulging in chanting a repeated prayer. He states:

"But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking."

-Matthew 6:7 (KJV)

On every corner of the Earth, these beads are present and used in prayer, as seen below.

The Kissing of Idols

Near the high altar of St. Peter's chair, is a large bronze statue supposedly of Peter. This statue is looked upon with the most profound veneration and its foot has been kissed so many times that the toes are nearly worn away as seen above. The practice of kissing an idol or statue was borrowed from paganism. As we have seen, Baal worship was linked with the ancient worship of Nimrod in deified form (as the sun-god). In the days of Elijah, multitudes had bowed to Baal and kissed him. Here's what God says about kissing idols.

“Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.” –1 Kings 19:18 (KJV)

In one of his mystery forms, Nimrod (incarnated in the young Tammuz) was represented as a calf. Statues of calves were made, worshipped, and kissed.

“They sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say to them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.” –Hosea 13:2 (KJV)

Kissing an idol was a part of Baal worship. Not only was the practice of kissing an idol adopted by the Romish church, so was the custom of religious processions in which idols are carried. Such processions are a common part of Roman Catholic practice, yet these did not originate with Christianity. In the fifteenth century B.C., an image of the Babylonian goddess Ishtar (Semiramis) was carried with great pomp and ceremony from Babylon to Egypt. Idol processions were practiced in Greece, Egypt, Ethiopia, Mexico, and many other countries in olden times.

The Bible shows the folly of those who think good can come from idols - idols so powerless they must be carried. Isaiah, in direct reference to the gods of Babylon, had this to say:

“They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship. They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble” –Isaiah 46:6,7 (KJV)

Not only have such processions continued in the Roman Catholic Church in which idols are carried, but the Pope is also carried in procession (today by vehicle). In the days of Isaiah, the people lavished silver and gold on their god. Today expensive garments and jewels are placed on the Pope. When the pagan god was carried in procession, the people fell down and worshipped, so on certain occasions do people bow before the Pope as he is carried by. Even as the god was carried "Upon the shoulders," so did men carry the Pope, (the god of Catholicism), upon their shoulders in religious processions as seen below.

Over three-thousand years ago, the very same practice was known in Egypt, such processions being a part of the paganism there as seen centered above. A comparison of the papal procession of today, and the ancient pagan procession of Egypt, shows that the one is a copy of the other. Here are several examples of idol carrying and idol kissing.

The Wafer

Take a look at these examples of men from the Catholic Church.

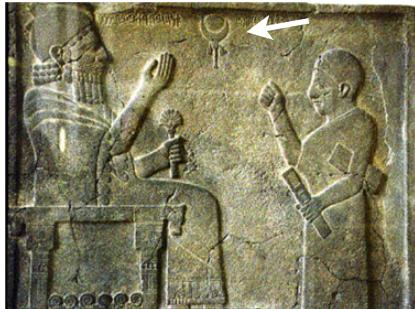

Above are men holding a sun-worshiping device called a "Monstrance" or an "Ostensorium." It is used to display a round wafer of bread, called the "Host," which is used in what is called: The Mass, Lord's Supper, Communion or Eucharistic meal. The Catholics believe this wafer of bread turns into the actual body of Christ when consecrated during the Mass, but that is not true. Secretly, it's termed, "The Wafer Sun god," and is a known Babylonian tradition that is a symbol of Baal. According to The Dictionary of the Liturgy by Reverend Jovian P. Lang, (a dictionary which was published by Catholic Book Publishing Co., New York (page 436)): "During the baroque period, it took on a rayed form of a sun-monstrance with a circular window surrounded by a silver or gold frame with rays."

Baboon Thoth 332BC   Eye of Horus 700-30BC   Isis/Horus 664-30BC   Babylon Baal 2000BC   Akkad 2340-2159BC

In this statement, the Catholic Church is admitting that the monstrance is a sunburst. The ceremony of the "Wafer" is a secret sexual ceremony that has existed thousands of years before the Roman Catholic Church was even established. Before I discuss how the wafer is used to complete an ancient sexual ritual, take a look at how "Sun worship" has been the very essence of pagan worship throughout several different eras from 2340 B.C. to 30 B.C; a tradition that continues even today in Catholicism. Though these are different idols from different eras, they all have one thing in common. The "Sun" (Phallus) is penetrating the "Crescent Moon" (Womb), consummating a sexual pagan ritual.

The male phallus is delivered by the sun (Sun-god/Satan), which in the Catholic Church is represented by the round wafer. This wafer (emulating the phallus of the sun god) is normally placed inside the crescent moon within the monstrance during ceremonial masses. The "Sun," is penetrating the "Womb" of the crescent moon, creating a Pagan Deity of "Mother and Child." The sun is known as "Baal the Satan the Advisory," also known as "Baal-Hadad." Here's how other sexual union were displayed before the Roman Catholic Church formed:

Pic 1

Pic 2

Pic 3

Pic 1. This is another Assyrian-Baal style sun crest relief of King Bar-Raqqah from Syria, 8th Century BC. Note the solar deity (Baal-Hadad) shown as a disk in the crescent.

Pic 2. Here is the Baal-Hadad symbol in ancient Hittite culture. Notice the peacocks on the side, the face of Apollo in the circle, and the laurel leaf with 13 leaves around it. The United Nations uses that symbol for itself. Notice how it's nestled in the crescent moon, another sign of sexual union.

Pic 3. This is an Assyrian-Baal sun crest. The solar deity is shown as a disk in a crescent. The crescent is a symbol of the womb of the woman, which receives the rebirth of the sun god.

To the right, this hieroglyph shows the Dagon priest. Above him is a solar symbol of the god, "Shamash" with the wings of an eagle/phoenix. Another solar symbol is next to winged symbol, with two stars superimposed on top of each other making an 8-pointed star. Notice the worshiper before him. Pagan priests were considered infallible, and were addressed, "Your Holiness," even in ancient times as the Pope is today. Nations subdued by Babylon had to kiss the ring and slipper of the Babylonian god-king. The Dalai Lama of Buddhism, as well as the Catholic Pope, both claim the same powers and titles to this day.

No that you're familiar with the sexual union of the sun and moon god, let's look close and these three examples of monstrance used in Catholic Churches.

In each one of these monstrance examples above, you can clearly see the crescent moon or womb (empty), where the wafer will penetrate the orpheus of the moon. It's unseen by the church crowd because of its tiny size. Most civilians aren't aware that it exists, nor are they aware that this is a "Sexual Communion" of two ancient gods, re-named "Communion." To the right, we see how the monstrance looks after the wafer has been inserted. This union will birth a son who will be worshipped like a god (i.e., Tammuz, Horus, Jesus etc.).

Pick your era in history or your spot on the globe, and you will find a culture that uses the moon as a symbol, particularly the crescent moon. The most obvious example is the yellow crescent moon associated with Islamic tradition, but there are numerous precedents to this practice, both in religion and in secular society. Many depictions of the Virgin Mary in classical art have her standing on a crescent moon. This inclusion of the waning or waxing moon often symbolizes fertility, but there has always been a brewing debate among several faiths over whether the moon should be considered a positive symbol or be associated with Satanism. The answer is simple. No religion in the world honors God The ALMIGHTY, because religions of all faiths commingle deities, sun-worship, moon-worship, along with an assortment of nature-worship, man-worship, and animal-worship, topped off with various pagan traditions. But let's only focus on Satan's crescent moon.

Look at the Baphomet to the right. Satanism is the religion that uses two crescent moons that are made up of black and white, representing, "Duality," which I will elaborate on in Books-3&8. The crescent moon symbolizes the Architect deity, "Sin" (Akkadian: Su'en, Sîn) A.K.A. Nanna (Sumerian: DŠEŠ.KI, DNANNA) the god of the moon in Mesopotamian mythology. Nanna is a Sumerian deity, the son of Enlil and Ninlil, and became identified with Semitic Sin. Enlil is Ashur/Assur/Asher, Yaldabooth, the god of Abraham and Moses. Ninlil is Lilith, the "First Eve" (this is the origin of "New Year's Eve"). Enlil, alias: Shaitan, Satan, the Devil, Lucifer is the "god of the Fall." The star is Venus (Satan), a.k.a. Ishtar, Inanna, Aphrodite, or Semiramis. She is the Sumerian, Akkadian, Babylonian, and Semitic Astarte. The "Secular" nations of the world (i.e. those that have obliterated Christianity from their power structures) ALL WORSHIP THESE DEITIES. One quick glance at the flags of the world is evidence enough. Far from being merely innocuous, symbolic representations, these gods are indeed very real and they are empowered through human servitude and blood sacrifice. The powers that be convince us that we, humans, are each other's own worst enemies and that it is religions such as Islam, Judaism and even Christianity which should become the scapegoats, or sacrificial lambs.

Now that you know the true satanic origins of the crescent moon, it's time for you to learn another secret about the monstrance and what's printed on the back of most of them. It's quite obvious with a naked eye that one can see the letters "S-F-S" in the small sunburst blaze of this photo to the left. Each of the letters is a universal symbol for the number 6 in the pagan mysteries, meaning that this sunburst secretly reads 6-6-6 (666). The number 666 is also associated with what is called, "The magic square of the sun." The practice of equating names and letters with numbers is called, "Gematria." Let's analyze the letters F and S and how it associates with 666.

The letter F: ⚡ = Digamma

The Hebrew letter "Vav" (ו) has a value of 6. The English letter F is a descendant of Vav and retains the same Hebrew value and the letter F is also the 6th letter of the English alphabet. In pagan numerology the letters F, O, and X have the value of 6. The Greek symbol Digamma (as seen above) also looks like the letter F and has a value of 6.

The letter S ⚡ = Stau

The Greek equivalent of Vav is the letter Stau, which looks like an S, and it also has the value of 6 (as seen above). Some scholars describe the hidden "SFS," as representing 666, with the "S" being the sixth letter in the ancient Greek alphabet and "F" being the sixth letter in our alphabet. This is a true analogy, and we still arrive at the value of 666, but it's important to know that the English "F" derived from Hebrew dialect. The value of 666 was present in the pagan community far before the English Alphabet was invented.

Now, let us return to the study of the Wafer, also known as the "Unbloody Sacrifice." By the 4th Century, when the pagan, "Queen of heaven," (under the name of Mary), was beginning to be worshipped in the Christian Churches, Papacy insisted on using a small, thin wafer that was round. The thin round wafer occurs on all altars. "Almost every jot or tittle in the Egyptian worship had a symbolical meaning. The round disk, so frequent in the sacred emblems of Egypt, symbolized the sun." -The Two Babylons, by Rev. Alexander Hislop, (pages 159-160). Hislop's masterpiece has caused the Roman Catholic Church such grief that they have taken great steps to discredit his work among faithful Catholics.

NOTE: The Eucharist - also called Holy Communion, the Sacrament of the Altar, the Blessed Sacrament, and the Lord's Supper, according to Wikipedia. "It's known as a Christian sacrament or ordinance. It is reenacted in accordance with Yasha's instruction at the Last Supper, as recorded in several books of the New Testament, that His followers do in remembrance of Him as when he gave His disciples bread, saying, 'This is my body,' and gave them wine saying, 'This is my blood.'"

This is why Wikipedia hides the number 666 in their logo and is known for publishing misinformation (which you will learn about in Book-7 "Occult Symbolism Overkill"). The truth is, we should warn our Catholic and Christian brothers that taking what's called, "Communion," regardless of what explanations that any Church gives about the Eucharist, the Catholic Church has made a mockery of Christ and the CREATOR. They have passed these false traditions down to several other Christian faiths. Yasha did not want anything resembling the Eucharist, symbolic or otherwise. The whole ritual of symbolically eating the flesh of "Jesus" is cannibalistic, and horribly offensive to the True Light. The vampire ritual of drinking the blood of "Jesus" is repulsively demonic. Only a man of the beast would favor such rituals. Only the Anti-Christ would want others to mock Yasha in such a way, week-after-week in "Holy Communion." These demonic rituals were added by the Greeks to the New Testament.

Communion is a Pagan ritual that has gone on for thousands of years before Christ was born. Christians love to read the New Testament because that's where they can find comfort in the word of "Jesus." But if one were passionate enough to truly decipher the Bible, which takes skill, dedication, meditation, and great patience, they will see that the Bible is coded. Some events are located in the wrong place, some names like "Og" was represented as another name. To decipher the Bible, one must spend years reading other holy scriptures that were translated from Ancient Hebrew, because Modern Hebrew dissolves the true interpretation of what mankind should know and understand about God and spirituality.

I ask that all who read this: Turn away from communion practice, and teach others to turn away from it as well. It is a mockery to God and He never asks us to perform "Ash Wednesday" nor "Palm Sunday."

Ash Wednesday & Lent

Ash Wednesday (AW) was created from pagan origins as most traditions were regarding the Greeks. Neither God, nor Yasha mention AW in the Bible. None of the apostles observed it, and nowhere are Christians commanded to keep it. It was not even officially practiced until nearly 1000 years after Christ's resurrection. Like so many other non-biblical "Christian" customs, it has deep pagan roots. It's an unfortunate fact that modern Christianity has appropriated so many customs from the practice of paganism that one might wonder if it should even be called Christianity.

This ritual "Imposition of the ashes," is purportedly in imitation of the repentant act of covering oneself in dust and ashes. The marking of believers on Ash Wednesday is done in combination of another extra-biblical routine called "Lent." Despite Christ's command to his followers to abstain from the practice of disfiguring their faces during fasting, it has become a regular practice. He also told his followers to wash our faces during a fast.

The practice of putting ashes on one's forehead has been known from ancient times. In the Nordic pagan religion, placing ashes above one's brow was believed to ensure the protection of the Norse god, Odin. This practice spread to Europe during the Vikings conquests. This ritual of ashes was performed on Wednesday, the day named for Odin, Odin's Day (I will elaborate on the Pagan days of the week in Book-2).

performed on Wednesday, the day named for Odin, Odin's Day (I will elaborate on the pagan days of the week in Book-2). Interestingly enough, one of Odin's names is Ygg, and Ygg is short for "Yggdrasil," which is Norse for "Ash Tree." This name Ygg, closely resembles the Vedic name Agni in pronunciation.

Above, is the movie "THOR," staring Chris Hemsworth (as the pagan god, Thor) and Anthony Hopkins (as the pagan god, Odin). In Book-2 you will learn that everyday of week is named after a pagan god, i.e., Thursday derived from, "Thor's Day," and Wednesday derived from, "Odin's Day." The Norse practice which has become known as Ash Wednesday was itself, drawn from the Vedic Indian religion. Ashes were believed to be the seed Agni, the Indian fire god. It is from this name that the Latin's used for fire, Ignis. It's from this root word that the English language got the words, ignite, igneous and ignition. Agni was said to have the authority to forgive sins. Ashes were also believed to be symbolic for the purifying blood of the Vedic god Shiva, which is said to have had the power to cleanse sins. Lent is a period of 40 days preceding the observance of Easter, where the observers are expected to fast or cease from having the use of some other "Luxury." Like the majority of modern, so-called Christian practices, Lent and Ash Wednesday originated from a multitude of ancient pagan practices.

The mark you see on the woman's face to the right, is a mark of Satan. Any mark placed on the human body to honor a pagan god is blasphemous and clearly dishonors the CREATOR. God warns us many times not to take part in such pagan traditions created by man. Lent is counted differently by those of the Western Catholic tradition and those of the Eastern Orthodox tradition. The western church excludes Sundays (which is celebrated as the day of Christ's resurrection) whereas the eastern church includes them. The churches also start Lent on different days. Western churches start Lent on the 7th Wednesday before Easter Day (called Ash Wednesday). Eastern churches start Lent on the Monday of the 7th week before Easter and end it on the Friday 9 days before Easter. Eastern churches call this period the Great Lent.

In his book, The Two Babylons, Alexander Hislop observed:

"Let any one only read the atrocities that were commemorated during the 'Sacred fast' or Pagan Lent, as described by Arnobius and Clemens Alexandrinus, and surely he must blush for the Christianity of those who, with the full knowledge of all these abominations, 'Went down to Egypt for help' to stir up the languid devotion of the degenerate church, and who could find no more excellent way to 'Revive' it, than by borrowing from so polluted a source; the absurdities and abominations connected with which the early Christian writers had held up to scorn. That Christians should ever think of introducing the Pagan abstinence of Lent was a sign of evil; it showed how low they had sunk, and it was also a cause of evil; it inevitably led to deeper degradation. Originally, even in Rome, Lent, with the preceding revelries of the carnival, was entirely unknown...."

In the early 19th Century, German explorer Alexander von Humboldt noted the practice among the pagans in Mexico, being held in the spring. His account states:

"Three days after the vernal equinox...began a solemn fast of forty days in honor of the sun."

A Lent of 40-days was also commemorated in Egypt. According to English scholar, John Landseer, in his Sabean Researches (1823), an Egyptian Lent of 40-days was held in honor of Osiris. There is a spiritual signature, which bears witness to the spirit of these traditions. It is called Fat Tuesday, Shrove Tuesday or Mardi Gras. It is the custom of living it up to get our fill of all the enjoyment the world has to offer before setting off to "Church" in mock repentance on Ash Wednesday. Such celebrations are an indication of the spirit behind the facade. If you are a person who honors these Pagan traditions, or know somebody who honors them, stop and turn away from them. These rituals are an abomination to God.

Various biblical events and customs are referred to by those who celebrate these days. The Bible mentions people mourning in sackcloth and ashes, and also talks about repentance and fasting, and the number 40 is prominent in various biblical events. The justification for the Lenten 40-day preparation for Easter is traditionally based on Jesus' 40-day wilderness fast before His temptation by Satan.

"And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him." -Mark 1:13 (KJV)

The problem with this explanation is that this incident is not connected in any way with Yaha's faked observance of Easter:

"Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Lord's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these." -Ezekiel 8:14-16 (KJV)

Tammuz (Nimrod), is now secretly being portrayed as Jesus today (as you will see on the next page). It has been suggested by some scholars that the practice of "Weeping for Tammuz" was the actual origin of Lent, and the Roman Catholic 40-day period of abstinence prior to Easter (starting after Mardi Gras, known as "Fat Tuesday," on Ash Wednesday). Consider that the name Easter itself is derived from Ishtar, the ancient Babylonian fertility goddess and Tammuz's mother.

The Sign of Nimrod

The "Sign of Nimrod" is popular in "Jesus" paintings and a number of statues. Even the supposed "Baby Jesus" (who is really Nimrod, son of the Queen of Babylon) is seen holding up these two fingers. These examples of the "Two fingers," derived from Satanic origins, as seen in the Baphomet photo:

This sign is called the Bowman Sign, and I will explain it in Book-8 "Entertainment" under the section titled, "Bowman." In short, it's a Satanic symbol that symbolizes, "One who is against God, standing before God as His enemy." The "Bowman" exalts the horns of Satan over the 3 fingers of the Trinity. "The Sign of Nimrod" or "Sign of the Bowman" the position of one's fingers to draw back the string on a bow. In the Bible the bow symbolizes wicked men. Genesis 10:8-9, 21:20, 27:3, Psalms 11:2, 37:14, Jeremiah 51:1-3, Ezekiel 39:3, Revelation 6:2.

The photo to the right is an illustration of Cupid (Nimrod as a child) trying to get his bow from his evil mother and soon to be wife, Semiramis. The two fingers in all the photos above secretly depict the true identity of who the world believes is "Jesus," But in actuality it's Nimrod "The Mighty Hunter," and the one who was against God. It takes two fingers to pull back the string of a bow and that's that's how this two-finger gesture became famous, and because Nimrod was against God, occults who shared Nimrod's ideology, soon took the two-finger symbol as their own including the Catholic Church.

Vatican Owls

"I am like a desert owl of the wilderness, like an owl of the waste places,"

-Psalm 102:6 (ESV)

The Vatican inherited the presence of owls, which are strongly associated with satanic occults such as Bohemian Grove (which I will elaborate on in Book-3 and Book-7). The photo to the right was taken just above the dome area of the Vatican, with the owl eyes looking into the universe. As you can see, the owl eyes are hidden on the rooftop, out of sight of spectators, but higher members of the Vatican Church know it's there, and more importantly, know of its sinister nature. In this next photo, see if you can find the hidden owl. In case you can't see it, the gold dragon is in the belly of the owl. This sculpture represents a dragon-heart within the "Illuminati/Masonic Owl," with the "Keys to the Kingdom," overhead. The Keys to the Kingdom is called the "Vatican Coat of Arms." When this symbol is turned upside down, the owl eyes can be seen as in the example on the bottom right. Next, we see the occult guarding owls of Lilith, (Ishtar, Easter, Eostre, Diana, Queen of Babylon, Queen of the Heaven, Queen of the Night, Semiramis). As you can see, owl occult symbolism predates you can see, owl occult symbolism predates the Roman Catholic Church by thousands of years. Lilith, is the Mesopotamian goddess of death, "Who had wings and talons as well as owls at her side." She is associated with warfare. The owls exemplify multiple meanings but in the case of the goddess, Lilith and secret societies, the owl(s) are seen as killers, and owls hold signs of death, like in Sodom and Gomorrah (Genesis 19).

The Maltese Cross is a secret symbol of "A Satanic order, whose rituals included infanticide, sodomy and witchcraft." It's associated with the Knights of St. John (also known as the "Hospitallers of St. John of Jerusalem" or simply "Knights of Malta"), this cross's eight points are said to symbolize the eight Beatitudes and the Beatitudes' associated obligations. The Order of St. John ran hostels and hospitals for Christian pilgrims to Jerusalem, but eventually had to fight during the wars of Islamic aggression. It is said that the Maltese cross is a symbol within a symbol in that it is made of the initial letters of the Greek words for, "Jesus Christ, God, Son, Savior" ("Iesous Christos Theou Huios Soter"), which forms the acrostic for the word "Fish." When these letters I.C.Q.U.S. (Iota, Chi, Theta, Upsilon, Sigma) are stacked on top of each other and their "Ends" closed, they form a Maltese Cross. The Sovereign Military Order of Malta, also known as the original Sovereign Military Order of St. John of Jerusalem, is a closed fraternity of the Roman Catholic Church. Its initiated members must be Catholic and have served in the military. They participate in secret ceremonies and feudal ritual dress, and embrace a strong class/caste mentality as part of their initiation into Rosicrucian dogma.

The unusually shaped Cross of Malta (Maltese Cross) was the original emblem of the controversial Knights Templar, and was adopted as the official insignia of the Knights of Malta, when the Knights Templar were forced to submit to the authority of the Vatican. Occult initiates will discover that just like the inverted pentagram or five-pointed star, the Cross of Malta is similarly a cryptogram for the Goat of Mendes, the androgynous Templar idol Baphomet, representing the goat's beard and horns. This is the symbol of ruling matter and spirit by the will, and the controlled magical direction of sexual energies. In short, every Pope is associated to a satanic order, whose rituals included infanticide, sodomy and witchcraft. Every Popes will display the symbol of the Maltese cross in his garment as visual proof of his allegiance to Satan, and to the orders of satanic foundation. From The Queen of England, and Adolf Hitler, to Popes and higher members of the Catholic Church, these men step into the public eye adorned with t public eye adorned with the Maltese cross with full knowledge of it's true satanic origins and allegiance to Lucifer.

Orb In Hand

The Catholic Church will continue to dupe the world in regards to the orb found the "So-called" hand of "Jesus." They describe the orb as a sphere surmounted by a cross, signifying the whole universe resting in his hands, but this completely untrue and deceiving. Here are some examples of how the orb is used in the Catholic Church.

The orb is actually a sun representing the whole universe. This is an old ritual that was held up by gods and goddesses throughout the pagan world. In Egypt it was the scarab beetle rolling its dung across the sand, and they worshipped it as god rolling the sun across the heavens. Later it became a cosmic significance as the ruler of the Zodiac, meaning ruler or king of the universe. In secret society, Satan is known as King of the word, and king of the universe. The Catholic Church shows the world statues and paintings of the one they call "Jesus," but secretly adorn this figure in a way to represent Satan hidden in the likeness of the Son of God. Anything holding an orb is worshipped as a pagan god as seen in these ancient examples. The orb is also associated with sorcery and witchcraft, as seen below.

Pagan Sun Behind The Head

If not an orb, another popular pagan association of a god would be placing a sun behind the head of the pagan god as shown in these several examples. In Book-3 "Birth of Secret Society," you will learn how the sun represents, Satan. By creating a multitude of pagan gods, leaders can better control the masses. But the true god that shuns behind the pagan gods is a sun representing Satan, who controls all pagan gods. Jesus is a pagan name, and a pagan god. Notice the sun behind his head in the examples presented. Not one of the members from the Catholic Church that I interviewed, denied that the fact that the Jesus, was created by the Greeks, and used by the Roman Catholic Church as a tool for global control. According to one Catholic Bishop interviewed, Jesus and Mary was a mother and child deity created to keep control in the time of Constantine 300 AD. The true story is hidden in the Va"

Vatican vault away from public eyes. In an interview, when asked if there was really a Messiah, the Bishop answered, "Yes. His time was greatly recorded, and again, not aloud by public eyes, because it could abolish Christianity as we know it today." When asked if the Messiah's name was Jesus, the Bishop replied, "No. the Greeks used their god Zeus in the Constantine translations which translates to Jesus." When asked what was Christ's real name, the Bishop answered, "The modern Hebrew translation was Joshua to my knowledge, but there were other names that sound close to this one."

Note: According to ancient Hebrew the Messiah's name was "Yasha," meaning : Saviour

Christianity and Catholicism is left with the vision of the impostor, "Jesus," created by the Greeks and further changed by the Roman Catholic Church. By creating a multitude of pagan gods, leaders were able to better control the masses. But the true god that shuns behind the pagan gods is a sun representing Satan, who controls all pagan gods. Notice how there is a red flaming heart on the chest of this "god Jesus." This is a pagan depiction that originated from the Ancient Aztec blood sacrifice rituals as seen in the examples below. The heart outside the human body is considered a secret blood ritual amongst Satanist and secret society. This does not come from any Christian origin and is a mockery of Yasha (Son of God). "Jesus" is a pagan god, and this is exactly why God said:

"Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth."

Exodus 20:3-4

By creating a graven image, those in control have distorted and perverted these images to confuse and mislead the masses in order to turn them away from God, and secretly turn them towards Satan. The Jesus god is actually Satan. He is always seen with some form of satanic symbolism, such as the Bowman 2-fingers raised, an orb in one hand representing the sun, a heart levitating in front of his chest and/or a sunbeam or rays of sun, illuminating behind his head. These are all symbols of Satan, Lucifer, Venus, The Fallen, or Fallen angel. Stop praying to this pagan god, "Jesus." He doesn't exist. He is a demonic illusion created by pagan traditions that stem from Babylon. This painting of Jesus is considered a graven image according to God's Law. The true Messiah was, Yasha. You will learn the truth about Yasha (Son of God) and the true Sabbath, in Book-2.

Chi-Rho (Creating the Name Christ and Messiah)

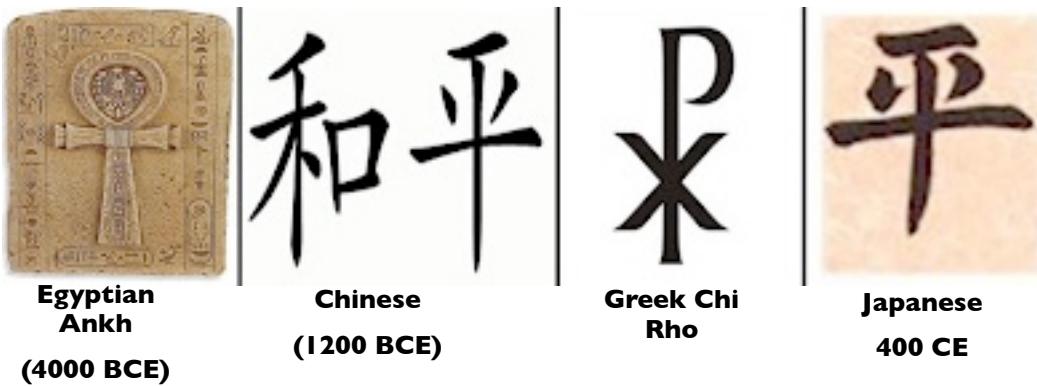

The Catholic Church claim that the Chi-Rho form the first two letters of Christ (Cristos) during the reign of the Emperor Constantine, but this is not entirely true, because this symbol can be found hundreds, if not thousands of years before Christianity even existed as seen below. According Egyptologist, Sir Flinders Petrie, the monogram Chi-Rho was the emblem of the Egyptian god, Horus, thousands of years before Yasha was born, proving a commingled link between Horus, and Yasha.

In second Century B.C., the secret of the Chi-Rho monogram lies with the Greek Ptolemy's who took it from an Ancient Egyptian culture. The Greeks called their version of Horus, "Hercules" or "Hercule" and they applied the Greek "Xian" (meaning "Chres" which became Chrestos) to him. This suddenly gave the ancient name "Horus," the title of Lord, Chrestos, and inevitably "Christ." This, is the true origin of the name Christos/ Christus or Christ, which was in existence before Yasha was even born. Global scholars have identified Heracles or Hercules, as an emblem of this "Fake" Jesus Christ. The name Heracles, is related to Hero and Hu, which means, "Shining or Sun," which became related to:

Chres (Xian) - Chrestos - Christ - (Sun, Saturn, Satan)

There was never a "Jesus," (Hail Zeus) and there was never a "Christ," (Sun god). These are two pagan titles made up by the Greeks to continue their pagan tradition of "Sun and Zeus" worship, an ancient tradition stolen from the wicked Egyptians. Yasha was called the "Christ," from the Greek word Christus (Chrestos). This Christus comes from the Kemetic KRST [Karast], "The Anointed One," which were the titles of Yusir, Tehuti/Thoth, and Heru (derived from Ancient Egyptian gods). The Jewish equivalent would be the word "Messiah" which derived from the Kemetic "MESSU" on one hand, and "MES-IAH" on the other. MES means "To give birth, Son." Horus had a title called "MES," making him "Horus, the Son." MES-IAH then is "The son of YAH." These are the true origins of the word, "Messiah."

Yasha was re-named Jesus, Jesus was called Christus (Christ) and Christus derived from Kemetic KRST [Karast] who were Kemites or Africans, Egyptians who derived from the "Babylonian Mystery System." Christianity, like every religion on Earth, is a sham. God never delivered a title for worship because a "Title" (meaning religion) was never needed. We were put on this Earth to FEAR GOD, and OBEY HIS COMMANDS. Not all of the New Testament is apart of a great lie. Some of it is true, and what's true should be obvious. Yasha never gave a new command for a blood ritual (Communion). A commenced sexual union of the sun and moon, where this fable was incorporated in the so-called, "Communion." One of several lies created by the pagan Greeks, stolen from the Egyptians. "The Virgin Mother," "The Resurrection," titles, and most of Yasha's story all derived from ISIS HOURS and SET/SEB. This entire story stayed the same in many countries under many names, but originated from Semiramis, Nimrod and Tammuz. Ultimately, the symbol, Chi-Rho, is a representation of the Egyptian sun-god, formulating into the Greek god Saturn, known as SATAN.

Catholic Conclusion

Essentially, the Catholic Church read the true scriptures of God, and then purposely performs acts, which are completely opposite to what's written in the Bible. This defiance is orchestrated to defy God while secretly honoring Satan. Here's a verse that you will never hear read in a Catholic Church because it is a direct conflict to the "Churches" beliefs and teachings.

"Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: ..."

-Exodus 20:4-5 (KJV)

There are several more despicable things that are performed in Vatican. In Book 8 under section "Morals of Human Sacrifice," you will read witness testimony on how children are murdered in the bowels on the Vatican for a number of blood rituals that take place with high-ranking church members in attendance. As I said before, I studied Satanism, but found that Catholicism is far worse because of how they dupe societies in performing the same duties, which can be found in Satanism. All Popes, Bishops and Cardinals, have partaken in a number of rituals including sodomy, pedophilia, and child/blood sacrifice.

False Worship

One should never trust anything translated by the Ancient Greeks, for they were the "Pagans of all Pagans." The birth of the Messiah was clearly illustrated in the Old Testament. If God knew his son was on his way to Earth with new commands, we would have been worn in the Old Testament. We were never to worship Yasha (Jesus). Even when Satan tempted Yasha, he told Satan who should be worshipped:

"And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve."

-Matthew 4:8-11 (KJV)

...and yet with this verse, we later see a new command being added that calls for a simulated blood sacrifice by the so-called Jesus. I have confirmed on many occasions that the Greeks added the wine and bread communion so that the world would be duped into Ancient Pagan traditions. Today we are taught that Yasha was a Jew. This is incorrect. He was not a Jew and never claimed to be a Jew. The Son of God and all those in the Heavens knew that religion divides the people of Earth. He was from Judah, but never claiming to be a Jew. We are taught that Yasha and God are one and the same, but this is far from the truth. Besides the evidence in Matthew 4:8-11 (Satan's tempting Yasha), there's substantial evidence in the Old Testament as seen here:

"Now I know that the Lord is greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them."    -Exodus 18:11 (KJV)

"Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me..."

-Exodus 20:3-5 (KJV)

"And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth."

-Exodus 20:3-5 (KJV)

"For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon him for?"

-Deuteronomy 4:7 (KJV)

"Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you; For the Lord thy God is a jealous God among you) lest the anger of the Lord thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth. Ye shall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye tempted him in Massah."

-Deuteronomy 6:14-16 (KJV)

"For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly. But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire. For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth."

-Deuteronomy 7:4-6 (KJV)

And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that ye shall surely perish. As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the Lord your God.

-Deuteronomy 8:19-20 (KJV)

Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; And then the Lord's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord giveth you. Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

Deuteronomy 11:16-19 (KJV)

Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse; A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the Lord your God, which I command you this day: And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the Lord your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

-Deuteronomy 11:26-28 (KJV)

These were nine examples of how God Commands all of Mankind to worship only Him, and none before Him, including idols and graven images and yet in every religion on Earth, this is what you'll find:

With more than 7-billion souls on the planet, its a known fact that more people have turned away from God, more than ever since Earth's creation. Pagan and homosexual activities are cyclical in global outbreaks every 2,500-3,000 years. Then, there's the presence of weapon(s) of mass destruction (ie., meteors, floods etc.). This time is upon

I have circled the planet over a dozen times in search of one place where a group of people worship God as He instructed us to, and to date, after seeing millions of people globally, the group I search for is unfound. As you can see from these previous pages of multiple photos, humans seem to yearn a "Thing" to pray to, made of wood, gold, silver, plastic, aluminum, stone, medal, and ceramic. Let's read Isaiah 46:6-7 one more time:

"They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship. They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble"

-Isaiah 46:6-7 (KJV)

As a child, it was difficult to comprehend why God would destroy the Earth with His Great Floods. As an Adult, I now have full comprehension, and find it embarrassing to be human. We are a species of children, consuming the Earth in every way possible, never taking a moment to truly seek out God and His wisdom. We fail HIM now more than ever. The secrets I have shared are a small example of how the Vatican and Catholicism fully support the worship of Satan. Their outright arrogance for worshipping Satan, gave them the confidence to name their telescope, "L.U.C.I.F.E.R." It's an acronym for the instruments lengthy title, "Large Binocular Telescope Near-infrared Utility with Camera and Integral Field Unit for Extragalactic Research." This instrument is attached to the University of Arizona's Large Binocular Telescope (LBT) located on Mt. Graham in southeastern Arizona. The Vatican-owned Vatican Advanced Technology Telescope (VATT) resides next-door to LBT.

According to "Ecumenical News.com," authors of a new book assert that Vatican astronomers are using both the VATT and the LBT's LUCIFER instrument to watch for an alien savior. Tom Horn and Chris Putnam, authors of Exo-Vaticana: Petrus Romanus, Project LUCIFER, and the Vatican's astonishing plan for the arrival of an alien savior, visited with the Jesuit astronomers at the VATT, including Guy Consolmagno. The authors claim that Consolmagno revealed to them documents showing that the Vatican believes "That we are soon to be visited by an alien savior from another world," but the truth is, millions of aliens already reside within the bowels of Earth and commingle with both the U.S. and German governments. The Vatican has governments. The Vatican has been well aware of these massive aliens colonies set up globally and are preparing a fake visitation from another world, when in fact, what will be televised are aliens that have lived inside Earth for more than a millennium. I will elaborate greatly in Book-9, "The Alien Agenda." These aliens are not hostile but will be used as hostile creatures as a planned global strategy to depopulate the Earth, creating a one-world government, and one-world religion.

The Telescope, LUCIFER, was put in place as an illusion to initiate the plan of New World Order. The U.S. currently owns thousands of disks shape UFO's that are manned by humans in the military. These disks

These will be used in a planned apocalypse on the world, but it won't be aliens attacking, it will be humans flying what appear to be alien crafts (find full details in Book-9 "The Alien Agenda," including the addresses to these massive underground and ocean submerged bases, secret Presidential Treaties, location of wormholes, address to Hitler's final days, and the secret war of 1947 against the alien race that killed over 2000 soldiers within 20 minutes (known as the "Antarctic War of 1947").

Seventh-day Adventist

After researching Seventh-day Adventist for two years, I have an appreciation for their health code and dietary restrictions. I also have an appreciation for their ethical views with the exception abortion. An abortion is "Killing of Life," regardless of circumstance and this is forbidden by God according to Exodus 20:13 "Thou Shalt Not Kill." Homosexuality is condemned by this faith as it is condemned by God in Leviticus 18:22-25, "Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination." But Like Catholicism, Seventh-day Adventist was founded by a deity nature. William Miller was a Deist, who supposedly became a Christian and in 1836, he published the book, Evidences from Scripture and History of the Second Coming of Christ about the Year 1843. This date had come and gone with no "Coming of the Messiah," so there dates were set like between March 21st, 1843 and March 21st, 1844. By October 22nd, 1844 when this date also passed uneventfully, many followers left the movement in what became deemed as, "The Great Disappointment." Miller himself gradually withdrew from the leadership of the group and died in 1849.

By predicting the coming of the Messiah, not only did Miller fall into sin, his followers fell into sin according to 58 versus found throughout the Old Testament and New Testament including one that is most famous:

"Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the Lord your God."

Leviticus 19:31 (KJV)

As of 2005, the Seventh-day Adventist Church had 12 million baptized members and about 25 million total members and adherents worldwide making them one of the world's fastest-growing organizations, primarily due to increases in Third World membership. It now operates in over 203 countries recognized by the United Nations. But with great congregations comes greater deception. Seventh-day Adventist does not honor God's Holy Days, Sabbaths, and three annual feasts. They honor a few disciplines from the bible, but most of the their disciplines' are manmade traditions and not from God. Their most famous discipline is their manmade Sabbath. Seventh-day Adventists observe a 24-hour sunset-to-sunset Sabbath commencing Friday evening. Justification for this belief is garnered from the creation account in Genesis in which God rested on the seventh day, an approach later immortalized in the Ten Commandments. Seventh-day Adventists maintain that there is no biblical mandate for the change from what they deem the "True Sabbath," to Sunday observance, which is to say that Sunday-keeping is merely a "Tradition of men." In most religious groups, "FEAR," is the motivating factor for which a group member will never challenge their false faith. Seventh-day Adventist (SDA) is completely wrong about their correlations between "Traditions of men" and "True Sabbath." Any religious group whose worships God on a set day of every week in a Gregorian year, "Serves not the FATHER, but only himself." Meaning, there is not a religious group on the face of this planet that honors God's commands regarding Sabbath, Holy Days, and Annual Feasts as illustrated earlier in this book. Miller was a 33rd degree Freemason and I will exploit their secrets in Book-3, "Birth of Secret Societies." As a 33rd degree Mason, the next degree of knowledge is Luciferian knowledge meaning that all high-ranking members worship Satan. By establishing Saturday as a Sabbath, people around the world are secretly worshiping Saturn, widely known as Satan or Satan's Day, without their knowledge. This day was called dies Saturni, "Saturn's Day," by the ancient Romans in honor of Saturn/Satan. In Anglo-Saxon this day was called, sater daeg. This alone makes SDA a false religion that has greatly encumbered pagan worship because this religion as a whole (like all other religions), does not honor the Sabbath as God commands. Look at the three sets of British coins below. The second set of coins honors the Saturn god, seated towards the planet Saturn. Saturn is always shown with a sickle/scythe in his hand. The first set of coins are normally confused for Saturn, but that's actually Uranus seated on the coin holding his scepter. The last set of coins is Aphrodite/Venus is shown coming out, or being birth from a scallop shell. The Queen is not a member of Seventh-day Adventist, but you can see how Saturn is honored under her name.

SDA teach a series of heresies, such as the unscriptural "Investigative Judgment" and "Soul sleep" and that Hell does not exist. Instead they errantly believe that the wicked will be annihilated. The Bible has much more to say about Hell than Heaven, and repeatedly warns of flaming fire (2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9), everlasting fire (Matthew 18:8) and the vengeance of eternal fire (Jude 1:7) for the wicked. These versus are completely ignored by SDA.

One of SDA's founders, Ellen G. White, ministered false teaching of the "Spirit of Prophecy," an identifying mark of the "Spirit of Prophecy," an identifying mark of the remnant church. White, whom Adventists recognize as the Lord's messenger, stated, "Writings are a continuing and authoritative source of truth which provide for the church comfort, guidance, instruction, and correction" (28 Fundamental Beliefs). SDA makes it clear that the Bible is the standard by which all teachings and experience must be tested. SDA does not keep God's Sabbath, Holy Day and Feasts command, and ignore, or re-write other commands and teachings, making them no better; and even worse than some faiths that choose the pagan Sun-day (sun worshipping day) for their day of worship.

Jehovah Witness

Whenever joining a new religion, the first thing I take note to, is how the faith I'm joining honors God's Sabbath and Holy Days and Feasts. This was no exception with Jehovah Witness (JW). From 1919 to 1937, the Watchtower Society published a magazine titled The Golden Age. The Golden Age is easily the most interesting as well as the strangest publication the Watchtower Society has been associated with to date. The main purpose of The Golden Age was to proclaim the supposed soon coming "Golden Age" or millennium on Earth and to point to evidence of its approach. The target audience for the magazine was not the International Bible Students (called Jehovah's Witnesses since 1931), but instead, the general public. Of course Bible students were the primary subscribers. The objective was to introduce Watchtower beliefs to the public through a more general newsmagazine than the theologically oriented Watch Tower. Bible student known as "Colporteurs" walked door-to-door carrying the magazine and leaving it with residents as it's done today with its successor, "Awake!"

While researching JW, I came across a Golden Age magazine from 1935. On page 358 of its March addition, it stated: "The Devil, of course, was the one who induced the ancestors of the present generation to name all the days of the week after heathen gods and goddesses." It was actually men who chose to follow pagan worship who created the Gregorian calendar, but JW was on the right path on page 358, until you reached page 380, where it stated: "For this reason the Watchtower introduced the 'Calendar of Jehovah God (see copy of calendar on next page).'" Eventually JW moved back to the Gregorian calendar, but the point is, I found myself in another faith who claimed to the true and correct faith, yet continues with Pagan worship like every other religion. JW prides itself on not taking part in Pagan holidays, which I had a deep appreciation for, but they don't honor God's Sabbath, Holy Days or Feasts. They've changed scripture and conduct their faith in ways instructed by men and not by God. Here's a photo of Charles Taze Russell's (the founder of the Jehovah's Witnesses) burial ceremony and associated stones.

Note: The pagan pyramid is emblazoned with the name "Watchtower Bible & Tract Society." Russell, like Joseph Smith Jr. (founder of Mormonism) and preacher William Miller (founder of Seventh-day Adventist) was a 33rd degree Freemason. There were several Freemason men who tried creating new religions in America but these three men were most successful. The motivation behind a Masonic Order member creating a religion, was to simply find away to turn masses of ignorant and unaware people, away from God. The secrets of Freemasonry/Luciferian will be greatly exposed in Book-3.

Let's take a look at these two symbols. The picture on the left is the cover of the recent book (1999) by Tim LaHaye called, The Power of the Cross. The one on the right is a centuries old Masonic symbol. Some might mistake it for a Christian symbol, but Masonic author Ray Denslow reveals its true meaning in his book, Masonic Portraits (page 7 volume #29) stating: "The Cross and Crown may be said to be confined almost exclusively to the historical degrees in Masonry as exemplified in the various orders of knighthood of York and Scottish rites. In Gaul we find the cross to have been a solar symbol when it had equal arms and angles; to the Phoenicians it was an instrument of sacrifice to their god, Baal; and to the Egyptians, the crux ansata was his symbol of eternal life."

Masonic authority Albert Pike also wrote of the meaning of the above symbol in his book Morals and Dogma, explaining that it has a sexual connotation Stating: 'The 'Cross' of Freemasonry is a philosophical cross, according to Albert Pike, 'Morals and Dogma,' page 771. It is philosophical in the sense that it represents the generating fecundating principle by the perpendicular shaft [Phallus], and the matrix of womb of nature, the female producing principle [Female Vulva], by the horizontal shaft. The philosophy of the Masonic cross is totally phallic. The 'Crown' of this Masonic emblem is also phallic, phallic, it being the first emanation of the Cabalistic Sephiroth ..." (C.F. McQuaig, The Masonic Report, Norcross, Georgia, Answer Books and Tapes, 1976, page 34). In the older publications, as seen above, this philosophical cross and crown appeared proudly on every cover. Today, the cross and crown have been removed from the Watch Tower covers. S. JW members believe they are above other pagan faith, but they too belong to a religion saturated in pagan worship, and pagan ideologies. Most "Witnesses" are not aware that the name "Jehovah," derived from the Judaism initials, "I.H.V.H." It was pronounced, IAHOVAH. This is one of Satan's secret names, commonly used by Freemasons and high members of the Jewish faith. The "Cross of the Freemasons, the pyramids, watchtowers and secret name of Satan, are all the ingredients of a religion created by a Masonic member. Their god is Lucifer, and it's not a big secret. Anyone can verify, with light research on the matter.

Islam

When I began my two-years of research on the Muslim faith and traditions, I was quite confident that this would be the religion for me. I endured a sense of ignorance in correlating Ancient Hebrews with today's men of Islam from the Middle East. Whether or not these men are true descendants of great men of the past, everything that was taught by renowned men from the Old Testament, and by God, has been overshadowed by previous pagan traditions that originated in Babylon.

For several years, members of this faith told me, "Unlike the Bible, the Holy Qur'an had never been rewritten with the exception of being translated into the English." I was very excited to read and possibly decode the Qur'an. To my surprise, scriptures had been re-written (not according to the Exodus), which led me to Vatican City, and parts of the Middle East where I confirmed how Islam was secretly created, as illustrated earlier in this chapter.

By the time spring came during my first year of studies, I noticed that none of the Muslims were preparing for Passover. When I asked my Arab mentor why, he said, "Jesus is the god of the Christians." I told him, "God instructed Passover before Christ and Muhammad, to Moses." This was the first time that I learned the first time that I learned about Ramadan. Ramadan takes place during the 9th month of the year in the Islamic calendar. Fasting is required from sunrise to sunset, and is carried out for 30-days. This meant that Muslims were ignoring God's Sabbath and other commands as the Christians do. To my disappointment, this was the last religion I had considered Holy before my extensive research. I was now convinced that there were no religions on the face of this Earth that honor God today. Instead, we are saturated with religions that honor Pagan gods and men.

The Arabs are Pagan worshippers just like every religion I investigated. They worship the moon god, "Allah," by praying toward Mecca several times a day; making a pilgrimage to Mecca; rotating around the temple of the moon-god called the Ka'aba; kissing the black stone; killing an animal in sacrifice to the moon-god; throwing stones at the devil; fasting for the month that begins and ends with the crescent moon and much more.

The Muslims do only worship one god but this does not prove that the god they worship is the True God. A similar pagan "Reformation" occurred in ancient Egypt when Pharaoh Akhenaton decided to become a monotheist by making the sun god Aton the one and only true god of Egypt, persecuting and outlawing worship of all the other gods of his nation.

There are four interesting parallels with Islam compared to Akhenaton: (a) Akhenaton made the male sun-god the one and only god of Egypt, while (b) Muhammad made the moon-god the one and only god of the Arabs. Neither god remotely resembled our true God. Both gods being pagan deities borrowed from polytheistic religions. And there is a third parallel: (c) Though technically monotheistic, in practice Akhenaton remained a god himself though never calling himself a "god," Muhammad certainly accrued many of the attributes of godly power as we shall see in subsequent articles. Finally, (d) Akhenaton used as a symbol for his god the Ankh Cross consisting of a solar disk atop a Tau cross, while Muhammad retained (for Islam) the pagan crescent moon symbol of the moon-god, Allah.

Allah existed long before Muhammad was conceived. Ka'aba was the home to 360 idols. One of these idols was the Moon god. He was considered to be the most powerful of the gods of the Arab world. He had many names, but was often called, "Al-ilah," which translates to "The-god." The poets called him, Allah. It's a known fact that Ka'aba used to be called, "The House of Allah" before Muhammad was born. Allah was known as the chief god of Ka'aba.

The idols were called the daughters of Allah and intercessors in pre-Islamic times. Allah's symbol was the crescent moon. I showed several examples of these crescent moons previously in the Catholicism section of this chapter. Allah was a god that was worshipped by Muhammad's Quaraysh tribe. According to the Encyclopedic Dictionary of Religion, "The Quaraysh tribe to which Muhammad belonged to, was devoted to Allah, but allowed worship of other gods in the Ka'aba until Muhammad removed them." Muhammad's father was named Abdallah meaning, "The servant of Allah." His uncle was named Obied-Allah.

According to John Van Ess' 1943 book, Meet the Arab (page 29), Van Ess states, "In pre-Islamic days, called the Days of Ignorance, the religious background of the Arabs was pagan, and basically animistic. Through wells, trees, stones, caves, springs, and other natural objects man could make contact with the deity... At Mecca, Allah was the chief of the gods and the special deity of the Quraish, The Prophet's Tribe." Allah had three daughters named al-Lat, al-Uzza and Manat.

According to Samuel Zwemer in his book, Muhammad is Mecca, Zwemer writes: "But history establishes beyond the shadow of a doubt that even the Pagan Arabs before Muhammad time, knew the chief god by the name of...ilah is used for any god and Al-ilah (contracted to Allah, i.e., the god), was the name of the supreme. Among the Arabs this term denoted the chief god of three hundred and sixty idols...As final evidence, we have the fact that centuries before Muhammad the Arabian Ka'aba, the temple at Mecca, was called Beit Allah, the House of God..."

Pastor G.J.O Moshay makes a good point in his book, "Who Is This Allah" (page 134), "Historians like Vaqqidi have said Allah was actually the chief of the 360 gods being worshipped in Arabia at the time Mohammed rose to prominence. Ibn Al-Kalbi gave 27 names of pre-Islamic deities...Interestingly, not many Muslims want to accept that Allah was already being worshipped at the Ka'ba in Mecca by Arab pagans before Mohammed came. Some Muslims become angry when they are confronted with this fact. But history is not on their side. Pre-Islamic literature has proved this." Even my Arab mentor became upset on several occasions when I asked certain questions pertaining to the matter.

In Ibn Warraq's book, Why I Am Not A Muslim, he writes on page 39 about "Hubal," and who he really is, stating: "Hubal was worshipped at Mecca, and his idol...Hubal's position next to the black stone suggests there is some connection between the two..." Wellhausen thinks that Hubal was originally the black stone...Wellhausen also points out that god is called 'Lord of the Ka'aba,' and 'Lord of the Territory' of Mecca in the Koran. The prophet railed against the homage rendered at the Ka'aba to the goddesses Allat, Manat, and Al- Uzza, when the pagans called them the daughters of God, but Muhammad stopped short of attacking the cult of Hubal. From this, Wellhausen concludes that Hubal is none other than Allah, 'The god' of the Meccans."

The Dictionary of Islam surprisingly states: "Its remarkable that there in no distinct allusion to the idol [Hubal] in the whole Quran."

Muhammad's grandfather had vowed to sacrifice his son to Allah if he granted him protection from his enemies. After he assumed the protection was granted, he cast lots to see which son he should sacrifice. The lot fell on Abdallah, Muhammad's father. As he prepared to slaughter him, people began to complain. After consulting a sorceress, it was decided that several camels could be sacrificed instead. From that time on, Abdallah was dedicated to Allah, and when he grew up, he fathered Muhammad (Muhammad's true story can be found earlier in this chapter under the Catholicism section titled, "Vatican: Creating Islam and the Qur'an." In this transparent photo to the right, we can see the interior of the Ka'aba. "Some Muslims are more willing to believe that the Stone itself has some supernatural powers. They believe that this stone fell from the sky during the time of Adam and Eve, and that it has the power to cleanse worshippers of their sins by absorbing them into itself. They say that the Black Stone was once a pure and dazzling white and it has turned black because of the sins it has absorbed over the years. The Black Stone is in fact the cornerstone of the Ka'aba and is there as an emblem of the progeny of Abraham which was rejected by the Israelites and became the corner stone of the Kingdom of God."

My Muslim mentor was a woman (Aakifah). I picked her after my first male mentor (Mohammed) became so frustrated with me in my "Search for Spiritual Truth," he stopped taking my calls. The large photo above is the same photo I showed Mohammed during my last visit with him. I told him, "I see stone, and masses a block of stones, and masses of people drawn toward that stone in prayer and worship. That's stone worship and this angers our CREATOR." Mohammed said, "My friend, it angers me that you are seeking the one true religion to join and yet you are still comparing the Qur'an to your Bible. You must decide, either you adhere to my teachings and my guidance, or you go back to your country as a Christian!" Seeing his body gesture and his frustrated tone, I asked, "What makes your Prophet Muhammad better than that of Christ?" Mohammed responded, "My Prophet was perfect." I quickly responded, "No he wasn't." and Mohammed said, "Then why are you here!" he stormed out as I tried to prove to him, according to the Qur'an, Muhammad was not perfect. He never returned my calls.

In reality, Muhammad wasn't a perfect man. According to Qur'an scripture, he was only a man. In Sūrah 18:110, and in other parts of the Qur'an, Muhammad is commanded by Allah: "Say, I am but a man like yourselves." No where in the Qur'an is Muhammad said to be sinless. Instead, Allah tells Muhammad that he is no different than any other man. I continued my studies with Aakifah, because as a woman, she was more emotional to my needs of seeking out the truth of all religions. But after eight months of studying with her, she too, became frustrated with me. In a very soft tone, she said, "It seems like you spend more time trying to find fault in Islam, than you trying finding favor in Allah." I told her she was absolutely right. I explained, in order for one to except a religious faith, one must make sure that that "Faith," was fully observing God's Commands. I told her the easiest way for a person to investigate any faith, is not by following the crowd belonging to a particular faith, but yet seek out the faults first, before excepting and fellowshipping with the crowds.

I explained to Aakifah that I wasn't trying to dishonor her faith, but yet, strengthen my own. I explained to her that Muhammad shouldn't have removed their secret (meteorite) stones from Mecca, and by not doing so, he changed the spiritual worship of all arabs to pagan stone worship. Offended, Aakifah said, "We are not stone worshippers, you have already pick your christian religion as your faith and that's why you speak as they do." I replied, "Aakifah, I have studied words of God that are non existent to modern man. I have traveled in desolate places in search of truth, not for just me, but for all of mankind to see what I have discovered, as being the true way to serve, and worship God." I realized that for three decades starting when I was 10 years old, I have frustrated every man and women who tried to prove to me that their faith was the right faith. The one thing that every faith has in common, is that they all unknowingly serve Satan in some way shape or form. I've been guilty of this myself. For example, I would hang Christmas lights every year on my house to stop the neighbors from complaining that my house is too dark during Christmas. Therefore I turned my back on God, with such an act. I accepted a Valentines gift from a significant other one year, so that I wouldn't offend her by not accepting her gift. There again, I turned my back on God, and it feels awful, especially when you know the truth about things.

Mohammed and Aakifah, both eventually stop their relationship with me. I was sadden by this because I failed at truly being able to articulate myself on the matter of "Stone-worshipping." This sadness prompted me to write a section in this book to all of my Islam Brothers and Sisters, who are willing to listen to the Qur'an teachings from a man who was not born in the faith, and stands outside of the "Black Box" looking in. True Islam should derive from the teaching of God and not from the traditions or cultures of Muslim people, for these cultures are manmade and despicable in God's Eyes according to both the Qur'an and the Bible. Because I failed my dear friends (Mohammed and Aakifah) by articulating my "Worship argument," with Biblical scripture, I will not use any biblical scriptures for this section. This time, my "Worship argument," will be fully based on scriptures from the Qur'an.

According to a Quranic perspective, the simple meaning of the word 'Al-Ebadah' is the act of worship. To most people, the act of "Worship" is primarily the act of prayer and this would be by God's standard, incorrect or incomplete worship of the CREATOR. The Qur'an indicates that the act of worship is a much more profound concept than just the act of prayer. The words of God to His chosen prophet Moses were: "I am God, there is no god but Me, therefore you shall worship Me and observe the Salat (Sabbath) to commemorate Me" (20:14). These sacred words, which speak of worship and prayer independently, indicate that these two acts are not the same. If the act of worship was primarily an act of prayer and nothing else, God would not say "Worship Me" and "Observe the Salat." The word, "And," indicates that there is more to worship than just praying.

While as the "Contact Prayer" is a specific ritual decreed for specific times of the day, the act of worship on the other hand is an uninterrupted state of the mind, body and soul. It is an exalted spiritual level of existence and invaluable nourishment for our souls. Without the act of worship, consecrated exclusively to God alone, one is unable to attain true happiness. Our physical bodies (by merely submitting to God's will), are in a perpetual state of worship. All our body organs and tissues are ordained to function in a meticulous pre-ordained manner designed by God, which we have no control over; whatsoever. They are in a ceaseless state of submission to the will of God. But our souls on the other hand, are given the freedom of choice. If our souls choose the same route as our ordained bodies, harmony will be struck between body and soul, the reward of which will be true happiness. This would be a greater happiness than the Buddha would have ever comprehended, because it's a happiness that involves our CREATOR. On the other hand, if our souls are rebellious, unappreciative or egoistic and elect not to worship God, we will never attain true happiness no matter how much material fortune we may posses. This is so, because true happiness is not found in Earthly possessions. Happiness is a frequency (432 Hz) of peaceful worship to the CREATOR of all. It's completely perpetual unseen energy, and undeniable conscious of seeking God every waking day of our lives.

The Qur'an, being a fully detailed book, provides the believers with the answer to the questions: Whom should we worship? Whom should we not worship? and, how should we worship? But as you saw with my two friends Mohammed and Aakifah, most believers will be quite offended by the first question. They will say, "Of course we worship God!" However, the Qur'an indicates that human beings worships what, or whoever occupies his mind most of the time (i.e., women/men, money, and various objects). So instead of asking who we should worship, I will discuss what the Qur'an teaches, on who we are warned not to worship. Like Buddhism, and the scriptures from the Holy Bible, The Qur'an is a book filled with compelling knowledge on how we should live while alive on Earth.

Material Possessions

According to the Qur'an, here's a list of what we are not to worship:

If the only thing you think of is money and how to make money, if your mind is primarily occupied with issues like, "How much will I earn from this deal," or "What will I gain from this person," and if everything in your life is assessed in a material sense, then it is said that you worship money. If your business or your property distracts you from worshipping God, then you worship your possessions. The following verses all warn against such dangers:

Sūrah 18:42 (Al-Kahf) - This particular parable portrays the tale of the man who was so occupied with his garden to the extent of setting it up as an idol and arrogantly boasting about it to his friend saying that it will never cease to yield its crop. Consequently, God wiped it out as a punishment and a lesson for his idolatry. "So his fruits were encircled (with ruin). And he remained clapping his hands (with sorrow) over what had spent upon it, while it was all destroyed on trellises, and he could only say: 'Would that I had ascribed no partners to my Lord!'"

Sūrah 38:31-32 (Sad) - These verses are about Solomon and how his horses distracted him from worshipping God. "When there were displayed before him, in the afternoon, well trained horses of the highest breed [for Jihad (holy fighting in God's Cause)]. He said: 'I did love the good (these horses) instead of remembering my Lord (in my 'Asr prayer)' till the time was over, and (the sun) had hidden in the veil (of night)." Solomon did not commit idol worship, but he allowed material possessions to distract him from worshipping God. As a result of that he repented. Realizing that nothing should have distracted him from worshipping God, so he got rid of the horses.

Sūrah 24:37-38 (An-Nur) - In regards to worship, these verses gives a description of a righteous man in the sight of God. "Men whom neither trade nor sale (business) diverts from the Remembrance of God (with heart and tongue), nor from performing As-Salat (Iqamat-as-Salat), nor from giving the Zakat. They fear the day when hearts and eyes will be overturned (out of the horror of the torment of the Day of Resurrection). That God may reward them according to the best of their deeds, and add even more for them out of His Grace. And God provides without measures to whom He wills."

Ego

The Qur'an also warns against worshipping our own self. A person with a inflated ego is the one most prone to such behavior. They will idolize themselves and live in a permanent illusion of vanity. The following are examples of how Qur'an warns against this:

Sūrah 25:43 (Al-Furqan) - Have you (O Muhammad) seen him who has taken as his ilah (god) his own vain desires? Would you then be a Wakil ( a disposer of his affairs or a watcher) over him?

Sūrah 31:18 (Luqman) - The Quran states that to protect one's self against this danger we should always behave with modesty and humility. God does not like the conceited and egotistic: "And turn not your face away from men with pride, nor walk in insolence through the earth. Verily, God likes not any arrogant boaster."

Sūrah 4:36 (An-Nisa) - The close connection between worshipping God, alone, and being humble is also made evident in verse: "Worship God and join none with Him (in worship); and do good to parents, kinfolks, orphans, Al-Masakin (the poor), the neighbor who is near of kin, the neighbor who is a stranger, the companion by your side, the wayfarer (you meet), and those (slaves) whom your right hands possess. Verily, God does not like such as are proud and boastful."

Sūrah 62:6 (Al-Munafiqun) - In this narrative, we see an entire faith (Jews) worshipping themselves and their vanity and egotism deluded them into thinking that they were God's chosen race: "It is equal to them whether you (muhammad) ask for forgiveness or ask not forgiveness for them, God will never forgive them. Verily, God guides not the people who are the Fasiqun (the rebellious, the disobedient to God)."

Sūrah 2:94-95 (Al-Baqarah) - When I studied the Jewish Talmud, there was a section that stated only Jews are true human beings and Gentiles (everyone else) are the "Goyim" (cattle) who are on the level with cattle and other animals meaning only Jews experience Heaven (even though their "Heaven is here on Earth). But according to the Qur'an, it states: "Say to (them): If the home of the Hereafter with God is indeed for you specially and not for others, of mankind, then log for death if you are truthful. But they will never long for it because of what their hands have sent before them (i.e. what they have done). And God is All-Aware of the Zalimun (polytheists and wrong-doers)."

Objects

Perhaps the more familiar example in this category is the worship of stone and statue idols. Sadly, no particular religious group is innocent of such transgression. All throughout the Qur'an, God commands us to stay away from stone and altars, because they have no power to benefit or harm any one. The story of Abraham and the stone idols of his people, is a clear reminder of this issue. However, during my visit to the Ka'aba, I could see at one of its corners, Muslims from all over the world were pushing and shoving their way ferociously to get to what is called "The black stone," in order to touch and kiss it. The extraordinary thing about this event is that if you were to ask any of them: why are you kissing the stone, they will say because the Prophet kissed it! If you then ask why did the Prophet kiss it, you will not get any kind rational answer. But, could there be a rational answer to explain why any Qur'an follower should kiss and cherish a stone that can neither harm nor benefit any human? Do they think this stone will bless them in some way? More importantly, could a genuine prophet have total disregard for God's commands and continue kissing stones in a flagrant act of idolatry? The obvious answer is "No," and this is what I was trying to articulate to both of my Muslim mentors (Mohammed and Aakifah).

The Qur'an warns very strongly against any association with stone, altars or monuments stating:

Sūrah 21:62-67 (Al-Anbiya) - "They said: 'Are you the one who has done this to our gods, O Ibrahim (Abraham)?' [Ibrahim (Abraham)] said: 'Nay, this one, the biggest of them (idols) did it. Ask them, if they can speak!' So they turned to themselves and said: 'Verily, you are the Zalimun (polytheists and wrong-doers).' Then they turned to themselves (their first thought and said): 'Indeed you [Ibrahim (Abraham)] know well that these (idols) speak not!' [Ibrahim (Abraham)] said: 'Do you then worship besides God, things that can neither profit you, nor harm you? Fie upon you, and upon that which you worship besides God! Have you no sense?'"

In the world today, there are those who still worship such objects as statues, the sun, fire, stone, or even certain animals. All of these groups are promised great punishment in the Hereafter (beyond) according to the Qur'an, so how are the pagan practices of Islam any different, than that of what the despicable Catholics do? How is Islam any different from the despicable Jews, or idol worshipping Christians? How are they different from the Hindu, or Buddhism faith? The answer should be obvious. They are no different than the Jehovah Witness, Mormons, or Seventh-day Adventist. They are no different than any faith who worship anything or any person, next to God. The Ka'aba needs to be destroyed, just as the giant monuments of Buddha, the so-called, "Virgin Mary" and Jesus on a cross, at the mass of people and how the above, then below in order, we have Buddha, then Jesus, then the Queen of Babylon, then India, where they are praying to the Ganesh, and finally we see thousands of Jews praying to the "Wailing Wall," a wall that will not answer; a wall that will not walk or breath a single beth of air; a wall that sees not, the man standing and crying before it, as babies do. Mohammed, if my book finds you...: Muhammad was not perfect. Look at the picture above as confirmation, for it was he who started this blasphemous pagan ritual. A ritual that existed before his birth, as described earlier in the Catholicism section titled, "Vatican: Creating Islam and the Qur'an."

Sūrah 40:55 (Ghafir) - “So be patient (O Muhammad). Verily, the Promise of God is true, and ask forgiveness for your fault (sins) and glorify the praise of your Lord...” If Muhammad was perfect, he wouldn’t need to ask for forgiveness. He was a man of flesh and blood who made mistakes as we all do.

According to “Wikislam.” The word yoni is the Sanskrit word for “Vagina,” “Divine passage,” “Place of birth”, “Womb” (more as nature as a womb and cradle of all creations) or “Sacred temple.” The word also has a wider meaning in both profane and spiritual contexts, covering a range of meanings of “Place of birth, source, origin, spring, fountain, place of rest, repository, receptacle, seat, abode, home, lair, nest, stable” (Monier-Williams).

In classical texts such as Kama Sutra, yoni refers to a vagina. Vaginal worship is expressed in both Islam and Hindu traditions. It was a place where various deities were worshiped by the pagan Arabs. Among these deities were Allah, as well as his daughters, Al-Lat, Al-Uzza, and Manat. According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, the Ka'aba had 360 images. Traditional accounts mention that one of the deities among the 360 destroyed when the place was stormed, was that of Saturn. Another worshipped was the Moon, and yet another was called, Allah. That shows that in the Ka'aba the Arabs worshiped the nine planets in pre-Islamic days. In India, the practice of 'Navagraha' puja, was the worship of the nine planets, and is still in vogue. Two of these nine planets are Saturn and the Moon. In India the crescent moon is always painted across the forehead of the Siva symbols. Since that symbol was associated with the Siva emblem in the Ka'aba it was then stolen by Muslims and later grafted on the flag of Islam. Sexual and vaginal worship is popular in Catholicism, Islam, and Hinduism. As you can see in the Islamic symbols, the star (sun/phallus) is entering the crescent moon (womb), just as the sun (wafer) entered the crescent moon in the Catholic faith. These are sexual (faith) similarities.

A recent archeological find in Kuwait unearthed a gold-plated statue of the Hindu deity Ganesh. Most members of Islam are not aware that circling the Ka'aba seven times originated from Hinduism far before Muhammad was born. In ancient times, Ka'aba was a Hindu Temple during the reign of King Vikramaditya. There are King Vikramaditya inscriptions found in the Ka'aba in Mecca proving beyond doubt that the Arabian Peninsula formed a part of his Indian Empire. In the “Fire Sacrifice” of a Hindu wedding, the couple will complete a “Circumambulation” ritual, seven times.

Hinduism

Look above at how they serve their god. A god who can't walk through the crowd, and answer their prayers. Another god who can't speak, eat or write. A god who can't think or cause harm to anyone. They are worshipping an animal that does not exists. This scene imitates, Ka'aba, but instead of the black stones, a pink elephant with four arms, adorns the crowd. Hinduism also carries the Yoni (vagina) tradition. These last two photos are Yoni Altars that were set up for worship. Hindu culture has long celebrated the goddess and holds great admiration for the powerful and exotic nature of the feminine vaginal area.

Often Hindu statues and images do not hide the female body, but instead celebrate it, and include the body (and all of its 'parts') as a natural facet of the art itself. But the celebrations don't stop there. In Shaktism, the yoni is celebrated and worshipped during the Ambubachi Mela, an annual fertility festival held in June, in India, which attracts upwards of 100,000 (male and female) pilgrims per day. There is also Yoni Puja, a sacred ritual that goes back thousands of years and still practiced today, where many homes and temples create an altar to worship the Yoni as the source and seat of life as seen here. Hindus believe the Yoni is an abstract representation of the creative force that moves through the entire universe. Yoni is celebrated as the sacred, creative power of nature and represents (the goddess Shakti) divine feminine creative power. It has the power to create life.

Hinduism didn't originate as a religion. The word Hindu was originated as a geographical marker. Hindu derives from the Sanskrit word for river, Sindhu, from which the Indus River received its name. Sometime in the first millennium B.C., the Persians, who were then South Asia's closest neighbors, mispronounced Sindhu, and designated the land around the Indus River as Hindu. Over a thousand years later, in A.D. 712, the Muslims invaded the Indus Valley. To distinguish themselves, they called all non-Muslims, Hindus; the name of the land became, by default, the name of the people and their religion (Schoeps, 1966, page 148).

Christians, upon entering Hindustan (as it was then called), committed the same error of reduction. From their perspective, the indigenous people were all idol-worshipping pagans, so they christened the Indians Gentoo, a derogatory synchronization of "Gentile" and "Hindu." Thus the name Hindu originally was given by outsiders to denote a geographic territory, but through the encroachment of various other religious groups it came to encompass all native religions in South East Asia.

As the history of its name demonstrates, unity in Indian religion has been superimposed by outsiders, first by the Muslims, then the Christians, and much later by the British colonialists who through their censuses unintentionally reified the South Asian peoples under that banner. It has only been in the last couple of centuries that the Indian people have embraced the name Hindu as their own, though two Indians rarely use the word with the same meaning. Some scholars suggest that it is more appropriate to speak of "Hinduisms" than to risk giving off a false sense of unity.

The genesis of Hinduism is nearly as elusive as its contemporary definition. Unlike Islam, which began with Mohammed, or Judaism, which began with Moses, Hinduism has no founder, nor any traditional time or place of origin; it emerges from the jungle as a continually evolving religious system. Scholars debate the primary source of what would become the Hindu religion, though all agree that several cultures had an influence. Basham, Buitenen, and Doniger suggest that ancient Hinduism evolved from at least three antecedents: "An early element common to most of the Indo-European tribes; a later element held in common with the early Iranians; and an element acquired in the Indian subcontinent itself."

The oldest of these influences are the symbols and deities indigenous to the Indus valley, part of the ancient and abstruse Dravidian culture. Archaeologists date this magnificent society to the third millennium B.C., making it one of the oldest known civilizations. This early date also places the religion of the Indus over a thousand years before the writing of the Old Testament, in the time of the Patriarchal Age. If the archaeologists' dating is correct, the Indus civilization was established soon after the Tower of Babel incident. The archaeological sites along the Indus have revealed many terra-cotta figures resembling gods and goddesses in the Vedic literature, some of which are still worshipped. Though religious figurines abound, temples inexplicably are absent from the Indus cities. Because the Indus valley script has yet to be deciphered, much of the Dravidian culture and religion remains a mystery.

Some Christians wonder how the Hindu religion fits into the biblical narrative. As we saw earlier in Book-I, Islam grew out of Judaism and Christianity. Later in this chapter you will see how Buddhism derived from Hinduism; Hinduism is the only major religion lacking an adequate explanation as to its origin. No substantial texts exist beyond 1000 B.C., and the texts after 1000 do not contain narrative. The earliest of these is the Rig Veda, which is nothing but a collection of praise hymns to the gods rather than the record of a people as in the Bible. Unlike western cultures, which tend to view time as a linear progression, the eastern religions generally reckon time to be cyclical. As a result, they emphasize the eternal over the transient and historical. Scholars are able to piece together the earliest Indian religion only through archaeology, clues in the later texts, and by extrapolating from existing traditions.

emphasize the eternal over the transient and historical. Scholars are able to piece together the earliest Indian religion only through archaeology, clues in the later texts, and by extrapolating from existing traditions. Using these same resources, Christian scholars can reinterpret the available data so that the Hindu religion fits into a biblical scheme of world history. Reconstructing the ancient history of any civilization is tentative, however; and all such projects are educated speculations at best.

Bible believers would expect all civilizations to post-date the universal Flood, which destroyed every human save the family of Noah (Which was not true according to the Revelations of the Metatron). The peoples that sprang from Noah's sons then spread over the Earth, though the Bible is silent as to when and how (the true events can be found in the Revelations of the Metatron regarding this matter). Though it is possible that some colonies were established, the text indicates that most of the people stayed together in the land of Shinar, where they began construction on that fateful tower. The hubris of Noah's descendants kindled the wrath of God, Who, after He had confused their languages, "He scattered them abroad over the face of all the Earth" (Genesis 11:9). Josephus wrote that "Each colony took possession of that land which they lighted upon and unto which God led them; so that the whole continent was filled with them, both the inland and maritime countries." From this point the Old Testament records the history of the children of Abraham; the events of the rest of the world can be known only through secular history. We must try to trace the origin of Hinduism back to an original belief in the true God, a belief passed down from the progeny of Noah. In a passage particularly descriptive of the Indian religion, Paul argues that the ancient Gentiles knew God, but they did not "retain their knowledge of God," instead changing "The glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, birds and four-footed animals and creeping things" (Romans 1:28,23).

Evidence for the historical digression from the worship of the Jehovah god, to the worship of nature and nature-gods can all be found in the ancient texts and myths of South Asia. The earliest Hindu literature, the Rig Veda, speaks often of "The Creator," of "The One," a Great God over all the other gods. He is called Varuna, and is closely related to the Zoroastrian god Ahura Mazdā ("Wise Lord") and the Greek god Uranus (Ourania). Though an insignificant sea god in the current pantheon, Varuna was a prominent god in the ancient system, and the subject of many hymns in the Rig Veda. Zwemer writes that Varuna is "The most impressive of the Vedic gods. He is the prehistoric Sky-god whose nature and attributes point to a very early monotheistic conception." This god is an ethical god, capable of great wrath or merciful forgiveness of sins.

The myths of ancient Hinduism likewise contain echoes of the distant past similar of Genesis. There are several different, though not exclusive, creation myths in the Vedas (and even more in later literature), but in one of the earliest writings, Indra is the maker of all.

"Who made firm the shaking earth, who brought to rest the mountains when they were disturbed, who measured out the wide atmosphere, who fixed the heaven, he, O folk, is Indra" (Rig Veda II.xii.2).

This version of creation by a personal god is more similar to the Old Testament account than to later Hindu formulations. Hammer remarks, "In the early creation myth Indra was seen as the personal agent in creation, bringing existence out of non-existence. In later speculation the 'One God', described in personal terms, gives way to 'That One'—the impersonal force of creation" As time passed and the true God was forgotten, the creation myths became more fantastic, involving giant snakes and four-mouthed gods growing out of lotus flowers.

In addition to the creation myths, a story persists in the epic tradition (written between 300 B.C.-

In addition to the creation myths, a story persists in the epic tradition (written between 300 B.C.-A.D. 300) of a great flood. It was so great that “there was water everywhere and the waters covered the heaven and the firmament also” (Mahabharata III.clxxxvi). The hero of the story is Manu, who is analogous to Noah in the Hebrew story. One day a fish approached Manu and asked him for protection in exchange for a blessing (later tradition identifies the fish as the god Vishnu). Manu helped the fish, who gives him this warning:

The time for the purging of this world is now ripe. Therefore do I now explain what is good for thee! The mobile and immobile divisions of the creation, those that have the power of locomotion, and those that have it not, of all these the terrible doom hath now approached. Thou shall build a strong massive ark and have it furnished with a long rope. On that must thou ascend, O great Muni, with the seven Rishis and take with thee all the different seeds, which were enumerated by regenerate Brahmanas in days of yore, and separately and carefully must thou preserve them therein (Mahabharata III.clxxxvi).

Manu alone survived the great flood, and from him the world was repopulated. Etymological ties between the names “Noah” and “Manu” strengthen the connection between the Hindu story and the Genesis account. The evidence from India’s earliest literary traditions reveals that Hinduism is a corruption of true religion. Though for most of its existence Hinduism has been an extremely pluralistic religion—being influenced by several cultures originally, and later by surrounding religions (Islam, Buddhism, and Christianity), it appears to have grown out of monotheism. The renowned Sanskritist of Oxford, Max Müller, wrote:

“There is a monotheism that precedes the polytheism of the Veda; and even in the invocations of the innumerable gods the remembrance of a God, one and infinite, breaks through the mist of idolatrous phraseology like the blue sky that is hidden by passing clouds.”

So just how many gods are there in Hinduism? The answer could be “One, thousands and none.” Hinduism not being an organized theistic religion and without any Abrahamic religions type mandatory commandments, it is up to a Hindu what he wants to believe or disbelieve about our True God, religion and/or spirituality. What essentially binds Hinduism is the basic principle of underlying unity or oneness of all existence (and non-existence) that manifests in myriad ways, including God and deities. Sadly this was the most confused religion I’ve ever researched. They have no beginning origin and simply would incorporate religious traditions from whom ever attacked within their regions. Hinduism is commingled by multiple religions and pagan traditions. None that include, Almighty God.

Buddhism

Here again, we see a god who can't climb off the altar he sits on. Nor can he speak to the crowd below him. If a blaze was set to him, he would burn to ashes. Hinduism and Buddhism have many similarities and differences. Hinduism came around first and has no single founder. It means "original religion," because Indians believe that theirs is a religion that has been around since the beginning of mankind. Buddhism would later be developed as an offshoot of Hinduism. A Hindu prince, Siddhartha Guatama, who was spiritually troubled by the inevitable suffering found in a human's life, founded it. He became enlightened and sought to teach his followers the path to end this suffering. In Book- I I I base all of my secrets of suffering, from what I learned from the teachings of Buddha. Besides the Old Testament, Book I and II of Enoch, Keys of Enoch, Revelations of Metatron, The Teachings of Buddha was amongst my favorite readings and ideology. Buddha was not one with God but his teachings are most remarkable.

Since Buddhism was partially derived from Hinduism, there are naturally many similarities between the two religions. First off, both religions believe in the transmigration of souls and the cycle of births and deaths for each soul. Compassion and non-violence is emphasized in both Hinduism and Buddhism. They also both believe in the existence of gods or deities on different planes. Finally, "Desire" is considered the main cause for human suffering by both religions, which anyone will completely agree on when reading Buddha's examples.

While similar in some aspects, Hinduism and Buddhism also have some key differences. A main tenet of Hindu faith is the belief in the Vedas, (oldest of the sacred writings.) Buddhism does not accept the Vedas. Buddhists believe that all suffering is caused by desire and that the ultimate goal in life is to put an end to this suffering through proper living. Hindus instead have four chief aims: religious duty, wealth and material possessions, desires and passions, and salvation. Their ultimate goal is to escape from the cycle of birth and death. Hinduism also believes in the four stages or "Ashramas of life." Buddhism does not follow, and people can join the Order at any time depending on their spiritual preparedness. This faith was one of my favorites, but still, not a home for me as Buddhists are not one with God. Never-the-less, the tranquility and peace that resolved my issues of suffering, where well worth my studies in Thailand. I realized that when a man seeks wisdom and enlightenment, it appears without prejudice. I no longer desire, women and earthly possessions, or money. Even this book that I have written, is free to all of mankind. I offer my book as a gift from God to teach all who want to know the truth about religion, proper spirituality, life and the proper way to serve and worship our CREATOR. When asked, "What are your thoughts on God," Buddha replied, "I can't speak of what I don't know." This simple statement changed the aspect of worshipping God in Buddhism. Man must keep God's Commands, but should consider the teachings of Buddha. "The Secrets of Suffering," that is taught by Buddha, opens an inner calmness that allows man to suffer no more.

Judaism

Before joining the Jewish faith, I read The Torah. Its records are Genesis thru Deuteronomy. Scriptures of Christ do not exist in the Torah. The word "Torah" holds a complex understanding, because it can mean different things in different contexts. In its most limited sense, "Torah" refers to the Five Books of Moses, including: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. But the word "Torah" can also be used to refer to the entire Jewish bible (the body of scripture known to non-Jews as the Old Testament and to Jews as the Tanakh or Written Torah), or in its broadest sense, to the whole body of Jewish law and teachings.

The "Old Testament," only exists with the Jews. The books that Christians call the New Testament are not part of Jewish scripture. The Old Testament is known as, "Written Torah" or the "Tanakh," in the Jewish faith. Like Mormonism, I found it very difficult to infiltrate the depth of Judaism at first, then after the Torah, I began studying the mystical Kabbalah/Qabalah (which can be spelled with a K, C, or Q). There are two examples of Kabbalah that include, Kabbalah and The New Kabbalah. "Kabbalah" is a doctrine of esoteric knowledge concerning God and the universe, asserted to have come down as a revelation to the Sages from a remote past, and revelation to the Sages preserved only by a privileged few. It's considered part of the Jewish Oral Law. It is the traditional mystical understanding of the Torah. Kabbalah stresses the reasons and understanding of the commandments, and the cause of even events described in the Torah.

Early forms of Jewish mysticism at first consisted only of empirical lore. In the medieval era, it greatly developed with the appearance of the mystical text. It became the object of the systematic study of the elect. Most forms of Kabbalah teach that every letter, word, number, and accent of scripture contains a hidden sense. Since the late 19th Century, with the emergence of the Jewish Studies approach, the Kabbalah has also been studied as a highly rational system of understanding the world, rather than a mystical one.

The New Kabbalah is a philosophy and Jewish theology grounded in the union between traditional Jewish mysticism and modern rational thought. It seeks to uncover and further develop the philosophical and psychological significance of Kabalistic symbols and ideas. In addition, the New Kabbalah is enriched by comparative studies and dialog between Jewish mysticism and other religious and philosophical traditions, including Hinduism, Buddhism, Platonism, and Gnosticism.

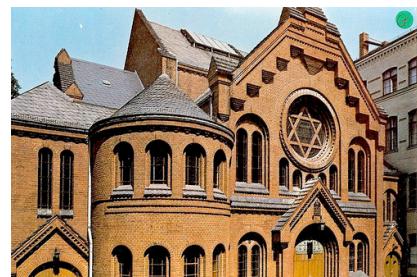

The New Kabbalah is born out of the conviction that the theosophical system of Luria and his followers promotes an open economy of thought, dialog and criticism while at the same time providing a coherent and comprehensive account of the world and humanity's role within it that is intellectually, morally and spiritually vital for us today.

I believe after studying Kaballahism, that once a pure and angelic form of teaching, it had become a gateway of fueling Satanism. I don't know if it was the Jews or some other group who perverted Kaballahism with a quiet satanic union, but Satanism does exist in today's Kabbalah faith. I began to visit Jewish synagogues globally to observe the traditions. I believed these people to be the descendants of Hebrews but I noticed that most of the synagogues I visited were filled with what appeared to be Anglo Saxon descendants and not descendants of Hebrew Nations.

The décor of these synagogues from the outside were adorned with hexagram windows. While in northeast China in a town called Harbin, I saw a synagogue that displayed crescent moons all around it. Just with the naked eye, I could tell no matter where I went that Satan had a very strong presence where the Jews gathered, just like I found in Catholicism.

Wailing Wall

Like the Muslims, the Jews have their version of stone worship. It's not a meteorite like in Mecca; instead it's a stonewall known as the "Wailing Wall." It's located in Jerusalem, and considered by both Jews and Muslims as a significant and holy site. The Muslims and Jews are within close proximity when they are worshipping in Jerusalem. The size of the people here also provides context for worshipping in Jerusalem. The size of the people here also provides context for how large the wall still is, and it's just a small portion of what was once here.

Because the Jews have monopolized both media and entertainment, if you're an African American, and demand to be on top in Hollywood, join the Jewish faith and conduct a photo op praying and crying at the Wailing Wall as R&B Singer/Actor, Tyrese Gibson, did. Most politicians', Jewish actors and Popes, visit the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem at some point in their career as a public appearance.

For the Jewish people, it is one of the last remaining portions of the ancient Temple of Solomon (an outer wall, in fact). The original length is estimated to have been around 485 meters; today what remains is just 60 meters long. The largest stone is 45 feet long, 15 feet deep, 15 feet high, and has an estimated weight of more than one million pounds.

No one seems to know when the Jewish stone worshiping traditions of offering prayers at the Wailing Wall began, but it is believed that this portion of the Temple was not destroyed because the Shekhinah (divine presence) is believed to continue its residency there. According to Jewish faith, praying there is like praying directly to God through the wall, but in actuality God despises this act in fullness. It's a manmade tradition and is not one of God's Commands. Deuteronomy greatly speaks against these types of pagan traditions stating: "And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell."

-Deuteronomy 4:28

"And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone." –Deuteronomy 28:64

Before it was called the Wailing Wall, it was simply called the Western Wall. It acquired the name "Wailing Wall" because of the nature of the prayers said there. In addition to spoken prayers, it is also common for prayers to be written on slips of paper (kvitlach) which are slipped into the cracks.

Tefillin

It's known as an act of unification, and it derived from a verse out of Deuteronomy.

"And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes." - Deuteronomy 6:8

It's interesting that this verse is honored as a commandment even though it came hundreds of years after the Ten Commandments, and yet it was interpreted in a way that holds sound tradition in the Jewish faith. By the time of Christ, many Jews interpreted Deuteronomy 6:8-9 in a very literal way. Four pieces of parchment, inscribed, the first with Exodus 13:2-10; the second with Exodus 13:11-16; the third with Deuteronomy 6:1-8; and the fourth with Deuteronomy 11:18-21, were enclosed in a square case or box of tough skin, on the side of which was placed the Hebrew letter (shin), and bound round the forehead with a thong or ribbon. Here's how it looks on the inside of a tefillin. When designed for the arms, those four texts were written on one slip of parchment. One of these scrolls was also placed in a small container called a

these scrolls was also placed in a small container called a "Mezuzot," and nailed the mezuzot to the right doorpost of their homes. We must not forget that Moses came from Egypt, so he was very accustomed to the practices there. The ancient Egyptians had the lintels and imposts of their doors and gates inscribed with sentences indicative of a favorable omen; and this is still the case today. In Egypt and other Mohammedan countries, the front doors of houses (in Cairo, for instance) are painted red, white, and green, bearing conspicuously inscribed upon them such sentences from the Koran, as "God is the Creator," "God is one, and Mohammed is his prophet." It appears that Moses was trying to change this pagan tradition into a custom that w tradition or custom that would better account to the words of God, opposed to former superstitious inscriptions. The ultimate goal was to make the people responsible for meditating on these commandments, to help imprint them in their hearts, minds and in the way they worked using their hand(s). It would able them to understand the Law and to apply it correctly. Here's how the tefillin is worn today.

After careful investigation, I realized that both the Ka'aba and the tefillin cube carry very similar resemblance. The Ka'aba in Mecca is a black cube. The tefillin (phylacteries) worn each day by the Children of Israel are also a black cube. Kabbalah explains that Jews wrap the tefillin around our left arm seven times, counter-clockwise, to bind our negative desire, our negative ego. The Zohar explains this is the secret of Abraham binding his son Isaac. It's taught that each Jew is required to sacrifice their ego for the sake of sharing with others and the tefillin act like an antenna that draws down a powerful spiritual force that negates and sacrifices the influence of their selfish nature.

Each year, Muslims go on a pilgrimage (Hajj) to walk around the Ka'aba in Mecca counter-clock wise, seven times. This is exactly how the Jews wrap and bind their tefillin counter-clockwise, seven times. The purpose of Hajj for Muslims is to connect to the same event of Abraham binding Issac (Muslims relate this to Abraham binding his son Ishmael). This is why the Ka'aba in Mecca is known as the House of Allah. Ka'ba and Allah, meshed together spells Ka'ballah. This extraordinary secret about the similarity between Hajj, Tefillin and the Ka'aba has always been hidden in plain sight as seen below.

Another interesting point is that the Ashkenazis started wrapping tefillin clockwise, instead of counter-clockwise. This was done so the connection between Ka'aba and Tefillin wouldn't be so apparent. Only the Sephardics (people who always embraced the Zohar and Kabbalah) continued the technique of wrapping the straps counter-clockwise. This Kabbalah connection is one of the reasons why Sephardics were protected by the Muslims throughout history, especially in Morocco during the Holocaust. Anyone is considered a Sephardic the moment they embrace the Zohar and path of Kabbalah.

Let's look at the Deuteronomy verse again, along with another verse in Deuteronomy verse, and truly analyze the true interpretation.

"And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes."

-Deuteronomy 6:8

“Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.”

-Deuteronomy 11:18

When reading these two verses it should not be interpreted as a literal act. We do not see instructions for creating a physical device to place on our head and arm; it's never mentioned. This is the point where biblical interpretation is wrongly understood. They are both parables. “Bind them for a sign upon thine hand,” means to use your hand(s) according to God's Commands. “Ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. This parable is clearly stating to keep God's Commands close to our soul, heart and mind.

“But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments...”

-Matthew 23:5

Christ was aware of these Pagan traditions, and that's why we see the verse above. Notice that He uses the word, "Phylacteries." In any dictionary, phylactery is defined as: "Judaism either of two small leather boxes, each containing strips of parchment inscribed with quotations from the Hebrew Scriptures, one of which is strapped to the forehead and the other to the left arm; traditionally worn by Jewish men during morning worship, except on the Sabbath and holidays."

Christ also stated, “But all their works they do for to be seen of men...” Public displays of worship are the very tradition of the Jewish faith as seen here with actor David Arquette, singer songwriter, Bob Dylan, "Mini-Me" actor, Vern Troyer along with others.

To this point, you have learned how Islam circles the Ka'aba seven times. You've learned how in the Hindu faith, they too circle their gods seven times. Now, in this section of Judaism, we have seen how the Jews are placing a black cube on their head, and wrapping their arms with a black strap seven times. These are all forms of Satanism, and most of the civilians who take part in these occult rituals, have no idea that what they do, angers God greatly. The seven-time circular motion in religious practice, represents the seven rings of Saturn. From far away, Saturn looks like it has seven large rings. Each large ring is named for a letter of the alphabet (A-G). The rings were named in the order they were discovered. The first ring discovered was named the "A-Ring," but it is not the ring closest to, or farthest from Saturn. Some of the rings are close together. Others have large gaps between them. The rings do not sit still. They circle around Saturn at very high speeds. A closer look shows that each large ring is made up of many small rings. The small rings are sometimes called ringlets. More rings and ringlets could still be discovered.

Think of it this way. Earlier in this book, I taught you the secrets of Christmas. Because you celebrated Christmas as a child, you may have fond memories and pass these traditions down to your children, and so-on. That's exactly how Satanism works. It's created in a way to dupe the masses into performing occult rituals that's found in 100% of every religion on earth, including satanic holidays. The true meaning behind these little black cubes or tefillin is that they are charms in an act of sorcery. Black cubes are common monuments that are normally positioned in front of large banks. I will explain the global cube monuments and their satanic origins and secret in Book-7, under the section, "Cube/Box Logos." In short, this is Saturn (Satan) worship. As you can see from the photo on the right, the north and south poles on the planet Saturn, hold a shape forming a hexagram. Now, relax your mind and eyes, and find the hidden cube within the hexagram. See it? Saturn= Satan. Notice below: Jewish arm, Hindu worship, and Islam worship. The motion of seven is an ancient occult ritual. It angers God.

Shin

When reading in Hebrew, one must read from right-to-left and not left-to-right, as we are accustomed to. The "Shin" is the lettering on the side of the tefillin that is the secret description of the Jewish god. When reading it from right-to-left, the shin letter is composed of three "Vav's" as illustrated between the three W's & 6's below.

WWW This glyph represents the numbers 6-6-6 (666) or Vav-Vav-Vav, according to the Hebrew number chart (seen below). Vav is represented three times on the side of the tefillin, but if you look closely, there's another glyph at the end of the three vavs (remember that we are viewing from from right-to-left, so the end glyph is at the far left). This glyph is called, "Zayin," (pronounced "ZAH-yeen"). A Zayin has a leg, head and crown. The crown area is called, "Tagin." The number "6" is the number of Satan according to Satanism, so in this sense, the "Crowned Vav" or crowned 6, would illustrate a crowned Satan standing before the number of man, (666). The Zayin is the seventh letter of the alphabet. It's a paradoxical word, since it means "Weapon" or "Sword," but it derived from a word that means, nourishment.

According to Kabbalistic texts, the Hebrew letters, "Shin," is known as The Eternal Flame. Regarding the letters the Kabbalistic texts state, "The letter SHIN appears engraved on both sides of the head, tefillin. On the right side, the shin possesses three heads [representing this world now], while on the left side it possesses four heads [the world to come]." Regarding the alphabet the Kabbalistic texts states, "SHIN vivifies all beings great or small. It is the COSMIC SNAKE or the COSMIC DRAGON. The shape of Shin is composed of three Vav's, placed next to each other, giving other, giving the number 666, which is the number of the Sun, and also of the Beast from the Book of Revelation of John. The number 666 is not evil as it is often thought, it is a number of mystery."

From my studies in Satanism, Catholicism, and both the Freemason and Skulls and Bones fraternities, I realized that all groups of evil account the numbers 6-6-6 as being mystical and mysterious but not evil. Here once again, we have a religion that embraces this number known as "The Mark of The Beast," and their traditions are all completely against, God's Commands. The Kabbalistic texts continues about the Shins of the Tefillin and Messianic Consciousness stating, "The DIVINE 4-headed shin of haSHEM ...This shin represents shin represents the changeless DARK ESSENCE – the DARK LIGHT corresponding to the love of the Land of Israel..." So in other words, the 4-head shin is "The Name" of their god representing the "Dark light and essence." In the Bible we were warned about this kind of light.

"Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness."

-Luke 11:35 (KJV)

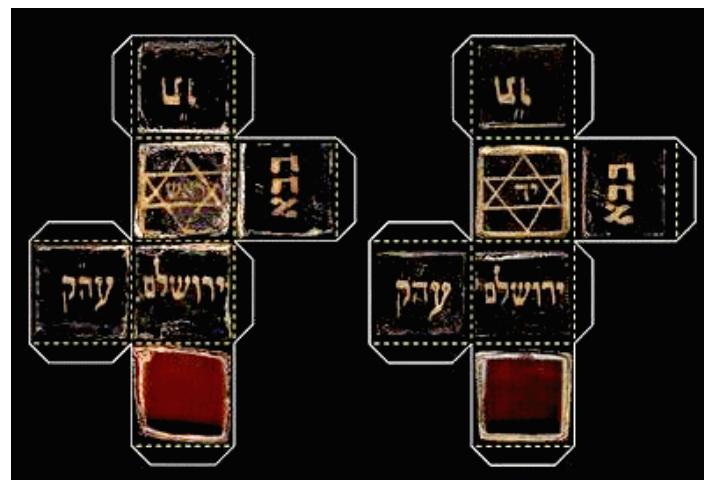

The Kabalistic process of 'Salvation sans Savior' concludes with this passage, which reads like the instructions for calculating TISHREI I:

"Attainment of SHABBAT CONSCIOUSNESS and the elevation of the mundane to the holiness of atzilut marks RECTIFICATION of the TREE of KNOWLEDGE [of GOOD and EVIL], enabling unification of truth with favor THROUGH KNOWLEDGE – ushering into every malchut the MESSIANIC CONSCIOUSNESS of echad."

This means by acquiring the magical mystery knowledge (Gnosticism), one may ascend up the "Tree" towards the unknowable wisdom, until they have attained Messianic consciousness without the help of God or Christ. This is an area known as the forth dimension (which I've studied greatly and will elaborate on throughout these 11 books) and it's more of a paradise garden created by Satan. One could experience this forth dimension through chanting like the Buddhist, chanting in a dance around fire like the North American Indians did, drinking a potion as the African's do, sucking a particular tree root as the Amazonian's do, or by taking an hallucinogen drug like LSD as the Americans and other nations do. It's a paradise forest/garden that is forbidden, and come with great knowledge while opening a gateway to demonic manipulation. You are simply selling your soul to the devil in return for great knowledge, great wealth, great power, and/or fame. This method is avid in the "Entertainment community."

The tefillin, with its 6-6-6-shin impression, are clearly an "Anti-Messiah" or Antichrist device. The enlightenment that one wishes to pose by anchoring a tefillin to his or her head, is worthy of the Prince of Darkness in the appearance or custom of, "Lucifer the Light-Bringer," or as known by the Pope and Freemasons as, "Lucifer the Lightbearer."

Here's a photo of the inner sides of a six-sided unfolded tefillin. In Book-4 you will learn the difference between real Jews and fake Jews. Real Jews are descendants of Israelites (these are brown and black people). The fake Jews carry no Israelite blood and are from Eastern Europe and they believed in all that is despicable to God. A hexagram is associated with these "Fake Jews." Notice the hexagram inside the tefillin used to "Hex;" "Six," or "Charm" evil demonic powers to accomplish the intended prayer. You should now have a complete understanding of the satanic application of the black cube ritual. It invokes the forces of the "Cosmic Dragon" known as Satan through the symbolism of the Mark of the Beast "666" Gematria.

The satanic Freemasons have their cube version called, "The stone cube." Show pic. It opens into a cruciform shape to reveal hidden symbols. Viewed in the open position, with the "East" at the top, it displays the positions of the Master and Wardens, their jewels of office, the Bible in the center on its alter, the pillars and other symbols of the Lodge and the Degrees.

Closed, it represents the man who is educated about the Craft and keeps the symbols and secrets, sacred within him. This Kabalistic form of prayer comes from the Ritual of the Hexagram, used in witchcraft and astrology to summon the intelligences of the seven planetary spirits (demons).

God calls these impersonating Jews, "Synagogue of Satan," in Revelations 2:9, and it's now apparent why He made this statement, but God's statement is much deeper and I will illustrate the entire secret truth about the Jews in Book-4, "The Illuminist Art of War."

In 1976, Walter White, Jr. conducted an interview with a young Jewish man named, Harold Rosenthal who was the assistant to Senator Javits of New York (which I will elaborate on at the end of Book-8). In the interview, later published as "The Hidden Tyranny," the arrogant Rosenthal belligerently boasts (on tape) that the Jewish people have fabricated certain "Falsehoods, which work to conceal their nature and protect their status and power." Rosenthal goes on to debunk the commonly accepted lie that, "The Jews are Israelites, and thus God's chosen people." Rosenthal said in part: 'Most Jews do not like to admit it, but our god is Lucifer, so I wasn't lying, and we are his [Lucifer] chosen people. Lucifer is very much alive.'"

The deeper my research the more I found out that Jewish faith is a sham just like Catholicism. Their traditions are deep dark secrets that ultimately lead to Satanism or what they call, "Luciferian teachings."

Bright Light

In most Jewish synagogues, a bright burning flame represents their god. The Hebrew word for Lucifer is "Hillel" meaning "Bright light." Curiously, this is the name chosen for the Jewish student organization. The Jewish six-pointed star is the highest symbol in the occult and goes under various names such as the names such as the Star of Moloch, Saturn, and Remphan. The Hebrew symbol וְוִרִיְתָּחַדְ found the necks of many Jews ostensibly symbolizes "Life" (L'Chaim) as seen in this necklace photo. The word literally translates to a "Living thing" or "Beast;" meaning this וְוִרִיְתָּחַדְ symbol is an idol for "The Beast" (Satan). In the photo to the left, we have what's called a "Tetragrammaton." Just by looking at this, you can see over a dozen Pagan symbols that are the same symbols found in Satanism and Druidism. The Jewish name for god is represented by the tetragrammaton (YHVH) translated as Yahweh, or Jehovah. The significance of God's name is repeatedly emphasized throughout the scriptures.

If we dissect in Hebrew, the true definition of Jehovah (Yah-Hovah) is revealed. "Yah" means "god." "Hovah" translates to "Eagerly coveting, falling, desire, ruin, calamity, iniquity, mischief, naughtiness, noisome, perverse, very wickedness." Jehovah is the god of wickedness, also known as Satan, Lucifer, and "Lucifer the Lightbearer."

Uttering God's Name

In Book-8, I will reveal God's true name as he spoke it to Moses. He did not say, "I AM THAT I AM." However, Jews claim that this name (YHVH) is not to be spoken aloud. This is an act completely opposite to what God delivers to us in His teachings. This is what the Almighty God says about His name.

"And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth."

-Exodus 9:16

God wanted us to speak his name everywhere in the world. I found that Judaism very subtly corrupts otherwise good commandments by adopting false practices. By this prohibition against uttering God's name, the Jews subtly suggest they know god's name and that it is secret knowledge that can only be had if you take up the Cabala. Masonry also uses this kind of ploy to entice initiates.

Christian churches teach Jewish doctrine which prevents God's name from being known and/or glorified, but later in Book-8 you will learn what will no longer be a secret, and I asked everyone to pass God's "True" name along to everyone you know and don't know.

The Jews have plenty of other names for Satan that they use openly. They are mostly titles that translate to Lord (which is another name for Baal the Satan the Adversary). All the major pagan gods' names are names for Satan (you should read "The Two Babylons" by Hislop, his work is referenced several times in this book). Satan is the author of confusion and goes by many names. As long as you are praying to someone or something other than the Almighty God, Satan has succeeded.

The name Yahweh is reserved for Cabalistic practice. Cabalism is a mystery religion not intended for the mainstream. The promise of secret knowledge is used as bait to get followers (cult members) who will pay money, just as it's done in Freemasonry and Scientology.

The mainstreams Jews, like the mainstream Catholics, are left in the dark regarding the acts of Satanism that is common knowledge amongst their leaders behind closed doors. The name Yahweh is very prominent in Witchcraft and the name Jehovah is very prominent in Masonry and Catholicism, so if the Jews spoke Yahweh or Jehovah, it would openly attach them to these other groups. This might result in some serious questions from the Jews of the congregation.

The Black Magician and Satanist invoke demons by name. In the Satanic Bible, Anton LaVey provides an extensive list of "Infernal names" that, when summoned, provide the practitioner with super human abilities namely intelligence, power, skills in manipulation, enhanced creativity, material wealth, and the satisfaction of diverse lusts. I will not share these names, as it is inappropriate in the Eyes of God, and useless in spiritual society.

Jewish Prayer

Barbara Honigmann, a prominent Jewish writer, explained in 2007 that the concept of "Religion" is unknown within Judaism and that there is no distinct religious denomination:

"Judaism has no word for 'religion.' Neither as a word nor as a concept. However, Judaism knows also superstitious spiritualists and stupid fundamentalists."

-Die Welt, Germany, May 5, 2007, (page 1)

According to Andrew Carrington Hitchcock's book, "The Synagogue of Satan" (page 1), Jewish prayers are conducted in Yiddish, a composite language far from the intended pronunciation of the original Hebrew. The prayers in modern synagogues are nothing more than disguised demonic invocations. They are hypnotic spells, similar to the Enochian language of the Church of Satan. Jews are invoking demons named adonai, elohim, el shaddai, et, and al, in their rituals.

Vain repetitions and head bobbing during Jewish prayers aid the entrance into a trance state. Large numbers of atheistic Jews engage in the pseudo-religious worship of status and knowledge.

According to Bill Cooper, in his book "Behold A Pale Horse" (page 70), he writes, "The WORSHIP (a lot different from STUDY) of knowledge, science, or technology is Satanism in its purest form, and its god is Lucifer." Judaism fills its members with the same satanic powers as the Church of Satan and Freemasonry.

Kabbalahism

The foundation of Kabbalahism is identical to Satanism: the reversal of the roles of God and Satan. It is the pursuit of hidden (occult) knowledge, which allows one to achieve god-like abilities by calling on the so-called names of god. These are the names of fallen angels/demons/spirit guides who are the gatekeepers to occult knowledge.

While not all Jews actively practice Kabbalah, they all accept the highest Kabbalahistic name as their god, Yahweh (Jehovah.)

Satanist, Aleister Crowley, in his book, "The Book of Thoth" (page 43) writes:

"There are thus 72 "Angels"...these [names] are derived from the 'Great Name of god'...The 'Name' is Tetragrammaton: I.H.V.H., commonly called Jehovah. He is the Supreme Lord of...the whole Universe."

Author, Roger Hathaway, in his book, "Sacred Name of God? Or Blasphemy" writes:

"Of the 54 sacred names in the Jewish Kabbalah, the primary one is YHWH"

Author, Issac Leeser in his online forum titled, "The Jewish creed," states:

"Our Lord is One,' so why do they invoke these other names?"

It's should be clear to you now that the root to the Jewish faith is the secret worship of Satan.

Demonology

The secret of the ancient Egyptians, and their modern disciples known today as "The Freemasons," rest the art of demonology for gaining power mainly through the devil, they call Jehovah.

In chapter four of Texe Marrs' book, "Codex Magica," Marrs states:

"In the Royal Arch degree, the Freemason acknowledge[s] that the devil, in the guise of Jahbuhlun, is his sacred Lord--the name Jahbulun being a composite of Jahweh, Baal, and Osiris. He chants 'Jah-buh-lun, Jah-buh-lun, Jah-buh-lun, Je-hov-ah.'"

Albert Pike discusses the Cabalistic/Masonic significance of IAHOVAH in great length in Morals & Dogma on pages 66, 213, 401, 467, and 519.

YHVH was a name injected into the text of the Old Testament by the Pharisees and others who practiced Babylonian Satanism (the precursor to Kabbalahism and Talmudism). An agreement was forged between the Jewish Masoretes and the Catholic Church 1000 A.D. to change the name of God in the Hebrew Old Testament to the pagan name Yahweh/Jehovah via the tetragrammaton.

This explains Harold Rosenthal saying, "We are amazed by the Christians' stupidity in receiving our teachings and propagating them as their own."

In Henry Ford's stated: "The Christian cannot read his Bible except through Jewish spectacles, and, therefore, reads it wrong." -The International Jew, (Vol. IV, 238)

Notice the book that George Bush is carrying in this photo. It's a book of pure hate. It's called "Talmud," and this is what it looks like (below). When I began my research in the Judaism faith, I started by reading the Torah. It was more of an incomplete bible, but the Talmud Bavli is the real sinister doctrine from the Jews. Scribes of this book was completed in roughly 500 A.D. It is a written version of what had long been the Jews' oral tradition, which was the tradition that Christ that Christ condemns in the 23rd chapter of Matthew and other parts of the New Testament. Will Newman stated that the Talmud could never be a source of historic and homiletic keys to understand the Messiah because of what is written about Christians and non-Jews in this evil doctrine. Below is a brief example of what hateful doctrines are found in a Talmud:

1. THE TALMUD HATES SCIENCE:

- Hyenas turn into bats after seven years, and later on turn into thorns and demons (Baba Kamma, 16a)

- Being naked in front of a lamp causes epilepsy (Pesahim, 112b)
- There's medicinal value in dirt found in an outhouse's shadow, also in a white dog's excrement (Gittin, 69a, b)

2. THE TALMUD HATES FEMALES:

- The birth of a girl is an unhappy event (Baba Bathra, 16b)
- It is never good to talk too much to women including one's own wife (Aboth, 1.5)
- All women are "temperamentally light-headed" (Kiddushin, 80b)
- It is okay to divorce your wife if she spoils your food, or if you find a more beautiful woman (Gittin, 91a)

3. CHILD PEDOPHILIA IS ALOUD BY JEWS:

- All Gentile (Non-Jewish) children are animals (Yebamoth 98a)
- Gentile (Non-Jewish) girls are in a state of filth (niddah) from birth (Abodah Zarah 36b)
- When a grown-up man has intercourse with a little girl it is nothing (Kethuboth 11b)
- A Jew may marry a three year old girl (specifically, three years "And a day" old) (Sanhedrin 55b)
- It is lawful for a girl three years old to have sexual intercourse (Abodah Zarah, 37a; Kethuboth, 39a; 55b, 69a, b; Yebamoth 12a, 57b, 58a, 60b)
- A Jew may have sex with a child as long as the child is less than nine years old (Sanhedrin 54B)
- When a man commits sodomy with a boy under nine years of age, it "Is not deemed as pederasty" (Sanhedrin, 54b, 55a)
- Sexual intercourse with a boy under the age of eight is lawful since it isn't fornication (Sanhedrin, 69b)

4. THE TALMUD HATES ALL NON-JEWS:

- Since all Gentiles are only animals, all Gentile children are bastards (Yebamoth, 98a)
- When a non-Jew robs a Jew, he has to pay him back, but if a Jew robs a non-Jew, he doesn't have

- When a non-Jew robs a Jew, he has to pay him back, but if a Jew robs a non-Jew, he doesn't have to pay him back. Moreover, when a Gentile kills a Jew, the Gentile must be killed, but when a Jew kills a Gentile, "There is no death penalty" (Sanhedrin, 57a)
- It is okay to "use subterfuges" in a court of law in order to cheat a non-Jew (Baba Kamma, 113a)

5. THE TALMUD HATES CHRIST AND CHRISTIANS & ALL NON-JEWS:

- Jesus was born a bastard (Jewish Encyclopedia, "Jesus;" Yebamoth, 49b)
- Mary, the mother of Jesus, was a whore and "Played the harlot with carpenters" (Sanhedrin, 106a, b)
- Jesus "Practiced sorcery and enticed Israel to apostasy" (Sanhedrin, 43a)
- Jesus was punished and sent to Hell where he ended up in "Boiling hot excrement" (Gittin, 56b, 57a)
- Christians will go to Hell "And be punished there for all generations" (Rosh Hashanah, 17a)
- Those who read "The works of the Judeo-Christians, i.e., the New Testament," will end up in Hell (Sanhedrin, 90a)
- The books of the Christians "May not be saved from a fire, but they must be burnt in their place, they and the Divine Names occurring in them" (Shabbath, 116a)

When comparing today's Jewish traditions to today's Catholic traditions, I couldn't come to a conclusion of which faith is worse. My hypothesis in the matter, allows me to draw a conclusion that both of these faiths are still worse than Satanism ten folds over. There are over a million Satanists in the world who join satanic occult groups to worship Satan. But there are billions of Catholics, Jews and Muslims who have no idea of the satanic nature of their faith. They are manipulated at birth into an unseen satanic culture that is passed down from generation-to-generation. Growing members, who advance in their faith, never take the time to observe traditions and challenge the faith of wrongdoing, because they fear of what others might think. If mankind could but only loose, or subdue his fear; an awakening of enlightenment will take over spiritually allowing man to see the truth of the real world, "Satan's, Earth."

It is clear to me today that all faiths in the world honor Satan, by not keeping the commands of God our CREATOR. This make all faiths equal, in that none are better or worse, but more so, share the same defiance in not honoring, or keeping God's command.

The “Kol Nidre” Oath

Jewish prayer books hold the Kol Nidre (“All Vows”), to be the most solemn of all prayers of the Jews. It is sung in the synagogue three times as the first ritual of Yom Kippur which is the holiest day of the Jewish New Year. It permits Jews to disavow in advance all promises, oaths, or sworn statements they may make to Gentiles (“Non-Jews”) during the coming year. This is the most important prayer in Judaism. This is how it's spoken: “All vows, obligations, oaths, anathemas, whether called ‘Konam,’ ‘Konas,’ or by any other name, which we may vow or swear or pledge, or whereby we may be bound, from this day of atonement unto the next, whose happy coming we await, we do repent. May they be deemed absolved, forgiven, annulled, void and made of no effect; they shall not bind us or have power over us. The vows shall not be reckoned vows; the obligations shall not be obligatory; nor the oaths be oaths.”

The Jewish Encyclopedia (1948 edition) states: “The Kol Nidre attains extraordinary popularity through the gripping melody and the earnestness and solemnity of the hour and exercises a profound influence upon the proving congregation.”

Bar Mitzvah

When a Jewish boy reaches age 13, he begins to prepare for his Bar Mitzvah. There is nothing like it in any other religion. The young boy has spent 10 to 15 hours a week at the Hebrew school learning about the powerful figures in Jewish life whom he should identify with and strive to emulate. The age-old enemies now become his personal and present enemies. His racial identity becomes stronger and he feels an obligation to overcome the old and present foes of his people. It is a day-long celebration in which relatives travel long distances to attend and friends from the local Jewish community bring gifts for the Bar Mitzvah Boy. There is a great deal of singing, chanting, drinking and finally the Rabbi steps forward with the final blessing:

“When you arrived at the Synagogue this morning, there were nine men present. After you entered, there were ten men. That is the first time in your life that occurred because - now you count! From now on, you must take your place as a Jew in overcoming all enemies of our people!”

This is followed by toasts and short congratulatory speeches. The young boy is now a part of the Jewish nation ready to confront a “Hostile world full of the Gentiles.” The boy will become loyal to his race - self-assured, aggressive, disciplined with high self-esteem, purpose and steadfast loyalty to his race.

How unprepared are we the so-called Gentiles, in facing this “United Front of The Jews.” We are taught to be humble, to turn the other cheek, to be meek and mild, so is it any wonder this small 4% of our population controls over 50% of our nation's wealth and their political power expands with each passing day?

The Jewish Kabbala states: “The Jew is the living God, God incarnate: he is the heavenly man. The other men are earthly, of inferior race. They exist only to serve the Jew. They are the cattle seed!” But it was God who called these so-called Jews, “...Synagogue of Satan” in Revelations 2:9. It took me over 20 years to understand that statement, which I will share in Book-3 under the section, “THEY ARE NOT JEWISH.” When you read their history in Book-3, you will see, they really are synagogue of Satan.

My whole life I've said, "I don't believe in division, therefore I don't believe in religion." In the past, my statement was pertaining to the division of man. But it wasn't until I studied and learned the faith and traditions of most known religions, that I realized that the division is far greater than man, it's a division from our CREATOR. ALL RELIGION IS BLASPHEMOUS. It divides us from worshipping, praising, honoring, respecting, loving, and blessing our FATHER in Heaven. We only have two Duties in life... FEAR GOD, and OBEY HIS COMMANDS! Religion, keeps us from these duties that result in Eternal Death, opposed to Eternal Life.

"And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell."

Matthew 10:28

This verse is an "Epiphany," for it is "He" (Religion=Satan) who is mans greatest enemy that exemplifies a sole motivation is to keep man completely duped in false religion, holidays, worship, and traditions, while Satan receives the reward of both, mans life, and his soul. You have a choice to change right now. No matter how old you are, it starts today. You must turn away from Pagan traditions, and turn towards the simple commands given to us by God.

Mormonism

In Mormonism, one needs to posses a special "Temple Card" in order to enter the Temple. Because of this, Mormonism will be considered a secret society and will be exposed greatly in Book-3.

Scientology

One has to buy their way into Scientology and pay their way up the ranks knowledge. Because It is clear from what you just read in Book-1 that all faiths in the world honor Satan, by not keeping the commands of God our CREATOR. This make all faiths equal, in that none are better or worse, but more so, share the same defiance in not honoring, or keeping God's command.

studied Satanism before I signed up for Scientology in the late 90's I have a clear understanding of how L. Ron Hubbard devised this successful secret society. I will expose scientology and Hubbard at the end of Book-3.

We all have a choice...

One final note on the celebration of Birthdays can be found on the next page...

The Pagan Birthday

A Birthday is another ancient pagan tradition that we are not accustomed to asking our parents to define the origins of what we deem a special day. For most of us, an upcoming birthday brings thoughts of parties and presents, and being surrounded by all the special people in our lives. We hold treasured memories of birthday from our past, and while reminiscing, we are also planning for birthdays in our future. We relive birthdays celebrating the rites of passage like our 13th birthday when we officially became a teenager or for some young women, a sweet-16th birthday, marking a day of maturity. Legal Alcohol consumption, of course, was on all of our minds when we turned 21.

Today we celebrate birthdays as a celebration of life. It's our way of telling our loved ones how happy we are that they are sharing our lives. It seems only natural to have a celebration commemorating the day we were gifted with a new life. However, the origins of today's modern birthday traditions are steeply rooted in ancient pagan rituals.

No one really knows which ancient culture to accredit with the origins of birthday celebrations. In the earliest of ancient times, there were no calendars, making it difficult to mark the passing of time to a specific day. Celebrations were reserved for paying homage to their gods and goddesses, who it was believed, could act with benevolence toward the cultures over which they governed. Since many cultures held the belief that their human rulers were descendants of these gods, celebrations also centered around them.

Astronomy was very important to the ancient Egyptians who used it for predicting the Inundation of the Nile, for planning and building great monuments, and for fixing dates of religious festivals. With the perfecting of the calendar through advances in astronomy, it became easier to record and organize the births of individuals. Egyptian, as well as many other ancient cultures, held their rulers as divine descendants of the gods. Because of this belief, they were very attentive to the placement of constellations, planets, the sun and the moon on the days one was born. Over time, the ancient Babylonian practice of astrology made its way into other cultures.

Since the Egyptians viewed their Pharaohs as gods, they believed their fate could affect an entire society, therefore, great care was taken in examination of their astrological charts. Businesses would close and enormous banquets were prepared for hundreds of servants in celebration of the Pharaoh's birthday.

The ancient Greeks didn't celebrate personal birthdays because they preferred to hold these types of celebrations for their gods. One goddess by the name of Artemis was the moon goddess which you learned about earlier in the Catholicism section. Once each month, special cakes were brought to her temple, in celebration of her birth. The cakes were round to symbolize the moon and decorated with lighted candles to represent its glowing light. When she was alive, she was not Greek, but the "Queen of Babylon" (Semiramis). After she was killed by her son, Tammuz, she was, and is still worshipped as the "Queen of Heaven," a title which can be found in the bible, describing how her birthday was celebrated, stating:

"Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee. Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger." Jeremiah 7:15-18 (KJV)

In his own honor, a Roman emperor would hold extravagant festivals to commemorate his birthday. Over time, the practice spread to other wealthy male nobles.

There were many superstitions relating to the day of one's birth during times of old. Both the Greek and Roman cultures subscribed to the idea that every individual had a protective spirit or daemon who attended his birth and watched over him in life. This spirit had a mystic relation with the god on whose birthday the individual was born. Another belief held that birthdays were a day where individuals were more susceptible to harm from bad spirits. On this day, in order to keep the bad spirits at bay, the celebrant would be surrounded by friends and family who would shower them with gifts and well-wishing. Noise making was employed as an additional measure for warding off the bad spirits. The working of magical spells was an integral part of living in ancient times. Giving birthday greets was a way an individual was born.

Giving birthday greets was a way of working a spell for protection as further shielding from evil spirits. They believed that the recipient was surrounded by his personal spirits, therefore more exposed to the power of the spell.

It's quite obvious the practice of birthday celebrations is based in paganism. Once the Christian religion formed, followers shunned the rituals. Jews and Christians during the first and second centuries A.D. regarded the celebrations as a facet of idolatry, condemning the custom. It wasn't until the fourth century the practice began again, becoming common. This change was caused in part to the conversion of the Roman Emperor Constantine, who upon legalizing the practice of Christianity, also brought many pagan rituals known to the Romans for thousands of years.

Today we don't plan a birthday party with an intention of honoring some long lost pagan god or goddess. We simply see it as a celebration of life, an opportunity to share good wishes, and a time to reflect on the year just passed as the birthday boy or girl takes another step on the journey of their lives.

But as you can see, these kind of traditions enrage our FATHER in HEAVEN. We can choose to continue to celebrate our own birthday, or birthdays of others (which is the same thing), or simply turn away from these pagan traditions. The choice is simple, keep the traditions and sever yourself, or turn away from the tradition, and serve God. You have a choice, don't follow the masses and do what they do, because they will always lead your soul (along with their own) to its demise. It was a tradition originally set out for Semiramis, "Queen of the Heaven" who became the Moon goddess. Let's not partake in Ancient Babylonians traditions.
